FIRM REDUCES PRICES ON ITS GOODS VOLUNTARILY

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 21.—A company store which supplies two mining camps a mile apart in territory tributary to the Virginia metropolis today enjoys the distinction of being the first mercantile establishment on record to voluntarily make a flat reduction of 80 per cent on everything upon its shelves "because it was earning too much money." And now sirloin steak at twenty cents per pound is a regular piece of resistance (that doesn't mean it isn't tender); rib roasts at fifteen cents makes them frequent on any table in the region, and the best quality of goods—by package and by the pound—are displayed at prices which carry the uninitiated back about 12 years when the high cost of living bugaboo was not so rampant on the horizon.

"If we make too much money we'll quit," declared the president of the company. And then he warned the store manager that only very nominal returns on the investment would be acceptable to him. But in spite of the general cut in prices, a larger and more centrally located store is being planned.

"You see, our reduced prices," said the manager, "have so increased the volume of our cash sales, that the reductions are almost made up. Sometimes," he said almost mournfully, "I'm downright discouraged because the increased volume in trade comes so close to giving us the profits we used to make when we sold in smaller quantities and charged higher prices." The new store will handle a stock of $50,000 and a small army of clerks will be necessary.

ARRAIGNMENT OF LAND SWINDLERS IS POSTPONED

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—The arraignment of 11 former officers and officials of the Los Angeles Investment company, charged with misusing the mails was postponed yesterday for 30 days by United States Judge Rudkin. Judge Rudkin announced that his action was taken at the request of United States District Attorney Albert Schoonover, who desired more time for a federal investigation of the company's affairs, which is now under way.

According to Schoonover, the men will not be brought to trial upon the present indictments, but upon bills that will be voted later.

FOR MISSOURI IMPROVEMENT

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Sioux City, Iowa, Nov. 21.—A comprehensive plan for the improvement of the Upper Missouri watershed, and the securing of federal aid, as outlined in the Newland bill was considered today at the sessions of the Upper Missouri Improvement association in annual convention here. Delegates are in attendance from many cities in Iowa, South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana and Nebraska. Speakers today pleaded for unanimous support by the convention and all affiliated bodies, of the Newland bill.

MAIL CHRISTMAS PARCELS EARLY SAYS POSTOFFICE

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Washington, Nov. 20.—Policers have been sent out from the postoffice department to be displayed in the post-offices throughout the country bearing the request "Mail Christmas parcels early." It is realized that, while the parcel post has proved entirely adequate to handle the ordinary routine business, it will be swamped if the deluge of Christmas presents is not distributed. The engaging of additional assistance is authorized by the department, and every effort will be made to make the service "stand up," to prevent the possibility of criticism on the part of numerous militant enemies of the parcel post, who would be glad of an opportunity to take a dig at the institution.

CHARTER IS GRANTED.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 21.—The report of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, favoring the issuance of a charter of affiliation to the International Steam Shovel and Dredgers, which was opposed by the longshoremen, was adopted.

SUPFRAGETTE FINED.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Washington, Nov. 21.—Miss Lucy Burns was fined and paid $1 today for chalking suffragette sentiments on the sidewalks in front of the White House and elsewhere.

MOB SACKS HEADQUARTERS.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Oxnard, England, Nov. 21.—While a fire, supposedly set by suffragettes, was doing $100,000 damage in a lumber yard here today, a mob sacked the local suffragette headquarters.

SHOWS HIS EMPLOYER.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Leaving a note saying he was killing himself to show his employer that he was a brave man, Race Del Car, a laborer, shot himself dead early today.

BIG LEVIES MADE.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Baredo, Texas, Nov. 21.—The federal military authorities at Monterey, Mexico, today made big levies against all foreign business houses to pay the troops in that district. It was said that several refused and asked the United States consul's protection.

PROTECTION OF MADERO

obeying, they fled to the American consulate.

Marines were held in readiness on the warships here and at Tuxpan for a landing on short notice. It was hoped it would not be necessary for them to go ashore, but Admiral Fletcher made all the necessary preparations, as a precaution against any sudden anti-foreign outbreak.

To Protect Maderos.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Following a conference with President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan today wired Consul Canada at Vera Cruz to give protection to Evaristo and Daniel Madero and their friends, who sought refuge in the United States consulate there.

Thanks Choate.

Washington, Nov. 21.—President Wilson wrote to Joseph Choate, former American ambassador to England, thanking him for a speech he made before the New York chamber of commerce last night, in which he urged all Americans to support the chief executive's Mexican policy "through thick and thin."

Stand Back of Mexico.

New York, Nov. 21.—Critics of President Wilson's "waiting policy" in regard to Mexico got small satisfaction out of today's published reports of Joseph H. Choate's speech on the subject before the New York Chamber of Commerce last evening.

Had the Pearsons, through the English government, been able to support Huerta, it was considered a foregone conclusion they would have received the concession. Since they failed, it was hard to see what Huerta would gain by continuing to favor them, and the chances that they would get what they wanted dwindled.

Calls Report Absurd.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Secretary of State Bryan ridiculed a report circulated in London that President Wilson planned to recognize the government of Provisional President Huerta, of Mexico.

"The report is too absurd to warrant further comment," said Bryan.

BRING WISCONSIN IDEAS

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Returning a visit made by Mayor Blankenburg and a party of city officials and University of Pennsylvania professors to Madison, Wisconsin, this spring a similar delegation from the University of Wisconsin arrived here today headed by President Charles Van Hise, of Wisconsin University. The party included heads of departments and state officials who brought with them more "Wisconsin ideas" on how to run universities and cities. The visitors were the guests of the City club. Most of the lectures they delivered at the University of Pennsylvania. Besides President Van Hise the party included Mrs. Lois K. Matthews, dean of the women's department; Louis S. Reber, dean of the extension department, and Dr. Charles McCarthy, legislative reference librarian.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Denver, Nov. 21.—The state supreme court yesterday afternoon ordered Auditor Kenahan to pay the indebtedness certificates issued to cover the expense of keeping militia in the southern coal fields.

Governor Ammons announced last night that the latest negotiations between mine owners and strikers had been broken off, the operators rejecting the miner's proposition. Union recognition was the demand on which they split.

WILLAMETTE GETS FAVORABLE NOTICE

Sound Newspaper Pays Great Compliment to Small, Coach Sweetland and Team Generally.

That Willamette University's football team is becoming known far and near is shown by the following from the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, in which a deserved tribute is paid to Coach Sweetland:

By Gee.

Strange dreams, empty hopes and a well drilled football machine are not the only unusual things about the Willamette university. Every day brings something from Salem, Or., that stamps the University of Willamette as a place where ordinary human beings have no place or purpose.

Not very often is the star halfback of a football team anything but a physical marvel, a physical tower of brawn and sinew, yet the biggest man at Willamette university today is Halfback "Tiny" Small. Small is no larger than his name suggests—as a matter of fact, he weighs only a mere 128 pounds, which is light for even a minor high school football team. Some one thought the Willamette people had only dreamed his name was Small since he put over the touchdowns that conquered Oregon, but this same little gridiron hero played last year at Willamette and he is found in the group picture of Willamette team embodied in the 1913 rule book.

Small's nimble footwork, nerve and quick brain work defeated the U. of O. recently. The score of 6 to 3 was entirely the work of the tiny halfback. Flitting down the field like a butterfly, under the punt of one of his own men Small scooped the ball when it bounded from the hands of the Oregon defensive quarterback and threw himself over the line for the winning touchdown. Now a Salsum scribe has discovered the secret of that touchdown. Dr. Sweetland is supposed to have built up a play that would allow Small to sneak down the field unnoticed in the hope that just such a fumble would be made. Maybe Dr. Sweetland based that play on Pratt's dream.

The Willamette university turns out a wonderful team considering the handicaps. With only 25 per cent the material given the conference coaches, Sweetland's teams have always given Oregon eleven a battle. He has captured the non-conference championships in Doubleque regularly since his advent at Salem, and this year defeated Oregon with a team that averages only 160 pounds, less than many high school teams in the Northwest.

Two years ago the Methodists battled the Oregon Aggies to a 5 to 3 score at Corvallis, the Aggies encountering the stiffest kind of opposition from the peppery Willamette team. Last year Oregon had difficulty in amassing 12 points against Sweetland's proteges.

The defeat of Oregon last Saturday and the victory over Multnomah Club in 1910 will long be remembered at the Oregon capital. Last Thanksgiving day Willamette triumphed over the University of Montana by a 39 to 0 score.

JIM JEFFRIES AND HIS PARTY SNOWBOUND TODAY

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
San Bernardino, Cal., Nov. 21.—James J. Jeffries and four other Los Angeles sportsmen are snowbound today in Bear valley, San Bernardino mountains, where they went before the recent storms, to hunt ducks.

The party carried provisions sufficient for a week, but there is little chance that they can reach civilization for many days. Snow lies five feet deep on the level, and fills the canyons, which are impassible.

Little apprehension for their safety is felt, however, as mountaineers here believe that, should their provisions run short, they will be able to kill sufficient game to provide food.

WILLAMETTE WILL ENTER.

Indications are today that Willamette university will make application for conference entrance on December 5, when the delegates from the Northwest will convene in Portland. The "W" club, the strongest undergraduate organization at Willamette, has voted solidly for entrance. In a few days a vote will be taken by the student body on the proposition.

FIGHT POSTPONED.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Denver, Colo., Nov. 21.—The scheduled 15-round fight between Jimmy Fox, of San Francisco, and Benny Chase, of Trinidad, was postponed today until December 1.

IMAGE OF BUDDHA CAUSES FIERCE REVOLVER FIGHT

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—An image of Buddha carved from rare wood and inlaid with gold and mother of pearl was the cause yesterday of a revolver battle in the Japanese quarters here, in which Hashi Yokom, a wealthy Japanese, was wounded in the arm, and an unidentified Japanese shot through the chest.

Yokom told the police he has received several letters demanding that he deliver the idol to a Japanese secret society. This he persistently refused to do.

Just as Yokom had concluded certain rites before the idol yesterday, three men, their heads and bodies covered by robes, rushed into his home and opened fire on him. Although wounded, Yokom replied with a revolver he always carried. One of his assailants fell, but was dragged away by his companions, who fled.

Yokom claimed to be unable to identify the men. He asked police protection.

SIE THOMAS FINED

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
London, Nov. 21.—Sir Thomas Lipton was fined $50 yesterday for auto speeding in the Streatham district.

SAYS RULERS MAKE WAR BUT MASSES DO FIGHTING

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Washington, Nov. 21.—Senator Thomas, of Colorado, introduced a resolution in the upper house yesterday demanding that America participate, with the rest of the world's powers, in the "naval holiday" proposed by Lord of the English Admiralty Churchill.

"Rulers declare war but the masses wage it," he said. "The spread of socialism, with its protest against armies and navies, is one of the greatest peace agencies of the century.

"If socialism does nothing else, this one achievement justifies the sentiment which made it possible."

SOME EXCUSE FOR KILLING OFF CERTAIN OFFICERS

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Washington, Nov. 21.—President Wilson was quoted today as saying there was an excuse for some of the executions General Villa ordered after Juarez' capture.

Their victims, it was stated, were deserting rebel officers who had been given high ranks as federals, and the death of some of them had been decreed by previous courtmartial.

UNCLE SAM WILL SHOW WHAT HE IS DOING

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Washington, Nov. 21.—Some of those cold nights, Mr. Man, when you take your wife and the bairns to the movies, you're going to get an unexpected treat in the educational line. Uncle Sam wants to show you just how he's trying to safeguard your health, and just how you, yourself, can help him to do it. With this idea in mind he has arranged to have shown throughout the country a series of moving pictures depicting the members of the Public Health and Marine Hospital service staff at work in their laboratories where they devise the best methods of exterminating and preventing disease.

Your Uncle Sam has a lot of interesting lines of work in this connection and it extends all the way from wiping out plague-bearing rats of the California water-front and sewers to fighting the dread infantile paralysis which thus far has baffled scientists in their search for a successful cure.

CHRISTMAS RATES.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Portland, Nov. 21.—For the first time in history, the steam railroads operating in the Pacific Northwest will this year give reduced rates for the Christmas and New Year holiday period. The announcement is made by E. H. Crozier, assistant general passenger agent of the Oregon Electric and S. P. & S. system, who was in attendance at the conference of the North Pacific Coast Passenger association. The various lines in the northwestern states will announce in due time a fare and a third for the round trip from December 23 to January 5. This action comes after several years' of consideration by the members of the railroad organization.
