CAUSES OF VICE AND REMEDY IS OUTLINED

Absolute Suppression of Slavery Rather Than Regulation Found to Be Only Course.

IGNORANCE OF GIRLS ONE REASON FOR DOWNFALL

Love of Pretty Clothes, Romance, Double Standard of Morals and Sometimes Low Wages.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Minneapolis, Nov. 13.—A department of recreation to combat the evil influences of the dance halls in all cities, federal laws governing divorces and marriages of interstate nature, and a congress of newspaper men to discuss methods of governing the dissemination of news relative to the white slave traffic were among the recommendations offered by Clifford G. Roe, of Chicago, in an address before the International Purity Congress, which closed here last night. Mr. Roe is the president of the American Bureau of Moral Education and was appointed a delegate to the congress by Secretary of State Bryan, by authority of a joint resolution of the federal congress.

The subject of Mr. Roe's address was "White Slavery and the Best Methods of Dealing With the Evil."

New Methods in Vogue.

"The term 'white slavery' has broadened greatly in recent years," he said. "In the past efforts to deal with the social evil problem were largely regulative. Within the last seven years a new method of dealing with it has been adopted. A scientific study has brought about the adoption of the attitude of constant repression, as the immediate method, and absolute suppression of commercialized vice as the ultimate ideal."

"Neglect by parents in bringing up their daughters is a big factor in the making of white slaves. Mother are often too busy attending clubs, theaters and card parties to find time to spend on their children. Fathers have a keener interest in their properties than they have for the welfare of their daughters. They let their children grow up like weeds in the prairie, to care for and look after themselves."

Many Causes Enumerated.

"Girls who are brought up under such influences are easy prey for the white slave procurers."

Among the causes of white slavery enumerated were:

Ignorance on the part of the public, the parents and the children.

Double standard of morals.

Hasty marriages and divorces.

Love of fine clothes and suggestive fashions.

The spirit of adventure and romance.

Discussing some of the economic causes, he gave the following:

The deferring of marriage because men cannot afford to marry.

Competition of girls and women who do not need to work and help lower wages. Wages are regulated by supply and demand.

Employment of young girls who practically lose the home care and training of mothers.

The absolute elimination of the vice districts and a single standard of morality for men and women were urged.

Prison Proposed as Cure.

Winifred C. Zabel, former district attorney for Milwaukee, made a plea for the extermination of the segregated vice district, urging long-term prison sentences as a cure.

Farms and homes throughout the country where refuge may be extended to unfortunate women are to be established by the Women's Purity Federation, under the auspices of which the congress is held. Five members of the organization were appointed by President Steadwell to study conditions among these women and to establish the refuges. Funds for the enterprise will be raised by the committee.

A purity congress will be held at Kansas City in November, 1914. The next regular congress will be held in 1915, but the location has not yet been decided.

School children over the entire country are asked to contribute 10 cents each to assist Anthony Comstock, of New York, to carry on his crusade against immorality, according to resolutions adopted yesterday. The children are requested to forego one evening at a moving picture show for that purpose.

GIRL WHO IS PRIZE BAKER IS SOUGHT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
North Yakima, Wash., Nov. 13.—The ability to bake the best loaf of bread and the best cake, to make the best shirtwaist and the best plain dress, in a contest open to school girls of the state, has brought to Miss Ileen Townsend, of North Yakima, more than the prizes she has won at the Washington state fair in this city and the children's industrial exhibit in Spokane in the last month and a half.

The latest things her ability has brought her are matrimonial opportunities. That there are excellent opportunities is admitted by the men who offer them.

The offers are all by letter and all of them describe in detail the worldly wealth and physical attributes of the bachelors who make them. One letter that has been received by Miss Townsend is from a rancher near Farmington, Wash., who owns 300 acres and who now does his own cooking, but who wants someone else to do it for him.

Miss Townsend is a student in the North Yakima school and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Townsend, orchardists in Fruitvale, a suburb of this city. In the last two months she has won as prizes two sewing machines, a cedar chest, considerable cash and a number of miscellaneous small articles for her culinary ability and dexterity with the needle.

Huerta Given But Little Assistance From English Firm

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
London, Nov. 13.—The issuance by Lord Cowdray of a signed explanation of the exact extent to which his interest, the Pearson syndicate, has financially aided President Huerta, of Mexico, was taken here today as an indication of the strength of the popular feeling against the policy pursued until a few days ago by Foreign Minister Sir Edward Grey.

"In common with most of the banks and leading houses of Mexico," said his lordship, "my firm and allied companies subscribed for a small proportion—less than 3 per cent—of the government loan made through the National Bank of Mexico."

The British government's attitude having apparently undergone a decided change since Premier Asquith's speech of a few days ago, denying that there was any intention of embarrassing President Wilson in handling the Mexican situation, Lord Cowdray's statement was generally considered satisfactory enough in a purely formal way. At the same time, politicians pointed out, it was not asserted that Pearson's syndicate had directly or even indirectly furnished money to Huerta, but simply that Huerta had obtained it through Pearson's influence.

Waiving the purely financial proposition, every financier in England has been convinced for weeks that the Pearson interest wanted Huerta, or some one he could manage, at the head of the Mexican government, and that, for some reason or other, the foreign office seemed to want the same thing.

SWEET CHOSEN FOR SIAM POST BY WILSON

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Washington, Nov. 13.—The nomination of Alex Sweet, of Portland, as minister to Siam will be sent to the senate tomorrow, Secretary Bryan having announced unofficially today that Sweet had been agreed on for this appointment.

Sweet was strongly recommended by Senator Chamberlain, and is endorsed by many Oregon Democrats in letters and telegrams now on file in the state department. Senator Lane said he had taken no part in bringing about Sweet's appointment.

It is understood that Secretary Bryan who is personally acquainted with Sweet, was instrumental in securing favorable consideration of Sweet's name by President Wilson. Early in the administration Sweet was a candidate for postmaster at Portland.

DOBIE UNWILLING TO MEET WILLAMETTE

Coach Dobie, of the University of Washington, when questioned by Manager Paget in Albany after the State University-Oregon Agricultural College game concerning a game between the University of Washington and Willamette in case Washington defeats Oregon in Portland Saturday, informed the Willamette representative that he had all the trouble he wanted within the conference without hunting for it outside.

Dobie said even if Willamette did defeat Oregon, Washington would have everything to lose and nothing to gain by playing the Salem team. Dobie also stated that O. A. C. Saturday was entirely a different team from a playing point of view than that which went to Seattle last month. "The Oregon Aggies are a better team than Washington today," added Dobie.

Dr. G. J. Sweetland, Jr., coach of the Willamette team, is positive that Washington will be defeated by Oregon.

"Oregon will have a surprise for Washington," said Coach Sweetland. "Both teams should score, but Oregon has in Cornell and Parsons two men who will get away around any odds. While both are over-rated, I believe the Washington line ahead of Dobie's backfield from a defensive point. Washington has been lucky. I believe that Dobie never has had a team whose real strength is as badly exaggerated as at present."

SAYS LABOR SHOULD NOT DISREGARD CHURCH

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 13.—At the American Federation of Labor meeting yesterday afternoon Rev. Sidney Strong, of Seattle, delegate to the federal council of the Church of Christ, who said he represented 15,000,000 members of Protestant churches, apologized for the church's backwardness in recognizing the justice of the trades union's demands.

Bishop John Carroll, of the Catholic diocese of Helena, Mont., delegate to the American Federation of Catholic

SAYS PEOPLE FAIL TO HEED WARNING SIGNS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
San Francisco, Nov. 13.—More than 57 per cent of all people in automobiles, carriages or on foot, who cross railway tracks in California, do not stop moving and fail to look either way for coming trains. Sixty-nine per cent of auto driver never "Stop, Look and Listen."

The Southern Pacific Company today made public the results of a check made at 12 typical crossings in San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Stockton and the country in an investigation to improve crossing conditions.

Statistics show that 1 1/2 per cent of all auto accidents occur at crossings. The railroads and the automobile associations are co-operating to lessen the number.

Here is the Southern Pacific summary of 151 hours at the 12 crossings: Motor vehicles crossed, 16,522; horse-drawn vehicles, 4246; pedestrians, 4528; total, 25,296.

This is how travelers treated the "Stop, Look and Listen" signs:

Stopped and looked both ways 35 .1
Kept moving and looked both ways 8,950 35.4
Kept moving and looked one way 1,694 6.7
Kept moving and looked ahead 14,617 57.8

Of the 16,522 automobiles, 2880 crossed at high speed. The drivers of 9926 automobiles looked neither way. The Southern Pacific officials say they must have more co-operation in guarding against accidents.

BLACK MAMMY SWEARS HER SON LONG INSANE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 13.—Alone in the defense of her son, an old black mammy went on the witness stand here yesterday and swore that Burr Harris, a negro, who murdered Mrs. Rebecca P. Gay, has been insane since childhood.

Harris' mother, Mrs. Clara Harris, was the first witness called by the defense. She recited many alleged insane acts of her son prior to the day, a few weeks ago, when he entered the office of Mrs. Gay, who was a prominent Christian Science practitioner, and beat her to death.

Harris displayed little interest in the proceedings. The court room was crowded, a majority of the spectators being women.

JUDGE KNOWLES INJURED.
