

THE BEST NEWSPAPER

The Daily Capital Journal

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION

THIRTY-SIXTH YEAR.

SALEM, OREGON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1913.

PRICE TWO CENTS. ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS, FIVE CENTS.

SLAUGHTER OF FOREIGN RESIDENTS IS FEARED

STEPS TAKEN TO ARM EVERYONE IN MEXICO CITY

Followers of General Carranza Predict He Will Be in Capital by January 1--Will Organize Provisional Government--General Villa Prepares to Capture Chihuahua City--Cathedral Sacked and Sacristan Killed--Federals Execute One Hundred Non-Combatants--Lind Reports Conditions Serious in Tuxpan-Tampico District.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Nov. 27.--Fearing an uprising against them, foreigners in Mexico City spent an anxious Thanksgiving day. Several ministers issued warnings to their nationalities, and in some cases steps were taken toward armed defense.

His followers predicted General Carranza would be in Mexico City by January 1. Meantime he was expected immediately to choose a regular capital, organize a provisional government, and ask America for recognition of belligerents' rights.

General Villa's men were repairing the railroad south from Juarez preliminary to starting for Chihuahua City, capturing it and going to the capital. Early reports of losses in Monday's and Tuesday's fighting near Juarez proved to have been somewhat exaggerated, but the number of killed alone still ran into the hundreds.

General Villa took a holiday from fighting to attend the Juarez races. It was confirmed that the federals recaptured Las Vacas from the rebels after a fight in which 100 were killed on both sides.

That federal soldiers had executed 100 non-combatants at San Carlos, near Las Vacas, was reported. Another report had it that the rebels had sacked the cathedral at San Dionisia, murdering the sacristan and kidnapping the priest.

Emissary Lind reported to Washington that conditions in the Tuxpan-Tampico district were serious, but not critical, and he did not think it would be necessary to land marines.

Cathedral Looted.

Mexico City, Nov. 27.--Rebels were reported today to have swooped upon the cathedral at the town of San Dionisia, murdered the sacristan at the altar, kidnapped the priest and sacked the house of worship.

Madero's Uncle Arrested.

Mexico City, Nov. 27.--Leandro Tre-vania, an uncle of the late President Madero, was arrested here today on President Huerta's order, as he was preparing to leave for Vera Cruz.

Will Attack Rebels.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 27.--The 25 carloads of federal soldiers, reported on their way here from Mexico City, arrived in due season and were today ordered to Tuxpan to attack the rebels. It was this which gave rise to so much anxiety concerning the outlook in the oil fields. If attacked, it was feared the rebels would fire the wells, involving losses, mainly to the English Pearson syndicate, which must amount to millions.

Villa at Race Meet.

Juarez, Mexico, Nov. 27.--General Villa forgot war today to attend the opening of the race meet here. He occupied a box, bowing and smiling affably when the crowd cheered him.

Issued Warning.

Mexico City, Nov. 27.--The German, English and Cuban ministers today thought the outlook extremely threatening, and warned all their nationalities in the interior to report to their nearest consuls for protection.

The Danish residents, who are without diplomatic representation, were invited to register with the British, and generally responded.

Will Protect Britishers.

Washington, Nov. 27.--Sir William Tyrrell, secretary to Sir Edward Grey, England's foreign minister, this afternoon conferred here with President Wilson. The president, it was said, promised that America would protect British interests in Mexico.

Refugees Get Tickets.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 27.--Transportation to their homes was furnished today to many American refugees from Monterey, Mexico. Most of them were destitute.

SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT AND DINNERS FOR STATE WARDS

All state institutions are today holding Thanksgiving services and giving the usual extra dinners.

The penitentiary, as has been the custom for years at the institution, gave an entertainment this morning in the auditorium. T. G. Bligh, proprietor of the Bligh theatre, furnished entertainment in the form of motion pictures and some specialties selected from his present bill now filling an engagement here, and the Salem glen club furnished selections. Following the entertainment, the prisoners were treated to an excellent Thanksgiving dinner and another open chapel meeting will be held some time this afternoon.

The blind school, reform school, girls' institution, Indian school, school for the feeble minded, asylum and tuberculosis hospital are giving inmates an especial dinner, and the governor and other state representatives are busy this afternoon visiting the different state buildings.

FINAL FOOTBALL SCORES.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Carlisle 13, Brown 0. Philadelphia--Cornell 21; Pennsylvania 0. Dickson 0, Lafayette 7. Western Reserve, 17; Case, 6.

BIGH HELPS ENTERTAIN CAPITAL JOURNAL BOYS

Mr. Bligh, as well as The Capital Journal, likes the hustling newboys and carrier, and as an expression of this liking, he has invited all of them down to the Bligh theatre as his guests tonight. It surely is "Newboys' day," as well as Thanksgiving, and the little fellows are sure making the most of it.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF NICARAGUA HELD FOR KILLING COUNTRYMEN

Not for Murdering Two Americans, as Formerly Understood.

MAY BE HEARING TODAY

Possible That Question of Honoring Extradition Request May Be Taken Up By Commissioner.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

New York, Nov. 27.--Former President Zelaya, of Nicaragua, is under arrest here today on a charge of murder. The warrant on which the ex-dictator was arrested mentioned as his alleged victims the names, not of Grace and Cannon, but of two Nicaraguans, Domingo Teribio and Sixto Pineda.

It was explained, however, that the Nicaraguans' names were used instead of the Americans' on account of some not very clearly explained technicality in the extradition treaty, as a result of which it was believed the former would be the more convenient, if not the only method of securing the fugitive's return to his own country.

It was for the Grace and Cannon killings, it was stated, that he really was wanted.

Though it was a holiday, it was believed a hearing would be arranged for him before United States Commissioner Shields this afternoon.

A message from Washington said the papers in the case had not yet reached the state department.

ELEANOR WILSON IS ILL FOLLOWING UNDUE EXCITEMENT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Washington, Nov. 27.--Miss Eleanor Wilson was attended by a physician today. Her illness, it was said, was not serious, but resulted from nervousness incidental to the excitement of the wedding at the White House yesterday of her sister, Jessie to Francis B. Sayre.

It was stated at the White House that Miss Eleanor was recovering rapidly, and expected to accompany the president to New York to witness Saturday's football game between the army and navy squads.

The whereabouts of Sayre and bride was still unknown here today. It was expected, however, that they would reach New York in time to sail Saturday for Europe.

MAN WHO KILLED NELSON TESTIFIES AGAINST WIDOW

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 27.--James F. Cook, under sentence of life imprisonment for killing Frank J. Nelson, was the chief witness yesterday against Mrs. Nelson, charged with conspiracy to commit murder. Shortly after the fatal shooting of Nelson by Cook the latter declared his love for his victim's wife had caused his act.

Cook testified yesterday that he killed Nelson because he feared Mrs. Nelson would kill him unless he did. He next declared that the woman gave him $30 for the job, and concluded by swearing that he had no real idea of his motive.

The Weather

The Dickey Bird says: Rain tonight and tomorrow and high south wind.

President Wilson's Daughter, Thirteenth White House Bride

Photo copyright, 1913, by Marcus. Mrs. Francis B. Sayre nee Jessie Wilson, who is enjoying her honeymoon at some place unknown to friends, and will sail Saturday for Europe.

Darling is Getting Along Nicely After Hillsboro Accident

Lloyd Darling, the young Salem lad, who had the misfortune to lose his left arm recently in a railroad accident near Hillsboro, is now in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, and is getting along nicely, according to his father, O. L. Darling, the well-known veteran passenger agent for the Southern Pacific company here.

The injured boy's father last night gave a detailed account of the accident. He said that his boy has been braking on a freight train which is called the "McMinnville turn-around." While doing some switching at Hillsboro, young Darling was standing on the running board of the tender attached to the engine, and had signaled the engineer to back up and bump a box car, in order to shove the car over a slight incline in the switch yards, where it would remain stationary. The engine collided with the car much harder than was expected by the brakeman, and the result was he was thrown down between the car and the tender, and before he could scramble out of danger, the tender wheels passed over his left arm, just above the elbow, completely severing the member.

O. L. Darling has been one of the Southern Pacific company's most faithful employes for the past 26 years, and the company sympathizes greatly with the bereaved parents of the injured boy. Lloyd Darling was formerly freight agent at the S. P. depot here, and had been braking on the road but a short time. His associates on the Hillsboro line say that he showed remarkable ability as a railroad man, and that he was on the verge of advancement to a higher position when the accident occurred.

BUBONIC PLAGUE KILLING OFF HUNDREDS IN GUAYAQUIL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Panama Nov. 27.--Passengers arriving here today from Guayaquil reported that bubonic plague and yellow fever were raging there. Three hundred and sixty persons, they said, had died from the plague, and 70 from the fever.

WOMAN SHOTS HUSBAND AND ALLEGES HE BEAT HER

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Portland, Nov. 27.--W. A. Loveland, 45 years old, was shot and instantly killed at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a gun held in the hand of his wife, Josephine, as she faced him in the main room of their home at 909 Commonwealth avenue, Portland Heights.

Mrs. Loveland was found hysterical after the shooting by Miss Francesca Grothjean, a neighbor, living on Seventeenth-street Terrace, who rushed in to the Loveland house on hearing the shot, fearing that Loveland had made good an alleged oft-repeated threat that he would kill his wife and his little 11-year-old step-son, Willard Strickler. Mrs. Loveland made a statement to District Attorney Collier and Police Detectives Hill and Ackerman last night, in which she says her husband, who is an engraver, and works at his trade in their house on Portland Heights, for months has been accusing her of infidelity, and that time and time again he has beaten her black and blue in a fury of jealousy.

If no big oil company is yet back of Huerta, he is lost.

WOMAN IS IN PITIFUL PLIGHT BECAUSE NO PENSION GIVEN HER

Has Four Small Children to Take Care of and is Forced to Take Them Out to Places Where She Does Washing for Living--Bushey Urged to Obey Law and Give Her Money to Which She is Entitled--Told Plainly That There is No Reason Why He Should Set Aside Law--Claims Lack of Funds.

County Judge Bushey is being asked quite frequently now why he does not take some definite action in regard to the 65 applications for widow's pensions now on file with the county clerk.

Up to the present time the court has not granted a single application, and those making the applications are beginning to investigate the reason for what they claim to be unreasonable delay.

A man called upon County Judge Bushey yesterday afternoon and made inquiries as to why the court has not granted a pension to a woman residing in the north end of the county. The caller informed the court that the woman in question has filed her application in due legal form and that she is greatly in need of financial support.

He declared that the applicant's husband is dead, and that she has four small children to take care of. Judge Bushey was told that the woman was compelled to do outside washing for a living, and that she took her children with her, they being so young that she does not dare leave them alone at home.

Inasmuch as the law is on the statute books, and the applicants for widow's pensions are entitled to such support, unless they are proven unworthy, upon investigation, the visitor at the court house yesterday told the court that there was no plausible reason why the law is not followed to the letter in regard to issuing pension orders.

It seems, according to the court, that there are no funds on hand from which to draw pensions for needy widows.

SALEM MAN IS LOWEST BIDDER ON ALBANY CONTRACT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Nov. 27.--Bids were opened yesterday by the treasury department for the construction of a postoffice building at Albany. The bidders were: A. W. Kutsche, Portland, $76,000 for limestone or sandstone; J. H. Gallinan, Portland, $74,000 for sandstone or limestone; F. A. Erickson, Salem, $67,650 for sandstone or $58,975 for limestone. No award was made, but the Portland bidders probably are eliminated.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC SUED FOR ARRESTING WRONG MAN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Nov. 27.--Suit for $125,000 against the Southern Pacific railway was brought here yesterday by Edward A. Fiske, automobile salesman and club member, for alleged false arrest and imprisonment.

Fiske was held in jail recently for 24 hours, railroad detectives suspecting him of being the bandit who held up four Southern Pacific trains near here. He was released when trainmen and passengers declared he was not the robber.

PITCHER J. BUSH ALMOST IN TEARS WHEN AUTO KILLS OLD MAN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Brainerd, Minn., Nov. 27.--Pitcher Joe Bush, of the Philadelphia Athletics, protested, almost with tears, today that he was not to blame for the death of Louis Miller, aged 75 years, whom his automobile struck and killed last night. The old man, he said, stepped unexpectedly directly in front of his car and he had no time to throw off power or put on the brakes. The machine was the same one given to him by Philadelphia fans recently.

SERVICES OF INTEREST HELD IN CHURCHES OF THIS CITY

Thanksgiving services were held in the several churches of Salem today, the programs announced in yesterday's Capital Journal being carried out. The attendance was large, and the musical programs given in connection were much enjoyed.

The Thanksgiving sermon at the Presbyterian church was given by Rev. H. T. Babcock and Dr. E. N. Arison presided. At the Central Congregational church, Rev. T. J. Woodcock preached. Rev. James E. Lewis preached at the Jason Lee Memorial church.

A choral celebration of the Holy Eucharist, followed by a short sermon by the pastor, was given at the Episcopal church.

At St. Joseph's Catholic church Rev. A. Moore celebrated mass and Rev. C. A. Maher preached the sermon.

WILSON AND BRYAN IN ATTENDANCE AT MASS IN WASHINGTON

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Nov. 27.--A "Pan-American" mass at St. Patrick's cathedral was the principal Thanksgiving feature here today. President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan and most of the diplomatic representatives from Central and South American countries, as well as many from Europe, were present. The government departments were closed.

CITY HALL BONDS CARRY.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Klamath Falls, Or., Nov. 27.--Bonding a city hall was carried by a vote of 240 to 60. The light vote was partly accounted for by the fact that many voters had not registered under the new law. That this was not the sole reason, however, is shown by the heavy vote in the second ward, where the new building to be located.