SALEM CONGRATULATED FOR BANISHING SALOONS

Special Music Will Be One of Features of Session in Congregational Church Tonight.

Attendance at the Oregon Congregational conference was increased today and there was lively interest taken in the addresses.

The opening sessions of the ministers and laymen yesterday afternoon and evening proved to be not only a great success, but very interesting and largely attended by enthusiastic members of the church and friends.

Until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the business of the conference took up the time of the ministers and laymen and Rev. Luther R. Dyott, D. D., of Portland, delivered the opening address.

Rev. J. J. Staub, the moderator, delivered the opening address in the evening. He took as his theme, "The Ministry as the Key to the Great Problems of Thy Kingdom's work."

At 9:30 this morning the members of the conference ended a period of worship and then attended an elegant dinner served in the new church, recently dedicated by Rev. P. S. Knight and this afternoon the regular sessions were held in the Central Congregational church.

After having supper at the Central church, the evening meeting will be held in the First Congregational church and on the program there will be special music by Mrs. Julia Bross Pinnell and Rev. Frank W. Dorman, of Portland, and a violin solo by Miss Mary Schultz, of Salem.

WOODBURN MAYORSHIP

In this country under the laws of Oregon. Therefore, alleges the complaint, the defendant's election should be declared void and the plaintiff should lawfully and rightfully succeed him in the position.

Long an Oregonian. If the statements made by Salem people who know Landon are true, the present mayor is an old-time Oregonian. He came to the United States when he was but six years old, it is said, and his father took out the necessary naturalization papers to make his children citizens.

Landon was elected by a large majority and while he was not exactly a "dry" candidate, the "dry" element in Woodburn backed him strongly, according to residents of that city who are in Salem today. On the other hand, the plaintiff in this suit is opposed to prohibition.

Although it is claimed Landon's father took out naturalization papers when he first came to this country, they cannot be found, according to the mayor's supporters, and as the elder Landon is now dead, Landon, Jr., is unable to determine exactly just where the papers were taken out.

Four councilmen also were elected, and six qualified for the regular election in December.

SENATE DEMOCRATS IN SECRET SESSION IN REGARD TO BILL

Washington, Nov. 12.—Senate Democrats went into secret conference this afternoon over proposed currency legislation. Before the meeting Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, one of the authors of the administration bill, said he believed the conference would result in the Democrats agreeing upon definite and broad principles.

Administration Democrats were inclined to support the general plan of the Glass-Owen bill, but they insisted that a few changes must be made. They want the number of regional banks reduced from twelve to eight. They also believe the stock of the reserve banks should not be thrown open to public subscription, but should be taken up by the member banks.

A most delicate situation was created as a result of threats by several Democrats to bolt if any attempt should be made to bind the party, through caucus to any particular bill.

President Wilson conferred with the Democratic leaders for several hours before the conference began.

DIAZ DENIES HE EVER ASKED HUERTA TO RESIGN PLACE

Paris, Nov. 12.—Ex-President of Mexico Porfirio Diaz denied today that he had sent or inspired a message to President Huerta calling on the latter to resign.

"Huerta's actions are no business of mine," he said, "and if any of my friends cabled to him in my name to retire, they did it on their own responsibility and without consulting me."

It was reported here today that the latest conference between Ambassador Page, of the United States, in London, and British Foreign Minister Sir Edward Grey, related to a proposal that England join America in demanding that Huerta give up his office.

UNCLE SAM DICKERING WITH CARRANZA IN ARIZONA

Washington, Nov. 12.—Compromise in Mexico was in the air today.

President Wilson was trying to induce President Huerta and General Carranza, the rebel leader, to agree on a mutually satisfactory man to succeed Huerta and continue as provisional president until a fair election can be held.

Communication was prostrated following the disaster, so that the first accounts of it did not reach Sisco from Alcabay, the town which suffered most heavily, until last night.

Rebels claimed to have captured several towns south of Piedras Negras. The Japanese cruiser Izumo was ordered to Mexican waters.

A financial panic threatened in Mexico City.

Vernon, Cal., Nov. 12.—Miller's hotel here, conducted by Charlie Miller, the heavyweight pugilist, was completely destroyed by fire early today. The loss, $20,000, is partly covered by insurance.

Louis Parente, a San Francisco fight promoter, owned the hotel, but it was under lease to Miller, who owned the furniture. Miller was expected to arrive today from New York, where he was knocked out recently in three rounds by Gunboat Smith.

EUGENE IS GRATEFUL

The following letter is self-explanatory: EUGENE COMMERCIAL CLUB Promotion Department. Office of Manager. November 5, 1913.

Dear Sir: On Tuesday last there was a splendid victory won at the polls for the cause of higher education in the state of Oregon, when the people voted to sustain the legislature in the appropriations made by it for the much-needed buildings and repairs at the University of Oregon.

The local University of Oregon referendum committee feel in a great measure that the splendid results of our campaign, as shown by the vote on Tuesday, are due to the support given the university measures by the press of the state. There is no factor so potent as the newspaper for moulding and influencing public opinion, and we believe the fact that the press of the state, with but few exceptions, were on the side of the university in the campaign, influenced hundreds of voters the right way on election day.

We, therefore, feel that we ought to show to the men at the head of the newspapers of the state, who were friendly to the university, some measure of appreciation and grateful acknowledgment of the splendid services they rendered the state by standing for the cause of education. It is in this spirit that I am instructed, as the secretary, to send to you a message of grateful appreciation for all that you did to help us win the victory on Tuesday. We beg you to believe our appreciation is sincere and our thanks heartfelt.

Cordially yours, M. J. DURYEA, Secretary. L. E. BEAN, J. S. MAGLARDY, FRANK JENKINS, ALLEN H. EATON, M. J. DURYEA.
