

WILSON DOES NOT ENJOY MAKING TALKS

President Has Not Reached Stage Where Facing Crowds is Great Pleasure For Him.

AIRY PERSIFLAGE NOT IN HIS PARTICULAR LINE

Once In While He Actually Gets Some Enjoyment in Exchange of Wit With Less Fortunate.

BY BURTON K. STANDISH (Written for the United Press)

Washington, Nov. 12.—Up to the present time President Wilson hasn't learned to enjoy addressing crowds. Which, in these days of persistent presidential travel and insistent inhabitants, is somewhat amazing. President Wilson, if he followed absolutely his own wishes and desires in the matter—which he doesn't—would very rarely, if ever, give rear-platform talks or make campaign speeches.

At college and in college atmosphere, however, the president loses his ordinary austerity and actually beams. At Princeton where he went to cast his vote in the primaries, he wandered about the college, acting as guide to the party and explaining the buildings and the treasures in a loving sort of way.

Some Exchanges of Wit
Once in a while though the president actually enjoys these exchanges of wit that come whenever a chief executive or any great man mingles with the rest of the world.

Girl Gets Him.
"Mr. President," cried a girl, grabbed him as he was ascending to his car, and pulling him clear off the steps.

"You said divide—now didn't you—didn't you?" and she literally hugged the chief executive.

"Yes I did," said the president, blushing and dashing for his car. When the train pulled out Evington was in the throes of a feud as to which of its feminine inhabitants was to have the basket.

After it was through, though it was dark and very damp, he insisted on strolling about the campus, talking over college matters with the president of the college, Dr. Swain.

He isn't very fond of having delegations greet him when he is on a train. The formality tires him. All formality does. He has abolished the uniforms on his aides; he carries with him only a stenographer to take his speeches; he never writes out a speech beforehand. He rarely even divulges what he is going to talk about.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girl! Try It! Hair Gets Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant at Once—No More Falling Hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fall out, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 20-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now!

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys Then Back Hurts and Bladder Bothers You.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged, and need a flushing occasionally, also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to finish clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

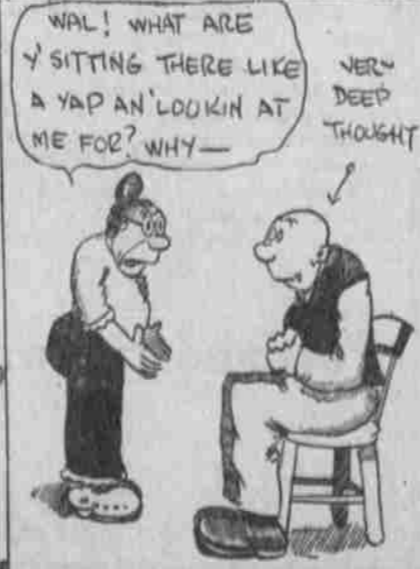

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.
