MATHEWSON IS HERO OF GAME

Stronger in Final Frame Than at Start--Plank Pitches Great Game, But Weakens Near Close--"Home Run" Baker Fanned at Critical Time--"Matty" Given an Ovation for Splendid Work--Never Loses His Head at Critical Moments--No Scores Made Until Tenth Inning--Philadelphia Has Most Hits.

BY HAL SHERIDAN. [UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—Reliable old Christy Mathewson brought home the bases for the New York Giants today in one of the greatest games in the history of the world's series. Connie Mack pinned faith on Eddie Plank, and although the southpaw twirled excellent ball, "Big Six" had the edge, inasmuch as his safe walk brought home the run that enabled the Giants to defeat Philadelphia 3 to 0.

In the first and second inning Plank sent the Giants back to the bench in two, three order. Rube Oldring, second man up in the first inning, brought the crowd to its feet with a solid swat. Eddie Collins, one of the most dangerous pinch hitters in the game followed, and things looked equally for Matty. Collins, however, sacrificed, and Big Six showed his class by fanning "Home Run" Baker. McKanes then fled to Burns.

Summary. Sacrifice hits, Wiltse, Collins; left on bases, New York 6, Philadelphia 6; based on balls, off Plank 2 (Mathewson, Burns); off Mathewson 1 (Strunk); struck out, by Mathewson 5 (Baker, Collins, Burns, McInnes), by Plank 6 (Fletcher, Burns 3, Murray, Wiltse); hit by pitcher, Doyle, by Plank.

and then pitched ball. Lapp hit to Wiltse, who threw to McLean, forcing Strunk at the plate. Plank then hit a grounder to Wiltse, who threw to McLean to catch Barry. McLean threw to Herzog, who returned the ball to Mathewson. Big Six tagged Barry and then made Murphy line to Wiltse. Mathewson was given an ovation as he went to the bench.

Scored by Mathewson. Plank wobbled in the first half of the tenth. McLean, the first man up, sent a clean single to right, and McGraw sent in Grant to run for his catcher. Wiltse sacrificed, sending Grant to second. The crowd yelled at Matty to win his own game, and the wonderful pitcher was equal to the occasion, sending a clean single to left, and Grant scampered home with the first run of the game.

Herzog then hit to Collins and was safe on the second-sacker's wild throw, Matty moving to third and Herzog to second. Plank then hit Doyle, filling the bases. Fletcher showed his worth as a pinch-hitter by sending a clean single over Baker's head, scoring both Mathewson and Herzog.

Burns fanned, and Shafer ended the inning by flying to Murphy. Mathewson was invincible in the tenth. Oldring, Collins and Baker going out in order.

The crowd today was far below that which saw yesterday's game in New York. Yesterday the receipts were above $75,000; today they were only $49,640. Of this sum the players get $26,805; the national commission $4964, and each club $8935. The play by innings:

Dr. Edward H. Todd, newly-elected president of the University of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wash., led chapel at the Willamette University yesterday for the last time before he leaves to take up his new duties.

He expressed himself as extremely sorry to leave them, but felt that there was another field of work where he could do more good. He prophesied that inside of ten years Willamette would have a $1,000,000 paid up endowment.

PEDDLER GETS OFF EASY FOR GUN-PLAY

Snapping the code together last night about 8 o'clock, and seemingly in an angry frame of mind, Judge Kelly fined C. H. Mattox $25 and costs for the crime of carrying concealed weapons.

Mattox is the man who raised a row at the Sehar home east of the city by drawing a revolver on the farmers because they would not pay for some of his lice-killing solution he was peddling and because he alleged he was afraid of "being hurt by the men folks." He was indicted by the last grand jury on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and pleaded guilty last week before Judge Kelly.

Upon the recommendation of Deputy District Attorney Keyes, the minimum sentence was given Mattox, but it could be plainly seen that the court was not entirely pleased over the matter. Mattox paid his fine and the costs.

CANNOT DRAW SALARY FROM TWO STATE JOBS

Attorney-General Crawford this morning answering questions of State Treasurer Kay, gave out an opinion that the state chaplain at the penitentiary, who draws a salary of $600 a year cannot also draw pay as a special officer, this being prohibited by the constitution, which says no person shall hold two offices-if profit at the same time. He also holds that the emergency board had no authority to repay the money expended by Governor West in his crusade; that the governor had no right to create a deficiency except on the authority of the board, and that as the deficiency was created without authority the board had no right to recommend its payment.

However, as the board has already acted on the latter matter, it will probably stand as it is. The emergency board is a small legislature, and can do about as it pleases.

SULZER NOT CALLED AND RESTS CASE

Governor of New York Fails to Face Impeachment Court With Evidence.

SECRETARY TAKES BLAME FOR ACTS

However, He Makes Damaging Admissions During Cross-Examination.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Albany, N.Y., Oct. 5.—The defense in the Sulzer impeachment case rested this afternoon without calling the governor to the stand.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Louis Sarecky, Governor Sulzer's private secretary, aged 27 years, continued today his effort to shield the governor in his method of handling campaign contributions. Under cross-examination today Sarecky was forced into further somewhat damaging admissions. He was still a good witness for the defense to the extent of sticking to his story that he, and not the governor, should be blamed for any carelessness or misconduct in the handling of Sulzer's campaign money, but it was generally considered doubtful if the court would accept as true his assertions that his employer knew nothing of the remarkable things the witness acknowledged.

Destroyed All Records. He had destroyed all the campaign records of receipts and expenditures, Sarecky said, as well as all cancelled checks and stubs connected with the case.

He remembered receiving large contributions from brewers and liquor interests, but could not explain why only one of them was included in Sulzer's campaign account. He could not give a single reason why Jacob Schiff's $10,000 contribution to Sulzer's campaign fund was not accounted for.
