

WE QUIT

We're going to unload our stock of men's suits and overcoats, and do it quickly. We can't get more store room and our departments are growing so rapidly that something has to go to make room. So we are

Going Out of the Men's Clothing Business

They've got to go quickly to make room for other goods now on the road. Every garment is cut in price, without a thought of profit. Never before have you had such an opportunity to buy the highest grade of suits and overcoats at such tremendous reductions.

This big store needs room. Room is needed worse than profits. In fact, it is worth hundreds of dollars to make room, and do it absolutely without delay. This is the chance of your life to save on clothing.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothcraft Ederheimer-Stein

These and other nationally known makes of suits and overcoats are going at prices marked so low that they'll disappear in the shortest imaginable time.

Thirty-three and a third less on the largest assortment of men's suits and overcoats in Salem. Blue and black serges included. Men's suits at half-price.

- 25 per cent to 50 per cent less on Boy's Clothing
- 20 per cent less on Men's and Boy's Shirts and Underwear
- 33 1-3 less on Men's Bath Robes, Smoking Jackets, House Coats

Be on hand early and pick your suit Sale Starts Today

MEYERS GOOD GOODS

Capital City Brevities

Dr. F. L. Utter, dentist, Masonic bldg. Lillie Langtry at Ye Liberty today and tomorrow. Midnight matinee at 10:30.

The Swedish church in this city will hold watch services tonight. The program will begin at 9 o'clock.

The ladies of the G. A. R. will serve their annual New Year's dinner in Hurst's hall at noon tomorrow. All old soldiers and their families are invited.

Dr. Mendelsohn fits eyes correctly. U. S. Bank building.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hotchkiss, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Miss E. E. Garfield this week.

Get busy, Salem! Show 'em we're there, too. Silverton coming with special train for big basket ball game at Y. M. C. A., January 1st, with Yellow Jackets. Their Commercial club has reserved 375 seats to date.

Ye Liberty

Today and Tomorrow Daniel Frohman Presents
Lillie Langtry
Premiere Emotional Actress in Her Great Success
"HIS NEIGHBOR'S WIFE"

A powerful drama of society life in three parts produced by the Famous Players Company. Added attraction

THE DOOM OF THE OCEAN

A wonderful three-part hand colored feature, depicting an actual rescue scene of mother and son from a light-house tower to the deck of a ship over a 1000-foot life-line. A truly wonderful picture.

MIDNIGHT MATINEE

The final performance for the evening will commence at 10:30 and four comedy pictures will be shown in addition to the regular program.

Greet the New Year at Ye Liberty
Continuous Performance New Year's Day.

Dr. Asseln, dentist, 205 Salem Bank & Trust building.

E. Schaefer, the local druggist, was in Portland yesterday on business.

Fred Mahan, of Ontario, is in the city visiting and looking after business matters.

Owing to urgent lodge business, the dance to be given Friday evening, January 2, by the Olive club, will be postponed.

"We Should Worry." A screaming farce at the Wexford tonight, with a performance at 7 o'clock and a midnight matinee starting at 9:30.

The equity case of the Falls City Lumber Co. against A. E. Simmons was dismissed in the circuit court yesterday upon stipulation.

The late L. R. Inus was buried yesterday in I. O. O. F. cemetery. The funeral was held from the undertaking chapel of Lehman & Clough and Rev. H. E. Marshall conducted the services.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schunke, Dorothy, was buried in Lee Mission cemetery yesterday. Rev. Gustave Schunke conducted the services.

A watch service will be held by the Christian Endeavor Union tonight at the Christian church. The program will begin at 8:30 and the watchers will sit up for little 1914 to arrive.

An action was commenced in the circuit court yesterday by J. H. Albert against the city of Salem to restrain the defendant from claiming any title to lots located in Yew Park addition to Salem.

Our Quality Teas and Coffees will help to reduce the high cost of living because they make more cups per pound. Yokohama Crockery & Tea Co.

George H. Graves has returned from Portland, where he has been making preparations for the big program to be given at the Cherrian banquet next month.

Eaton Hall is being equipped with a new modern heating plant. The old plant has proven entirely unfit for the work, and the new system will be in operation before many weeks.

The funeral of S. C. Buxter was held this morning at 10:30 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Lehman & Clough. Rev. P. S. Knight officiated and the remains were buried in Macleay.

The Salvation Army members will march the old year out and the new year in tonight. The army will form a line and march through the streets, and refreshments will be served at the hall following the demonstration.

A $15 fine was assessed Charles Vincent, a saloon keeper in West Woodburn, yesterday by Justice Webster for permitting a slot machine to be operated in his place of business. Vincent pleaded guilty after being placed under arrest by Constable Cooper.

Everybody loves the genuine home-like flavor and taste of Tip-Top bread—the new bread now on sale at Spelling's, 311 North Commercial street. This bread is the best illustration of the folly of baking your own bread. It is a real bread treat.

Robert L. Allison returned this morning from Portland, where he has been spending the holidays.

Attorney J. J. Moecker returned to Portland today after transacting legal business here for a few days.

Genuine bargains in home furnishings at the big sale. Buren & Hamilton.

Attorney Willard, of Portland, was among the southbound passengers on the Oregon Electric this morning.

Adam Bollock, of Mt. Angel, was in the city today, looking after business matters, returning to his home this afternoon.

Attend the big pre-inventory sale of home furnishings at Buren & Hamilton's.

Robert Young and wife, of Klamath Falls, passed through this city today, en route to Portland, where they will spend New Years with friends.

Buy home furnishings now and take advantage of the good values to be found in our store during the sale. Buren & Hamilton.

New Year's masquerade ball, tomorrow night, at the armory. Seven cash prizes will be given for the best characters. Gentlemen 75c. Ladies free. Spectators, balcony only, 25c.

Miss Eugenia G. Potter and brother, Clifford, of Portland, arrived here this morning, and will watch the old year out with their aunt, Mrs. Harrison Luckey, at 766 North Liberty street.

Bargains in library tables. See our line for some extraordinary values. Buren & Hamilton.

Donald Vincent, former Salem man, but now a resident of Portland, is here spending the holidays. Mr. Vincent is connected with the S. P. in Portland.

Iron beds, 4-0 size, heavy continuous posts, smooth and plain. Regular $8.50 values, sale price $5. Buren & Hamilton.

T. B. Houck and family left this morning for San Francisco where they will make their future home. Mr. Houck will enter the draying business in San Francisco this winter.

Artisans, attention! Lodge will be called at 7:30 this evening. After business meeting here will be given a party under the auspices of the ladies of the drill team. Only members and those who present written invitations will be admitted.

Have you ever stopped to think of the economy of buying cigars by the box? It is also worth something to always have the cigar you like close at hand. The La Corona is always fresh and moist and will retain their fragrance for weeks in your house. This good cigar can be found at all dealers.

En route to San Diego, Cal., on foot. Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Rieker passed through Salem yesterday. The "hoofers" are representing various publications in this country, and are running down material for articles. Good roads and general surveys of the cities and towns they see make up the contents of their proposed stories.

Deputy Sheriff Neelham is back from a visit in the vicinity of Woodburn on business. Among the official duties the deputy sheriff has performed this week was to attach a band of hogs. Deputy Neelham declares that he could not very well bank the property, but is keeping a close guard over the valuable porkers.

A gentleman remarked to us that he was out in that heavy downpour yesterday morning, and his feet were as dry as if it had not been raining. He stated that he had applied only two dressings of "Webfoot" oil to his shoes, and they were absolutely waterproof. You try it. For sale by F. E. Shafer, the saddle and harness man, 187 South Commercial street.

No matter where you live, we will cheerfully deliver your orders. It is our purpose to serve every one in this city. So don't hesitate to call us up to deliver an order. It has come to our attention that several women, who found it inconvenient to call, have hesitated ordering by phone because they lived out of a certain radius. We deliver to any part of the city. The Sunset Grocery, 121 South Commercial street.

A complaint to recover $1770 damages was filed in the circuit court yesterday by L. C. Eastman against the Salem, Falls City & Western railroad. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant company failed to use the proper care and precaution in operating its train along a dangerous section of its track in Polk county with the result the cars ran into plaintiff and injured him seriously.

Two Big Performances WEXFORD

TONIGHT
Entire Change of Program
THE COLONIAL PLAYERS IN
"We Should Worry"
A three-act farce for laughing purposes only.
FOUR NEW PICTURES
First show at 7. Second show at 9:30. The second show will be
A Midnight Matinee
And the players will join the audience in greeting the New Year.
New Years Day
Entire change of play and pictures with matinee, 2:30.
"Across the Divide"
A beautiful new story of the Tennessee mountains.
FOUR NEW PICTURES

A big masquerade ball will be given at the armory tomorrow night. Gentlemen 75c, ladies free.

Good grade, closely woven tapestry Brussels rugs, 9x12 size. Regular $22.50 values. Special, $15.75. Buren & Hamilton.

Pat O'Gary is again on the streets, after undergoing a serious operation at the Salem hospital.

Full size sew rockers in golden oak finish, 98c. Buren & Hamilton.

Ivan Putnam, a former druggist of this city, but now a tiller of the soil on one of Marion county's finest ranches, was here today on business.

Genuine quartered oak beds, full size. Regular $18 values, now $9. Buren & Hamilton.

State Senator Dimick, of Multnomah county, was a business visitor here today.

Liberal reductions on all gas stoves and ranges. Buren & Hamilton.

Circuit Court Judge Kelly will arrive in the city next Friday morning, and will at that time receive the report of the grand jury, which is now in session. Following the grand jury report, the court will proceed to set cases for the January term.

United States Naturalization Examiner Hazard has completed his labors in this city, and left this morning for Albany, where he will examine the applicants in Linn county. Judge Galloway will sit on the bench in Albany during the examination.

The Willamette river at this point is coming up slowly now, due to the recent rains and the moderate weather in and around the mountains on the east side of the valley. No high water is looked for as yet, however, by the rivermen.

Globe Today

- Pathe Weekly with all the latest events
- Master of the Garden A powerful two-reel feature with a double purpose.
- How Pianos Are Made Edw.
- General Bunko's Victory Kalem Comedy
- Midnight Matinee Tonight.
- Special New Years' Day Program For Thursday only, added attraction.
- Miss Schultz Viola Solos

10 Cents

Many An Error In Business

Is caused by poor eyesight--many an error could be avoided by the wearing of proper glasses.

You may be a salesman, bookkeeper, manager or proprietor--no matter which, start 1914 with a NEW VISION--see clearly, have rested nerves, fewer headaches and no errors by wearing glasses prescribed, made and fitted by

Miss A. McCulloch
Optometrist
291 Commercial Street
Phone 925. Hours 9 to 5.
Ground Floor

NEW TODAY.

- TWO CENTS a word for each insertion.
- FOR SALE—Four good young Jersey cows; two fresh; two coming fresh. One block east, one north asylum.
- WANTED—Position on farm by man and wife. Address "W. C.," care Journal.
- FOR RENT—22 acres of garden land, near Salem, good condition; will rent for one or more years. M. A. Cady, 1080 Center street, Salem.
- FOR SALE—2 acres near Salem, 6-year-old peach orchard and other fruits and berries, new $1500 7-room house. C. O. Rice with L. S. Barnes & Co., 315-316 Masonic Temple.
- FOR RENT—Small, modern bungalow, North Cottage street. Phone Carey F. Martin.
- FOR RENT—Housekeeping rooms, also 7-room furnished house. Phone 47 or 4.
- BIG BARGAIN—Good house, barn and three lots, $1400. Easy terms; must sell immediately. Fine place for chickens or cows, one block from car line. Come to 1298 South 13th street, and see it. Address A. E. Dennis, Salem.

NORWICH UNION FIRE INSURANCE SOCIETY

BURKHARDT & WERNER
2nd Street Agents 925 State Street

Just tell your doctor you want to take your prescriptions to Schaefer's drug store, and he will know it is put up right.

MONEY TO LOAN

On farm and city property. John W. Scott, over Chicago Store, Salem, Oregon. Phone 1562.

MONEY TO LOAN
On Good Real Estate Security.
THOS. K. FORD
Over Ladd & Bush Bank, Salem

WOOD AND COAL

In any quantity. Prompt delivery our specialty. Falls City Lumber Company, 879 North Commercial street. Phone Main 818

JAPANESE LAUNDRY AND DYEING WORKS
No machinery to tear and wear out delicate fabrics. Work called for and delivered promptly.
445 Ferry street. Phone Main 2252

BON TON

SPECIAL ENGAGEMENT

MUSICAL COMEDY

BLIGH THEATRE

POPULAR COMPANY POPULAR PRICES

This is the Most Refined Musical Comedy Company Ever Before the Salem Public

SUNDAY MONDAY TUESDAY WEDNESDAY