CHERRIANS

ing and also guessing. And neither least nor last was a horn, a horn with a voice like the last trump and a discordant screech that would wake the dead and then break up the wake. It was in evidence everytime it should not have been, and will be remembered long. But it was not all a jolly and a convivial time for there was a serious side to it.

Favors One Open Bar.

Mr. Doolley in the person of Fred Byron, told of the visit of the Cherrians to Pendleton, in his inimitable way, and he was followed by Rev. H. E. Marshall, who spoke on the visit of the Cherrians to the Panama exposition in 1915. He suggested that as he was a Baptist it appealed to him to take the water route in making this visit, and chartering a steamer, which would be anchored in front of the exposition grounds and which would show the world that Oregon had a seaport. He spoke eloquently of the necessity of the whole, state standing firmly behind Portland and making it the great seaport of the northwest. He said he voted dry, but the Columbia bar was one he wanted kept wide open. He was enthusiastically applauded. Walter Winslow told in a catchy way of the kangaroo court on the train on the way home from Portland and proved himself an interesting story teller.

Kay Is Optimistic.

State Treasurer Kay in speaking of the Cherrians as boosters spoke of the immense good the organization had already done. How they had eliminated jealousies and made the whole valley friends. He also pointed out what this would result in the future. His remarks were optimistic and the applause that greeted his closing showed that his idea was heartily indorsed. Hon. Chas. L. McNary spoke in his usual happy style of King Bing, and although the program suggested parenthetically that he should "give him h—!" he refrained and really let the king off on a light sentence and an insufficient reprimand.

John D. Turner confined his remarks to "The Salem Cocktail extra dry," but as he knows nothing of the subject except as an attorney and in an advisory way, we refuse to say what he said because it is only hearsay evidence.

The king indulged in a few words from the throne, and "the night off" was, off, except the initiation of candidates of which the scribe knows naught. It was simply great.

Committee's Splendid Work.

The story of the most successful banquet ever given in the city would not be complete, however, without special mention of the splendid work done by the committee, George H. Graves, W. M. Hamilton and E. F. Slade, on whose shoulders fell the responsibility of the occasion. The perfectness of detail and the well arranged and always new stunts were works of real creative genius. On top of all this Graves had to stand for all the things the king and anyone else had to put on him. We congratulate him on the fact he had little curiosity, and so refused to open the nice little present handed him by His Royal Gazooks, after a grandiloquent oration setting forth the Cherrians' appreciation of his and his fellow committeemen's splendid work. The present contained a miniature Gatun dam explosion, or at least as much as would be left with the Gatun omitted. However, the king did not say a word too much in praise of the committee's work, even though it was told rather florescently.

MINISTERS APPROVE GOVERNOR'S ACTION

Monday afternoon unanimously and enthusiastically by rising vote, the following self-explanatory resolutions were adopted.

Salem, Ore., Jan. 5, 1914
To the Honorable Oswald West, Governor of Oregon,

Dear Sir,

We, the Ministerial Union of Salem, Oregon, in regular weekly session, wish to express to you our sincere appreciation of your courageous and manly efforts to enforce the laws of this state for the protection of the citizens of Copperfield, Oregon, against the lawlessness of the licensed saloon, and pledge you our loyal support and so far as lies within our power, the support of the church we have the honor to represent.

J. H. IRVINE
President

MRS. VON CLAUSSEN INSANE.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
New York, Jan. 7.—Judge Malpas, in the court of General Sessions has today held that Mrs. Ida Von Clausen was insane and ordered her to Matteawan. Mrs. Von Clausen created a sensation several years ago by threatening Colonel Roosevelt, then president.

More recently she wrote threateningly to a New York city official.

WILSON RECOVERS.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Presidential Secretary Tumulty received a telegram from Cary T. Grayson, President Wilson's medical attendant, today saying the chief executive, again in excellent health, will leave Pass Christian Sunday night, his vacation ended, and arrive in Washington some time next Tuesday.

ANOTHER SALEM CASE.

It Proves That There's a Way Out for Many Suffering Salem Folks.

Just another report of a case in Salem. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in Salem with Doan's Kidney Pills.

F. A. Sutton, tent and awning dealer, Salem, Oregon, says: "I had kidney trouble and rheumatism for ten years and sometimes I was laid up. Doctors did not help me. Sharp pains extended through my back and were most severe in my kidneys. Often when working, I had to give up. I lost weight and was in very poor health. I had headaches, rested but little at night and didn't know what to do. On a friend's advice, I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and to my surprise, they brought a great improvement in a few days. I continued to get better steadily. I got more sleep, my appetite improved and the pains gradually, but surely, left me. After I had used three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was in better health than I had been for ten years and not a sign of kidney complaint remained. The cure has been permanent. I gladly confirm the endorsement I gave Doan's Kidney Pills several years ago."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sutton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

BAKER DIFFICULTY IS NOW ABOUT ADJUSTED

Plan Is For Lawson to Wholly Withdraw From Scene of Action Tonight and Let Sheriff Do It.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES DUE FROM SALOON KEEPERS THERE

State Will Face Action For Confiscating Liquor Supply But No More Serious Result Expected.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Huntington, Or., Jan. 7.—The Baker county war is over. Colonel Lawson sent the detachment of the Third infantry, Portland, that has been waiting over in Huntington since Monday night, back home last night, and there is a strong possibility that every guardsmen in Baker county, sent here as a result of the Copperfield lawlessness, will be out of the county tonight. Colonel Lawson, Attorney Frank Collier, for Governor West, and Sheriff Rand, of Baker county, left this morning for Copperfield, and when they return on tonight's train, Colonel Lawson hopes to bring with him the guard he left in Copperfield Monday morning.

Sheriff Rand and Colonel Lawson have discussed the Baker county situation at length, and the sheriff stands ready to do his part in keeping order in Copperfield. In fact, so satisfactory is the agreement reached between Rand and Lawson that it is likely the sheriff will appoint a deputy to maintain order at Copperfield, and the situation will be left in his hands, with perhaps a special agent of the governor on hand occasionally, to keep an eye out for law violations.

Injunction Suit Continued.

Collier succeeded in obtaining a continuance of the injunction suit against Governor West, Miss Fern Hobbs, Colonel Lawson and others until Saturday, and the contempt proceedings instituted against Lawson for ignoring the court's injunction against removing liquors from Copperfield will be dropped altogether, so that Lawson can visit Baker county without fear of arrest at the hands of the civil authorities. The state will face an action for damages for removing Copperfield's liquor supply, without the consent of the owners, but nothing more serious is apt to result from the governor's "invasion" of Baker county.

Colonel Lawson will probably visit Baker and several smaller cities of the county to round up gambling devices and warn saloon keepers not to violate the Sunday closing, selling liquor to minors and to habitual drunkards laws.

Hopes for Surrender.

Colonel Lawson and Attorney Collier have hopes that the old city council of Copperfield, deposed by Colonel Lawson, when he and Miss Hobbs took possession of the place last Friday, will be induced to resign peaceably today and give way to a new lot of city officials, to be chosen at a special election. If this is not done, it is probable the city government will have to be left in the hands of the citizens' committee, appointed by Lawson, for the present, which would necessitate the maintenance of at least nominal martial law in the district until such time as the election could be held.

If Captain Metcalf and his militiamen return with Lawson and Rand tonight they will be sent on to Portland at once, while Lawson will go to Baker to look over the conditions of that city, and await the hearing of the injunction suit Saturday.

WIDESPREAD FAILURE.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Sao Paulo, Brazil, Jan. 7.—The Incorporadora company failed today. It had business affiliations with 46 banks some of which, it was believed would be dragged down with it.

REPRESENTATIVES WILL ATTEND BIG MEETING

Marion County Communities Interested In Plan to Issue $800,000 in Good Roads Bonds.

MATTER WILL BE FULLY DISCUSSED THIS EVENING

All Those Who Are Interested In Plan To Issue Bonds Invited to Be Present Here Tonight.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

The Salem Commercial club was in communication yesterday with all the principal cities and towns of Marion county, advising them as to the proposed $800,000 roads bonds. Eight of the principal towns gave the scheme their hearty co-operation and promised to send representatives from their commercial organizations to meet the board of governors of the local organization at the club rooms tonight.

The fact was emphasized that this was not a local but a country-wide movement, and that the money will be used not for the benefit of any particular community, but for Marion county as a whole. The towns in the north end of the county were especially enthusiastic over the scheme, and stated that good roads was an imperative need in that locality.

If it is decided to put the scheme under way, the election will be called under the recently-passed county boundary law, which permits any county to issue road bonds to 2 per cent of its assessed valuation.

Those back of the movement are planning a short, brisk campaign, which will enlist the co-operation of all the county and bring home to every voter the pressing need of better roads for Marion county.

All good roads enthusiasts are urged to be present at the commercial club tonight.

GODWIN IS TOLD TO ACT

win, the law after mentioning some other things says: "Any officer (except some named) who shall willfully neglect or refuse to perform such duty or service to the injury of anyone, or the manifest hindrance or obstruction of public justice or business, whether such injury, hindrance or obstruction was particularly intended or not, such officer upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months nor more than one year, or by fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500, or by dismissal from office with or without either of such punishments."

DIVORCES HER HUSBAND.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 7.—Mrs. Margaret Armstrong Howell, former wealthy business woman and philanthropist of Spokane, who was known as "The Helen Gould of the northwest," secured a divorce here today from Geo. Howell on the ground of extreme cruelty. She did not ask alimony. A former attempt to secure her freedom, at San Diego in 1911, failed, the court refusing to annul her marriage. On that occasion Mrs. Howell charged that her husband had hypnotized her.

REHEARSALS OF ELKS' MUSICAL COMEDY BEGIN

Rehearsals of the Elks' big musical comedy, "The Band From Amsterdam," are in progress at the Elks' club every afternoon and evening, with a singing and dancing chorus of 30 people and a cast of 14 principles. The committee on arrangements, composed of Graham P. Taber, chairman, Fred S. Bynon and Frank Meredith, has completed all arrangements for the production to be staged at the Grand theatre Monday and Tuesday, January 19 and 20. The talent committee, composed of Harry Wenderoth, Harry Weidemer, Oliver Meyers, Arthur Wallace and Dan Langenberg, have been most successful in securing the desired singers and comedians of the city for the company. Several favorites or past successes, as well as many new faces, will be seen this year, and, as the production is the most pretentious of any show the Elks have yet staged, all are confident that another new record will be established for local theatricals in Salem. The Elks' show has become an annual event here, as it has in other cities throughout the country and each year their friends and patrons are treated to a higher class performance than the one preceding. It is an event in which all classes take a deep interest and local pride. It is the only production of the year that plays to crowded houses at every performance. This class of entertainment will always thrive in a progressive community for the direct benefit derived by the participants and the wholesome entertainment afforded the patrons. All success to the Elks' show.

BAKER WANTS BANK

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

New York, Jan. 7.—The currency organization committee met here again today. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Secretary of Agriculture Houston were present.

George F. Baker, president of the First National Bank of New York and Charles Sabin, of the Guaranty Trust company, testified. Both favored including New England, New York and Northern New Jersey in the eastern federal reserve system. Baker said he thought Philadelphia and Pittsburg should be included in this system, but Sabin was not so sure of this.

Baker believed a bank big enough to handle any situation and one commanding the respect and confidence of banking interests ought to be located here and capitalized at about $23,000,000.

Secretaries McAdoo and Houston will leave for Boston tomorrow, and will hold several meetings there.

Stephen Baker, president of the Bank of Manhattan, favored reserve banks in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta, St. Louis, Chicago, Minneapolis and one on the Pacific coast. He favored Philadelphia over Washington and Baltimore.

James Martindale, president of the Chemical National Bank, did not think eight banks were necessary. He suggested that a bank in New York, with branches in Boston and Philadelphia, could take care of the entire east.

All witnesses were agreed that the

New York reserve bank should have the greatest capital.

SECRETARY REDFIELD ENDORSES FORD PLAN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Washington, Jan. 7.—"A great step forward," was the way Secretary of Commerce Redfield referred here yesterday to the profit sharing plan of the Ford Motor company of Detroit by which the minimum wage of its employees is to be $5 daily.

"Some people say," said Redfield, "that the Ford company cannot afford to do that. Such talk is foolish."

"I see in the Ford announcement as in the removal of members of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., from a number of directorates a great step forward. It is a social advance and one realizing the value of men which may be, and I hope is, epochal. One must not dismiss the details of such a plan because this may only be done by one knowing the details of business, but the broad principle involved—that of recognizing the essential value of men and the equity of appraising that value at its true worth—is entirely sound."
