OREGON LAWS WILL GIVE THEM HARD GAME

Oregon Laws, who come here Thursday to play Willamette are coached by Borkesleske, who has charge of Portland's inter-scholastic champions, the Lincoln high eleven. He has been working the men hard for the last three weeks in preparation for another contest on this date which the team have turned down for a chance to try and wrest back the honors that Willamette surprised their fellow students from Eugene by taking the notable contest on November 1.

The only game they have played that gives any hope on how they compare with Willamette was a contest with Pacific university two weeks ago in which they ran up a large score. Pacific's eleven have greatly improved since their appearance in this city defeating Chemawa Saturday and the decisive drubbing handed them by the law school team speaks well for their playing.

They Want Revenge.

They have the Oregon spirit through and through and will arrive in the city Thursday determined to secure revenge for the victory which they claim Willamette accidentally slipped over on their team from the liberal arts school at Eugene.

With the prospects that they would play the Vancouver Soldiers on Thanksgiving the Willamette team remembering that 71 to 0 defeat handed out to them in last year's contest has been lagging lately and it will take strenuous work on the part of the coach if the local team make the showing next Thursday that they did against Oregon.

Also an Accident

Coupled with this slump in "pop" is an accident that occurred last Friday afternoon that will have a very small effect on the playing of the Willamette team. Paul Homan the star of the team and most essential member of the squad, because of his marvelous work at the pivot's position throw his elbow out of point in scrimmage and will be unable to lend his moral support to defeating the Portlanders.

BUD ON WAY SOUTH

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Portland, Ore., Nov. 25.—In order to be at the ringside of the Rivers-Cross fight at Los Angeles Thursday afternoon to challenge the winner, Bud Anderson, the Vancouver, Wash. lightweight, left for the south last night. Manager Donald telegraphed Bud that the fight with Jack Britton will be either December 16 or 20.

DRAMATIC NEWS

"WHAT HAPPENED TO MARY"
"What Happened to Mary" is a powerful story that is not devoid of comedy situations and there are many amusing and logical episodes brought about for the framework of the more dramatic situations, with back of it all a beautifully conceived love theme. "What happened to Mary" will be presented at the Grand Opera House on Thanksgiving day with an excellent cast of Metropolitan players and the complete New York City, Fulton theatre production. Both matinee and evening performances will be given.

"THE HIGH ROAD"

An corelevants of the main theme of "The High Road," which Mrs. Fiske is to bring to the Grand Opera House on Saturday, November 29. Edward Sheldon has introduced a number of present-day social and political problems which make for an interest that is said to be as engrossing as it is timely. This interest rests largely upon the battle between Mary Page and powerful political and industrial factors opposed to her husband on account of his attitude on woman labor, involving shorter hours and generally improved working conditions. It is the purpose of his opponents to use long buried facts in Mary's early career against him, but her love for her husband and her zeal show her a way to bring about their utter defeat. In this dramatically complex but wonderfully human role, Mrs. Fiske has achieved a notable success, one of the most brilliant of her career.

"WITHIN THE LAW"

One of the most important events of the local theatrical season will be the first appearance here at the Grand Opera House on Monday, Dec. 1, under the direction of the American Play company, of Margaret Illington in "Within the Law." Bayard Veiller's seemingly irresistible play of contemporaneous metropolitan conditions, in which this favorite star is at present making the atrial history in Chicago, where she has settled down to a run that bids fair to continue for many months.

MOOSE WILL HAVE GREAT SHOW EARLY NEXT MONTH

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings December 9th and 10th, Eugene Walter's great success, "The Girl of the North," will be presented at the Grand Opera House under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose. The play is given under the direction of McNaughtan Bros., professional show producers, who are well known throughout theatrical circles on the coast and come here highly recommended, and who, with the assistance of local talent in the remainder of the cast and specialties, stage a decidedly attractive bill.

"The Girl of the North," is one of the famous Belasco productions and was proven to be one of his greatest successes. It is a tale of life and adventure in the Canadian Northwest which has given birth to so many quaint and thrilling romances and those who have seen Walter's other plays, namely, "Paid in Full," "The Eastest Way," "Fine Feathers," "The Thief," etc., know that in his character delineations he is

For INDIGESTION

It is so much wiser to take the proper remedy than to let the trouble continue, that you ought to act without delay. Indigestion robs you of your strength, of your sleep, of your power to work or to enjoy the natural pleasures of life. If it lasts—if your food is not permitted to nourish you—serious sickness is almost certain to follow. This may cause you more intense suffering and cost you a great deal of time and money to cure.

But Beecham's Pills will help you to overcome the trouble safely, surely, quickly, before harm is done. This great world-remedy is famous for the lasting good it does as well as for its immediate tonic effect upon the stomach and other organs of digestion.

BILIOUSNESS

It shows that poisons are being formed in the intestinal tract. Headaches, poor appetite, restless nights, bad dreams, sour taste, coated tongue, sallow skin, nervousness are among the symptoms of Biliousness. Beecham's Pills relieve these distressing conditions by removing the cause. Purer blood, sounder nerves, clearer brain, brighter spirits will be yours when your system has been cleansed of impurities and your stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels toned and regulated by
