

Opening Day of the Big Sale at the SALEM WOOLEN MILLS STORE

Was a gratifying success. From the stroke of nine, when the doors of Salem's Greatest Clothing Emporium opened, a busy scene was presented, many of course attracted by the publicity that has been given this event, came to see for themselves. Many more came with the determination to buy. EVERYBODY IS NOW BOOSTING, for they found everything just as advertised, yes, and hundreds of genuine bargains, mention of WHICH HAD NOT YET BEEN MADE. It was a jolly, good natured crowd with money to spend. On every counter, at every turn, some surprise awaited the eager buyer.

The Arrangement of Stock Is Unique

Showing to the best advantage the IMMENSE STOCK as well as adding confidence in selling, a feature appreciated by a busy public. It was our intention to quote prices each day---but, today time will not permit. Watch our windows. Attend our Sale. Come Thursday or Friday. Don't wait until Saturday.

FISH AND GAME BOARD OFFICE TO COME HERE

Decision to Make This City Headquarters Is Arrived at During Meeting Held in This City.

BETTER SYSTEM OF HANDLING WORK IS NOW PROMISED

Expected That Board Will Keep Track of Its Affairs in Better Shape Than in Past.

The state fish and game commission, at a meeting here yesterday, decided to locate the headquarters of the department in this city, and employ a private secretary to have general supervision of the work, after it has been outlined by the commission. While it was decided that Master Fish Warden Clanton and State Game Warden Finley might elect to have their offices here or in Portland, it is believed they will decide to have them here, to be in close touch with the commission and the secretary. The commission will relieve the wardens of much of the work now connected with their offices, giving them much more time for work in the field. Announcement was made that a secretary probably would be named at a meeting in Portland tomorrow, when details of the new system will be made public.

Governor West, when informed of the action of the commission, said it would in future accomplish a great deal more effective work at a large saving to the state. He desires the entire department to be located in Salem, believing it not only will result in a great saving, but will enable the commission and employ to operate under a far more business-like basis than heretofore. All the commissioners—Messrs. Kinney, Bilyeu, Clifford, Evans and Kelly—attended the meeting.

AVALANCHES WRECK HOUSES AND CAUSE ONE DEATH

Seattle, Jan. 7.—Mud avalanches on the hillsides of West Seattle wrecked houses last night, causing the first fatality resulting from heavy rains which have been falling over western Washington since Friday.

The home of Simon Booth was wrecked by the slide. Booth's 12-year-old baby was killed and six other members of the family were injured but will recover. Mrs. Booth was pinned down by the wreckage and nearly covered by mud when rescuers reached her. Another house slid down the hillside toward the beach but none of the occupants were injured.

LAST MEDICINE MAN DIES

Klamath Falls, Or., Jan. 7.—Dr. John, the last medicine man of the Klamath tribe, is dead. He was so old no one knew his age, and was nearly blind. Many Indians believed he would never die. They have the same idea concerning White Clindia and Dixie, two squaws, who make medicine and do many things to excite the curiosity of the natives and visitors. Dr. John was not young at the time of the Modoc war, and was one of the tribe involved in that war. He was not deported with the Modocs, not having been present at the massacre of General Canby and others.

FLYER ORDERED TO FLIGHT TO SATISFY HIS HONOR

Paris, Jan. 7.—Jules Verdrines, one of the two French aviators who recently flew from Paris to Cairo, was ordered today by the French Aerial League to give satisfaction immediately to Henry Roux, his rival, who also accepted the flight. Roux challenged Verdrines to a duel after the latter had struck him in the face during an altercation.

The quarrel between the two aviators arose because Roux alleged to have requested the Turkish officials not to assist Verdrines on his flight in the Orient. All the celebration which had been arranged in honor of Verdrines by the French colony, in Cairo have been cancelled.

THROAT Troubles ARE Dangerous

because the swollen glands and inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and impair their healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion stands alone as nature's corrector of throat troubles; its cod liver oil is speedily converted into germ-killing tissue—the glycerine is curative and healing, while the combined emulsion up-buils the forces to avert the weakening influence which always follows throat troubles.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is best for three important reasons—it relieves the trouble; it prevents a relapse; it is not charged with alcohol or stupefying drugs.

Shun substitutes and insist on Scott's.

ASTEROID, OUT AT NIGHT, GETS LOST

San Francisco, Jan. 7.—Somewhere in the wide and starry sky the celebrated new asteroid or minor planet 1911 Mt., otherwise designated the asteroid Albert, is lost.

Astronomers at Lick Observatory and the observatory at the University of California have been searching for the missing object for two months, without avail. Knowing exactly from computations made by themselves where to look on any night, the observers have vainly trained their telescopes along the path of Albert.

They have widened the zone of the search and made allowance for errors of calculation. They have picked up, one after another, three of Albert's brothers, each time mistaking the little stranger Albert, and each time after new calculations have been ascertained that they had not found Albert at all, but had discovered new asteroids.

"In our search," said Dr. Heber D. Curtis, "we found three faint asteroids close to the computed position of 1911 Mt. That three such bodies should have been found in this restricted area throws an interesting sidelight on the large number of faint asteroids discoverable in long exposures with powerful reflectors."

DIFFICULTY FOUND IN GATHERING WITNESSES

Gold Beach, Or., Jan. 7.—Aaron R. Cooley, who was returned to Oregon from San Francisco a few weeks ago to answer to a charge of murdering Thomas Van Felt in Curry county more than 14 years ago, has been brought here from the jail at Roseburg and is awaiting hearing.

District Attorney Meredith has subpoenaed a number of witnesses for the state and the hearing probably will be held Monday before Judge Wood.

District Attorney Meredith says he is confident Cooley will be held to answer to the grand jury, which will convene here in April.

Attorney W. W. Cardwell accompanied the prisoner from Roseburg and will be assisted in the defense by J. Huntley, of this city, and Judge Childs, of Crescent City, California.

It has been found extremely difficult to gather all witnesses in the case, owing to the lapse of time since the fatal shooting of Thomas Van Felt.

WOLF PACK EATS INDIANS.

Crookston, Minn., Jan. 7.—After he had emptied his rifle and then fought desperately with his knives, killing nine wolves, the remainder of the pack closed in on a lone and unidentified Indian at Lake-of-the-Woods, 35 miles from Warroad, and his bones were found today stripped of flesh. The nine carcasses of the wolves he had killed were lying within a radius of a few rods. Wolves are starving because of the fine weather and lack of snow. As a result they are traveling in packs, averaging between 30 and 40. It is said there are more wolves this winter than have been seen for years along the Canadian boundary.

CARDEN HELD INDISCREET FOR CRITICIZING WASHINGTON

Washington, Jan. 7.—It is understood here that the transfer of Sir Lionel Carden, British Minister to Mexico City to Rio Janeiro, was to some extent a sequel to the observations of Sir William Tyrrell, private secretary to Sir Edward Grey, British Minister of Affairs, during his stay in Washington last November.

Sir William noted the impression in official circles made by the reported interview with Sir Lionel in the course of which the ambassador was said to have questioned the information of the Washington administration regarding the Mexican situation.

MORGAN TELLS HOW RESERVE BANKS SHOULD BE HANDLED

New York, Jan. 7.—J. Pierpont Morgan testified before the currency organization committee yesterday afternoon.

He said the essential point in the organization of reserve bank was to have at least one bank of such importance as to command the respect and confidence of business men and bankers everywhere. Morgan was uncertain whether New York should be a reserve bank center or a branch of a Boston reserve bank.

Morgan favored three reserve banks on the Atlantic seaboard and said one of these should be in Atlanta. He said the capital of such a bank was not as important as its resources. Lewis Clark, president of the American Exchange National Bank, recommended eight reserve banks. He said banks should be located in New York, either Richmond or Washington, Atlanta, either Houston Texas or New Orleans, Chicago, St. Louis, either Omaha or Denver, and San Francisco.

DAUGHTERS WANT WILL OF MARTHA WASHINGTON

Fairfax, Va., Jan. 7.—State Senator Thornton announced today that acting at the request of officers of the Daughters of the American Revolution, he would ask the Virginia legislature to authorize the attorney-general of the state to recover the will of Martha Washington, now in the private collection of J. P. Morgan, at New York.

The will was stolen from the Fairfax county court house in the course of the battle of Bull Run in the Civil war. Mrs. John H. Barbour, of Falls Church, Va., a regent of the organization, has placed in Senator Thornton's hands a copy of a letter she received from Bella Da Costa Green, librarian for J. Pierpont Morgan, declining to return the will to the archives of the court house.

Citizens of Virginia, who have been searching for the will for nearly 50 years, accidentally learned last year that it was in Mr. Morgan's collection.

TELLS OF ALLEGED FRAUDS OF THIS FUEL CONCERN

San Francisco, Jan. 7.—Special Treasury Agent W. H. Tidwell continued his testimony yesterday at the trial of the eight officials of the Western Fuel company, charged with conspiring to defraud the government.

Tidwell declared that a total of 72,011 tons of excess coal, representing approximately $504,077, was received from foreign shipments between April, 1906, and December, 1912.

Defense Attorney McCutcheon took into court charts intended to show that a majority of the cargo and discharged at San Diego gave shortages instead of overages. Records of the Thor, Reider, Bessie Dollar, Titania and Tordenskjold were produced in an effort to show that the company received several thousand tons of coal less than the bills of lading called for.

ITALIAN WOMEN VOTE

Milan, Jan. 7.—Italian women have just won their first right to vote in the commercial elections of this city. Some 700 women who are members of the Milan Chamber of Commerce are affected by the concession. In contrast, however, with the political suffrage of men in Italy which is enjoyed also by the analphabets, the women either have to present a certificate showing they have completed the elementary school or show a government official that they know how to read and write.

DISSOLVES CORPORATIONS

Governor West, at the request of Corporation Commissioner Watson, Monday issued a proclamation dissolving 527 domestic corporations and 23 foreign corporations for failure to file preliminary reports and obtain licenses to do business as required by law. Mr. Watson said a number of the corporations were out of business.

GOVERNOR FERRIS GETS FACTS IN REGARD TO STRIKE

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 7.—Governor Ferris gained much first hand information yesterday regarding the copper miners' strike which has been in progress more than five months. Especially did the governor learn about a number of county and company deputies in the strike zone and the extent to which the so-called gun men have been used.

He obtained his information from the sheriffs, prosecuting attorneys and supervisors of the two counties affected by the strike. At the conclusion of the session he impressed upon them that they must work together in maintaining law and order and in protecting life and property.

Twice the governor referred to the Mayor's deportation in public. It was learned that he also deplored its effects at practically every private conference with business men and others who were unwilling to air their views before the reporters.

In a general statement, Prosecutor Lucas accused the imported officers of gross cruelty toward the prisoners. He said he had discovered several cases where men were beaten without good cause and said that the practice was stopped only by his threat to arrest gunmen.

The governor sought information regarding charges made last summer that the soldiers had been guilty of immorality, assaults on children and indiscriminate shooting. The allegations were denied by every man questioned.

MODEL POSTOFFICE

San Francisco, Jan. 7.—Following a conference here today with Director of Works H. D. H. Connick, of the Panama-Pacific exposition company, Postmaster Charles Fay announced this afternoon that he would establish a model postoffice at the fair grounds. Fay will provide the men to handle the mail and the exposition company will erect the building.

ARTISTS TO EXHIBIT.

London, Jan. 7.—English artists want to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco next year. Sir Edward Poynter, president of the Royal academy, and many other distinguished artists petitioned the government today to recognize officially a British fine arts section at the exposition.
