The Best Newspaper

.......

The Daily

The Largest Circulation

*******

THIRTY-SIXTH YEAR.

SALEM, OREGON, MONDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1913.

PRICE TWO CENTS. ON TRAINS AND NEWS

FARLY VERDICT

Question of Sanity of Prisoner Only One Involved and Judge Tells Jury if It Decides He Is Guilty of Murder in First Degree and Sane at the Time He Must Go to the Electric Chair --- Case Goes to Jury at 2 O'clock and Members Immediately Go to Lunch.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] the confessed murderer of Anna Aumul- | Judge Foster's charge dealt solely ler, will know his fate before night. The with the law relating to homicide and

The jury immediately went to lunch, first degree murder, he must die in the the court ordering a recess until 2:45 electric chair.

o'clock this afternoon.

o'clock. It was expected that the de-New York, Dec. 29.-Hans Schmidt, liberations of the jury would be brief. insanity. He said if the jury decided case went to the jury shortly before 2 that Schmidt is insane, he must go to Matteawan asylum -- if convicted of saving to the state.

TO NATIVE LAND

Pans Through Portland.

sail tomorrow for Hong Kong.

ALLOWING MERE BOYS

TO GAMBLE IN PLACE

Judge Elgin this morning fined Frank

Stottard, the proprietor of the little store on Court street, between Liberty and High, $25 for permitting gambling to be carried on in his place of bush-

Stottard is the man who was arrested is connection with three young boys who were fined $25 each for playing

SAYS IT IS AN ACCIDENT.

[UNITED PRESS LEADED WISE.]

Vancouver, Wash., Dec. 29 .- Telling and paid his fine.

PRESIDENT WILSON MAY CHINESE FROM INSANE ASYLUM ARE ON WAY BE OBLIGED TO GO ELSEWHERE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WINE.] Pass Christian, Miss., Dec. 29,-Dr. from the state asylum for the insane

Cary Grayson formade President Wilson were sent to Portland on a special car to attend to any correspondence today, on the Oregon Electric. They reached He insisted that the president would be Portland at 10:30, and were sent to Seinterfering with his recovery to at attle, where they will be placed on the tempt to answer all the letters on hand liner Minnesota, which sails Tuesday, P. Tumulty, to answer.

vacy has been ignored by the residents accompanied them as far as Portland, navigating the narrow sidewalk on the here, and unless conditions improve, and may go as far as Seattle. They north side of the thoroughfare. He the president and his family intend to are in charge of J. H. Barbour, of the first luffed when the curb hove in sight spend the remainder of his vacation immigration service, and Harry Minto, on one side and then he tacked over to either in Texas or Florida.

him large quantities of garden truck.

ACTRESS KILLS HERSELF BY LEAPING FROM FIFTH FLOUR

Chicago, Dec. 29.-Mrs. George Se- of about $60,000, with the expectancy the stage as Mabel Cullin, committed | suicide here today by leaping from the fifth floor of the Revere hotel. Scores of persons in the criminal court build. Hong Kong. ing, directly across the street, witnessed the act.

Nervous hysteria, resulting from hard rehearsals, friends said, was the cause. A note addressed to her husband, an actor, at Appleton, Wis., said:

"I am writing this at 6:30 p. m. have been on my feet since 10 o'clock this morning. I had to change my coatume three times and make numerous changes in my lines."

MOYER IS OPERATED ON BULLET REMOVED AND CONDITION GOOD

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WISE.]

Chicago, Dec. 29.—President Charles H. Moyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, was operated on today at St. Luke's hospital here. A bullet was removed from the muscles at the left side the police that he accidentally shot himleaden slog with the X-ray. The operation was pronounced a success.

"The patient is weak," bulletined his recovery. The shooting occurred at we think he will come out all right." | left lung.

Slayer of Girl and His Victim

Hans Schmidt and Girl He Killed.

STRANDED ON STREET This morning 22 Chinese patients

here, and they were forwarded to and shipped to Hong Kong. Through the police station, on Chemeketa sons from the ship November 26, and Washington for his secretary, Joseph arrangements made by the Chinese Six street, yesterday afternoon by Officer suspended his license for 18 months. Companies, they will be met there by Welch. Madison was so intoxicated Captain R. J. Paulsen and Second Offi-President Wilson's desire for pri- relatives and taken care. Dr. Steiner that he experienced great difficulty in of this city, who will accompany them the other port when the hedge on the Every morning the State Agricultural to their destination. Dr. Lai Yick goes other side came too near him. Finally ollege mails the president three doz- with them as interpreter. The getting the booze-laden human craft attempted en fresh eggs, and the parcel post brings rid of these will make a considerable to port alongside a little fir tree on the lawn in front of the T. G. Bligh house, with the result that he lost his bearings and ran ashore.

It was then that Officer Welch an-Portland, Or., Dec. 29 .- Twenty-two swered the S. O. S., and towed the insane Chinamen, under guard, passed through Portland today from the state stranded man-craft inside a steel-bound cove, where storms never frequent, but insane asylum at Salem, en route to Seattle, where they will be deported on where headaches abound.

Madison had an improvised drug the steamship Minnesota, scheduled to store aboard, and when he was scarched by the police, pills, powders and about The deportation of the men, it is said, will effect a saving to the state every kind of medicine were unloaded. The officers tried to induce the man to cor, an actress aged 30 years, known on that each of the 22 has ten years yet to tell where he secured his cargo, but Madison simply advised them to mind their own business-and they did. The Chinese government will care for Judge Elgin this morning proved the unfortunates upon their arrival at merciful, Madison was allowed to leave after depositing $3 with the court, and | #### with the promise that he would not attempt again to land with such an un-

reasonable cargo

FIRST MATE PUNISHED FOR FOR LOSS OF FOUR SAILORS

[CHITED PRESS ERASSIO WIRE.] San Francisco, Dec. 29.—The inspe tors of hulls and boilers found First Officer H. W. Ravens, of the steamship An old German, giving his name as President, guilty of negligence in con-W. Madison, was arrested right opposite nection with the drowning of four per-

The President was making the run between Seattle and San Francisco when a passenger was washed overboard. Ravens ordered a boat lowered.

HOLDS TRAIN FOR ACTORS.

Alice Lloyd, English comedienne, may

The Weather

The Dickey Bird west tonight and portion tonight or tem. Tuesday: moder-

WEST SAYS SALOONS BE CLOSED UP TIGHT

Executive, Interviewed in Portland, Intimates Raid Will Be Made.

DOES NOT GIVE DETAILS

Pails to Make It Plain Whether Militia Will Be Used But Promises Developments Soon.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Portland, Or., Dec. 29 .- "We are going to Copperfield. We are going to close up the saloons, and we are going to do it right."

In these terse sentences Governor West answered today when asked concerning the situation in Copperfield, Baker county, where citizens complained that conditions were deplorable and that the laws were being disregarded by saloon keepers. The citizens even stated that their lives were endangered.

as to how he would close the saloons,

FARM LABORERS WILL BE PHIEDDER OBLIGED TO WORK BUT EIGHT HOURS DAILY

The trouble over the eight-hour law as applied to state institutions is not yet over. Recently State Treasurer silent, Kay stated the board would hold that Portland, Or., Dec. 29.—The Northern | Capture of the Capture of t train one and one-half hours so that this view of it, but Labor Commissioner Hoff, says he has no reason to be participate in a New year's benefit lieve the attorney-general has so advised, and that he will insist on the law being enforced as to all state employes, since the supreme court has deeided it does so apply.

Dr. Steiner has prepared a statement showing that if the law is held to apsays: Oregon, rain ply to employes generally at the asy lum that it will cost the state $65,000 rain or snow east more next year than under the old sys

Commissioner Hoff says he will be ate east winds in gin suits to enforce the law unless it is interior, brisk to complied with. He looks at it that he high southeast had nothing to do with making the law, winds along the but since it is the law, it is his duty to enforce it, regardless of objections from any source.

Three Captured in Boat and Have in Their Possession Dynamite Bomb, Three Automatic Revolvers, Shotgun, Two Rifles Fitted With Maxim Silencers and Bag of Guncotton-No Explanation-One Former Electrical Worker-Richmond Chief Says One Is an I. W. W.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Instead of being called on to determine who committed a certain crime, they faced the task of learning what crime certain persons had planned to political "direct action" who planned

That is to say, this was the task cut The governor did not go into details out for them, assuming that the per- gas and electric company's feed cables sons in question planned to commit a across Carquinez Strait, for example. whether by use of the militia or not. He crime at all. Certainly the circumsaid: "There will be some develop stances were suspicious. The three men ments in a day or so." Governor West held prisoners-Charles King, H. G. was in Portland attending the meeting Hanlon and Joe Brown, as they gave of the interstate bridge commission their names-could hardly have had a which is selecting an engineer for the dynamite bomb, three automatic revolvproposed Pacific highway bridge across ers, a shotgun, two rifles fitted with the Columbia river from Portland to Maxim silencers and a bag of gun-cotton in their boat, the police argued, per-

Deny They Planned Crime.

would say practically nothing. It seemed fairly well established that Hanlon From all that could bet learned, his record at both places was good. King and pending investigation. Brown did not mind saying they were Their equipment of arms and explo-the law applied only to farm and other voiced the belief that one of the men block." laborers, and not to the employes in was an I. W. W. He also inclined to charge of the patients, and of other the opinion that King had operated as work in the building. It has been a dynamiter in the cast. He had estab-

Gas Plant Threatened.

alarm clock set for 12:30, and from this San Francisco, Dec. 29 .- Richmond Arnold deduced that the trio meant to police had a queer problem to solve to- plant the explosive under the Pacific day in connection with the discovery Gas and Electric company's Richmond of a "dynamite boat" in San Pable power house, blow the power house and loot a bank under cover of the ensuing darkness and confusion.

Another theory offered was that the men were not robbers, but believers in a "demonstration in force," the blowing up of the towers which carry the

A third theory was that an attempt was planned to free some convict or convicts from San Quentin penitentlary. Believed Them Convicts.

This, of the three hypotheses, had the fewest supporters. San Quentin did, however, unquestionably figure in the case in a way-if Frank Melville and James Hurley had not escaped from haps not unnaturally, for any peaceful there last Tuesday, King, Hanlon and Brown would not have been caught.

Most people in the bay cities were on the alert for the two fugitives, and Yet all three denied that they plan- when King, Hanlon and Brown landed ned any crime. More than this, they from their gusoline boat at San Pable point and started toward Richmond, they were suspected, the alarm was givhas had employment as an electrical en and on their return to the boat all worker in Stockton and Sacramento. three were arrested. They were held without specific charges against them from Chicago. Beyond this they were sives was a very workmanlike one. The bomb was connected with electric wires, Chief of Police Arnold, of Richmond, fitted with caps and would, so the poacross San Francisco bay from here, lice said, easily have blown up a "city

Convicts Still at Large

The convicts, whose escape led to the capture of the "dynamite boat's" San Quentin authorities believed they were hiding in Oakland or Berkeley and The bomb was connected with an were watching both towns for them.

Man Who Hides Fact He Has Wife Refused Citizenship

day. The federal officer is making one of the most thorough examinations of the applicants ever experienced by pros- Hazard after completing his examina-Judge Galloway.

tions for final papers today, the appli- a manner most plain. this country in general.

Finds Faulty Application.

final papers. Upon going through the iner's remarks and upon his negative

With Judge Galloway on the bench, two children living in Germany. He adand H. B. Hazard, United States Natu- mitted before Mr. Hazard and Judge ralization Examiner for this district, Galloway this morning that he kept his conducting the examinations, 15 appli- marriage a secret during the 20 years cations for final papers of naturaliza- he has lived in Marion county for the tion as citizens of this country are be reason he did not want his friends to ing investigated in the circuit court to- know but that he was a single man. Scores Applicant.

""May it please the court," said Mr. pective citizens in the county and it is tion, "this applicant has violated his barely probable that several of the ap- oath by swearing falsely to the county plicants for final papers will not suc-clerk that he was an unmarried man eed in passing the rigid investigation and had no children. He showed delibbeing pushed by both Mr. Hazard and eration in making these false and misleading statements and he, in his desire So critical is the manner in which to secure the right to be an American Mr. Hazard is passing upon applica- citizen, purposely deceived the court in matter of securing admission as citizens ment can extend to a foreign person is of the United States is of much impor- granting him or her the lawful right of resented himself and I now interpose a motion to the effect that the applica-An example of what close attention tion for final papers be refused and the way, "none but the fittest" will be

Is Serious Business.

(Continued on page four.)

STOTTARD IS FINED FOR How Callow Youth of Country is Worked by New York's Gay Girls

BY CARLTON TEN EYCK.

(Written for the United Press.)

New York, Dec. 29 .- This is the way t is done on the Great White Way, bet-

The youth, lost in the night life, is darker, which was it? more than willing and they stroll into No matter. There's the obsequious ter known as the Upper Tenderloin. A off the main highway. Women in silks moment, she wants to go to the teleyouth, new to Broadway, stands at the and velvets and men in boiled shirts sit phone. Back she comes in a quarter of tanee, not only to themselves, but to citizenship. This applicant has misrepcards in the former's store last Priday brilliantly illuminated corner of Porty- all about, looking as if they owned the an hour with another girl, her roomevening. Stottard pleaded guilty today third street, watching the merrily eddy- place, and quite over-awe the strange mate, a child of the chorus, who has ing tide of bumanity-femininity? Well, young man. Under the glare of the been hunting for her everywhere to demaybe-pass jauntily by, wishing he blazing electrics, he looks more closely liver a telegram from home. How did is being given to the present bulk of matter dismissed with projudice." were a part of it. He is, only he doesn't at his companion. Yes, she surely looks the room mate know she was in the lob- applications was demonstrated this. The applicant was asked if he had know it, yet. Suddenly there darts by like the girl he thought she was, the ster palace? Nobody thought to quest morning when E. Grim applied for his anything to say in regard to the exama girl, a little bit of a fair-haired ad-one who said she was a cloud model in tion that, venturess. She has a vaguely familiar a Fifth avenue department store. But The two girls order steaks and things applicant's affidavits, letters, etc., Mr. naswer the court sustained the motion. look, so the corner watcher soliloquizes, she is not. She says she has been in that ren the bill up into two figures, Hazard found that Mr. Grim had sworn one of the brilliantly illuminated lob. waiter. The girl never drinks a thing, cants are brought to realize that the

of his back. Dr. William Marsh, of the self, and friends that some one else and he steps out beside her. Oh, she is New York only a week; came from a meanwhile excusing themselves numer to a false statement and he forthwith Hereafter, according to Judge Gallohospital, had previously located the was responsible, Peter Fleck, a railroad in such a hurry, because she has agreed southern home, against the wishes of our times to go to the telephone, and interposed an objection. contracting foreman is in a critical to meet a friends and she is already her aristocratic family—kin to Jeffer when finally the youth pays the score Mr. Grim's application was refused given that supreme privilege of citicondition today, attended by five phy- late. It is so kind of the strange man non Davis, you know to join a Broad- and escapes to the subway to go home, for the reason he awore in his first approach the strange man non Davis, you know to join a Broad- and escapes to the subway to go home, sicians. Little hope is entertained for to suggest a taxicab, but really, it is way show. Rehearsals delayed, you un- he discovers the loss of his wallet with plication that he was unmarried and had selves to be entitled to seeme; that they useless, she is so late now that she derstand. She is oh, so lonesome and thirty-seven dollars, his als months' sav- no children while applying for his final show the proper spirit toward the govthe surgeons, after it was over, "but Fleck's home. The bullet ledged in the knows her friend will be tired of wait homesick, just dying for someone to ince to buy Christman gifts for "the admission he signed an affidavit in ing and gone, so what's the use? Why talk to. The youth looks closer and de- folks back home." How did it happen? which he claimed to have a wife and ## not go some place near by and talk it cides that there is a difference, her Titinn hair is a half-shade lighter-or

ster palaces on Porty-second street, ju it never, but if he will excuse her for a