

Still Selling Suits at Ridiculous Prices

Another big rack of Women's and Misses' Suits---were regularly priced up to $48.50. Special, your choice $10

A desirable clearance in the Ready-to-Wear section. These are real bargains; every suit desirable, though some of them are a season old. They must move on, so here's a wonderful value for those who will buy. Don't judge by the price---we ask you to see the suits before you decide.

YOUR CHOICE OF ANY SUIT AT

One-half regular price

Every suit must be sold---we want to be rid of them now, and profit is entirely overlooked in our effort to clear the decks for holiday time. The suits are of brocaded wool poplin, serge, ratine, brocades, etc., and are in the popular colors of navy blue, brown, Copenhagen, Russian green, mahogany, terra cotta, taupe, etc. Beautifully made and finished---every one a worthy garment and well worth its regular price. Surely you can afford two suits at these prices. See the suits and you'll be convinced of the unusualness of this offering.

CRUISER CHESTER APPEARS.
[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Vera Cruz, Mex., Nov. 14.---The scout cruiser Chester arrived here today. It was supposed to have been sent to take Emissary Lind back to the United States when his mission in Mexico is finished. Its arrival at this time was interpreted as meaning that some tangible development---either Huerta's surrender or a final break in relations with him---was very near.

Perhaps the administration at Washington will somehow unseat Huerta, but it seems to be no easy job.
