You won't have to jog your memory very hard to remember the time when candy worthy the same cost double what it does here. We have revolutionized prices and standards. Purity and freshness are first essentials, then reasonable prices. See our window display. Have you bought the Christmas sweets? If not, try Sperling, 311 North Commercial street.

In buying Tip Top bread, you buy a loaf that is absolutely clean. Every body is now demanding pure air, pure water and pure food. What should be more pure than bread. The "staff of life" and staple of our every meal. Wrapped in a waxed paper to keep the goodness in—the impurities out. The sole agency for Salem is at Sperling's, the grocer, 311 North Commercial street.

The remains of the late A. E. Johnson will be buried in Lee Mission cemetery tomorrow afternoon. The funeral will take place from the undertaking parlors of Rigdon & Richardson at 1 o'clock and Rev. P. S. Knight will conduct the services.

Mrs. Frank A. Thompson entertained the Ladies' Aid of Salem Heights Wednesday afternoon in her usual hospitable manner. Not very many were able to attend, but all who were present had a lovely time. This was probably the last meeting of the year 1913.

The Ellers Music House has a few pianos left from a carload that they had shipped to Salem for the Christmas trade. We will close the balance out regardless of price. If you ever expect to get a piano, don't fail to see these high grade instruments that we are selling at less than the other houses are asking for cheap ones. Sample room 318-328 Hubbard building.

COP BEATS "KIDNAPER."
(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 20.—A bone-headed cop spoiled a motion picture kidnaping scene being staged in Broadway here. He tackled the kidnaper, and gave him a real beating, and then started in on the actors, who came to the rescue. A grinning operator filmed it all.

EIGHT OPERATIONS IN WEEK.

Eight operations in one week is the record that has been made by Dr. Harry E. Clay recently. Pat O'Gary, a well known young man, will leave the hospital today after undergoing a serious operation. Mrs. Cornelius, of Turner, will also leave the institution for her home today. An operation was performed on Mrs. H. O. White, of this city, by Dr. Clay last Tuesday, and she is reported to be getting along nicely. Dr. Clay also reports that Miss Smith, a well-known local young woman, has recovered completely from an operation which she underwent a week ago.
