

CARLETON PLEASSED BY FAIR BOARD'S ACTION

All Appropriations for School Children's Projects Granted and It Means Success.

CHURCHILL ISSUES BULLETIN TO 50,000 SCHOOL CHILDREN

Expert Advice Given as to Methods to Be Pursued in Producing Articles for Exhibit.

"I am more than pleased with the generous treatment our department received from the State Fair board at the recent conference," said E. F. Carleton, superintendent of the industrial department of the Oregon State Fair today. "The appropriations will make possible all improvements in this work which I suggested October 25. The members of the fair board expressed themselves as heartily in sympathy with the plan which State Superintendent Churchill has inaugurated of organizing boys' and girls' clubs in all the schools. Superintendent Churchill has issued a bulletin to teachers instructing them how to organize these clubs. There are to be 10 projects. The object of having these projects is that the clubs may be best suited to the industries of the community. The industries of Oregon are so diversified that no one project would be adapted to every section. The projects for 1914 are potato-raising, corn-growing, canning and preserving, pig-raising, cooking and baking, dairy record-keeping, sewing, poultry-raising, vegetable-raising and manual arts.

Will Be Entertained.

"The prize-winners in these projects from each county will be sent to the state fair and will be entertained by the fair board for one week. Superintendent Churchill has been assured also that he will be able to send 10 of the winners at the state fair to the Panama exposition. The success of this plan depended upon the fair board providing means of entertaining these children.

"The state fair board kindly invited me to appear before it and explain the plans. The members of the board expressed themselves as well pleased with the projects as inaugurated by State Superintendent Churchill and appropriate $1,000 to be distributed in prizes at the state fair and $500 to provide for the boys' camp during fair week. As this was the maximum amount which we asked, we feel that the board has approved our work as it is being carried out.

Sends Out Bulletins.

"Superintendent Churchill has issued 50,000 bulletins to the school children of the state, giving expert advice as to how to produce each article which the children may wish to exhibit. In this work he has had the assistance of the Oregon Agricultural college. He has also issued 5,000 bulletins to teachers of the state, giving instruction how to form these clubs. Although Superintendent Churchill began organizing the clubs only last fall, they are attracting wide attention. We are receiving letters from all parts of the United States requesting copies of all of our bulletins.

SAYS THAW'S SANITY IS NOT INVOLVED IN CASE PENDING

"The question of Harry Thaw's sanity has nothing to do with the case pending before the United States judge at Concord," said ex-District Attorney William T. Jerome here today. "The question before Judge Aldrich is whether Thaw can be extradited on a charge of complicity in the conspiracy to get him out of Matzenau.

"I am not appearing before the commission engaged in looking into the case at Concord at present because I don't want to expose New York state to ridicule by taking part in a proceeding to determine whether to admit Thaw to bail. Besides, the limitations the commission have to impose would make it impossible adequately to show Thaw's mental condition.

"But I shall appeal to Judge Aldrich later."

Either sincerely or dissemblingly some of the financial kings are accepting the government's idea of their business. The administration is easily winning apparent victories all along the line.

YOUNG AND WILLARD SHOWED NO ANIMOSITY

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 9.—Charles F. Eytan, who refereed the glove match at Vernon between Jesse Willard and John Young, that resulted in the death of Young, was on the witness stand today when the trial of Willard on a charge of violating the California anti-prize fight law was resumed.

Before taking the stand Eytan was a defendant on a similar charge. The charges were dropped, however, to permit him to be called as a state witness. Similar procedure was promised in the case of the other defendants, and the fate of the boxing game in California probably will rest solely upon the outcome of the Willard case.

The prosecution scored today when Judge Craig refused to permit Defense Attorney Earl Rogers to introduce as evidence a decision handed down two years ago by Superior Judge Willis. Craig did, however, permit Rogers to ask witnesses if, in their belief, the holding of this decision had been violated.

Eytan testified that neither contestant tried to injure the other, and at no time did he see malice displayed during the bout. On the contrary, the referee testified the men conversed during clinches, and exchanged bantering but good-natured remarks. Eytan also said that he received a copy of Judge Willis' fight decision, and that he always had been careful to "live up to it" in conducting the Vernon bouts.

ELOPERS ARE GUARDED IN SEPARATE HOTELS FOLLOWING ARREST

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Mobile, Ala., Jan. 9.—Miss Delilah Bradley and K. M. Foster, son of the millionaire president of the International Correspondence School, of Sranford, Pa., who were arrested here yesterday on a white slavery charge, were guarded in separate hotels today.

"I came south with Mr. Foster with the understanding that he was to marry me as soon as he got a divorce," said Miss Bradley today. "His married life has been unhappy."

Foster declared he intended to stand by the girl. The couple came here from Pemberton, N. J.

EIGHT MINERS HURT IN AN EXPLOSION AND FOUR WILL DIE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 9.—Eight miners were badly burned today in a fire which followed an explosion of gas in the Mound City Coal company's mine at Monksville, 12 miles south of here. Four men with the upper parts of their bodies burned nearly to a crisp, were removed to hospitals. They will die. The explosion occurred as the day shift was entering the mine.

GENERAL BUCKNER, WHO HELPED BEAT BRYAN, DEAD

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Lexington, Ky., Jan. 9.—General Simon Bolivar Buckner, ex-governor of Kentucky, and candidate for vice-president on the Gold Democratic national ticket in 1896, died at his home today.

General Simon Bolivar Buckner had a long and distinguished career as a soldier, having served in the Mexican and Civil wars, in both of which he was promoted for bravery and soldierly qualities. He was born on a farm in Hart county, Kentucky, April 1, 1823, and was graduated from the United States Military academy in 1844.

During the Mexican war he was brevetted for bravery at the battles of Contreras, Churubusco and Molino del Rey. He remained with the army until 1855, when he resigned. When the Civil war broke out he joined the Confederate army with the rank of brigadier-general. He was successively made major-general and lieutenant-general.

He was governor of Kentucky from 1887 to 1891, and served as a member of the Kentucky constitutional convention in 1891. After being a candidate for vice-president on the Gold Democratic ticket in 1896 he retired to his farm in Hart county, but continued to take a lively interest in public affairs.

TAT'S RUMOR DISBELIEVED.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Jan. 9.—Officialdom was not inclined today to pay serious attention to the report that President Wilson planned to appoint ex-President Taft to the supreme court, if Chief Justice White left the bench. To go no further, they said, the chief justice did not intend to resign, and has still two years to serve before he reaches the age for retirement.

RINGO ADMITS MISTAKE AND GIRL'S PLEA IS WITHDRAWN

This afternoon County Attorney Ringo, appearing before Judge Cleeton, admitted in open court that he had made a technical mistake and requested that Stella Morgan, indicted jointly with Effie Creswell on the charge of attempting to poison another, be permitted to withdraw her plea of guilty and be given time in which to consult an attorney before entering another plea.

It is rumored that County Attorney Ringo, in order to obtain a confession from Stella Morgan in connection with Mrs. Creswell, assumed her of a parole in the event she would plead guilty as an accessory to the crime Mrs. Creswell has been convicted of committing. Attorney Ringo told Judge Cleeton this afternoon that he advised the Morgan girl to plead guilty, but that, after reviewing his actions he discovered that he had no right to give such advice under the circumstances.

Judge Cleeton permitted the Morgan girl to withdraw her plea of guilty and in the Creswell case he held that Attorney Blue, representing the defendant, could have until next Monday in which to consult with the trial jury for the purpose of securing statements encouraging to the court to parole Mrs. Creswell.

to be taken to the hospital. Tillman's left arm was broken.

Thorn Is Released.

San Francisco, Jan. 9.—William Thorn, I. W. W. organizer, under arrest here, charged with inciting yesterday's riot of the unemployed, was released this afternoon on $250 cash bail.

Though the police have kept the people on the move, there has been a changing crowd all day in Portsmouth Square, opposite the Hall of Justice. The moment it was announced that Thorn considered himself in danger in the city prison the work was begun of raising money enough from this throng to secure his liberation.

The collection was taken up by Misses Pearl Vogel, Ida Adler, Emma Parsons and W. Hildebrand and Mrs. Geo. Bell. A little after 1 o'clock they had enough money, turned it over to the bond and warrant clerk, and at 1:30 Thorn was free.

Police reserves were held ready to charge the crowd if anyone tried to start a meeting, but no such attempt was made.

MAY ALLOW SOME OF CLAIMS AT NEXT COUNCIL MEETING

It was considered probable today that some of the claims of those who are entitled to funds derived from the sale of the sewer bond issue of nearly half a million dollars would be allowed at the next meeting of the city council. Between 4000 and 5000 claims must be handled and the interest accurately figured in each case. It will probably be months before the last of the claims are paid.

TWELVE VIOLENT DEATHS.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Berlin, Jan. 9.—Twelve deaths were involved in two crimes of violence committed today in the province of East Prussia and Hamburg. Disheartened by financial reverses, Albert Bratz, a carpenter, and his wife cut the throats of their five children. Then the parents and Bratz's sister committed suicide. Following a family quarrel, a city policeman at Hamburg killed his three daughters and himself.

ODD REASONS GIVEN.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Jan. 9.—Although one of the principal reasons given for the withdrawal of marines from the Panama canal zone and sending them to the coast of Mexico was the unhealthfulness of their quarters in Panama, Secretary of War Garrison announced this afternoon that he would send coast artillerymen to Panama soon. He stated that sending of troops to Panama had no connection with the withdrawal of the marines.

FOR STRIKE PROBE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Jan. 9.—Senator Ashurst of Arizona announced today that he will introduce next week in the national upper house a resolution for a committee to investigate the Michigan copper mining strike.

WILL DISCUSS FAIR.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] London, Jan. 9.—The question of British participation in the San Francisco 1915 exposition, it was believed here today, will be raised in parliament soon after King George reads his speech from the throne.

The Oregon Social Hygiene society will hold a meeting Friday evening of next week in the East school building, and parents of that section will be invited to attend. Many matters of vital interest will be discussed.

TABLOID TALES

What is hospitality, mother? It is that virtue we write poetry about and extol, and thought of which leads us to say, when one asks if we have guests. "No, thank goodness!"

What, mother, is this wild goose chase we hear so much about? It is your neighbor's pursuit of a hope, but never your own.

What mother, is meant by "matches are made in heaven?" It is an attempt, little one, of those who marry to lay the blame on high. Matches are really made at a bargain sale without the privilege of taking the goods to the light.

What is meant, mother, by calling a man a "bird?" It means, little one, that he flies high, and the bird is slandered every time the word is used.

In what way, mother, dear? The man who is called a "bird," my child, is seldom a credit to his family. The bird, little one, leaves his home nest, builds a nest of his own and never takes his family back on long kin visits or for his father to support. The man who is really like the birds is absorbed in taking care of his family and is never called a bird.

They call some bridesmaids, others flower girls and others maids of honor. What, mother, dear, do they call the woman who sings, "Oh, Promise Me" at the wedding?

There is no name for her, my child, but she is really the callope of the parade.

What, mother mine, is meant by the word "spirituelle?" It is a word dear child, which sensible people never use. The temperamental apply it to a very thin girl whose father has money. If he were poor, no one would say she is "spirituelle"; they would say she is "skinny."

Is a woman, mother mine, ever satisfied that she married the right man? She is for six weeks after she marries, my child. After that, she sighs and wonders.

I have never had a lover, mother mine, and would like to know what it is that lovers whisper to their sweet hearts.

That I may not tell you, child, for I have long since forgotten.

But the supply of wild oats exceeds the demand.

WILL ABANDON STORES.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] New York, Jan. 9.—C. J. Hamilton, representing the receivers of the Siegel Stores company, admitted here today that the abandonment of the Boston store was being seriously considered as a part of a plan to reorganize the concern. He said the receivers contemplated abandoning all other enterprises except the Chicago store and the Simpson-Crawford store here.

WILL OCCUPY BUREAU

Announcement was made today by W. L. Toose, of the Marion billiard parlors, that himself and George N. Patterson will open a combination pool hall and merchant's lunch establishment in the building formerly occupied by the Bureau saloon, located on State street, near the White House restaurant. The firm will be known as the Geo. N. Patterson & Co., and will be in operation on the first of next month.

A HARMLESS WELSH RABBIT.

Tommy—Pop, is the Welsh rabbit a domestic animal? Tommy's Pop—Yes, my son. Tommy—Then it won't hurt you, will it? Tommy's Pop—Not if you don't eat it.—Philadelphia Record.

A POSSIBLE REASON.

Boreleigh (at 11:40 in the evening)—I love that dreamy look in your eyes. I have never seen it in any other girl's. Miss Bright (stifling a yawn)—Perhaps you don't say as late with them as you do here.—Boston Transcript.

OIL STOVES.

When using oil stoves, to prevent them from smoking, dissolve one tablespoonful of common salt in every pint of paraffin oil that you use. This also gives a much clearer light, and it prevents the oil vessel from rusting.

It's as difficult for a man to understand a woman as it is for a woman to understand herself.

A GIFT TO THE PIONEERS.

If you have any old pioneer friends that you would like to send a little New Year's remembrance to, see Hal Patton and get a copy of "Nyreena Kloeche III—hee," the little volume of poems largely devoted to the grand old pioneers. There is nothing you can give them that will afford them so much pleasure.

The Blackest Crime Against Womanhood

BY HARRIOT STANTON BLATCH.

The opinions of people may differ as to the social evil. We can conceive that some good men and even some women may feel that it is a necessary evil, but no good men or good women can hold two opinions in regard to forcing women into commercialized vice.

Every decent man and every right-minded woman ought to register a vow that the trapping of girls for purposes of white slavery must cease.

If our corrupt governments fail to hunt down the slave-drivers, fail to pursue and punish those who deliberately, through fraud or force drag unwilling girls into a life of vice, then all decent citizens, men and women, should unite in forming a great vigilance committee to enforce to the extreme the laws made to prevent the enslaving of young girls of our nation in a loathsome trade.

Our laws ought to be powerful enough to prevent and to punish violence done its wards.

It is appalling to think that in a city of untold wealth, which has become a center of art and music, that government departments which are organized to protect the weak are so corrupted that they cater to the vicious and strong.

It is the most terrible indictment of our civilization that adult men have so organized their government and that adult women have tolerated such government, that girls in their teens can be spirited away under the very eyes of our powerful police force and detective system; that girls in public places can be secretly attacked, drugged and overpowered, and all for the purpose of feeding commercialized vice.

If the government of men cannot protect innocent girls from violence and if women, having no political power, cannot create a government suitable to perform this work, then the time has come when a great private endeavor should be made to meet the situation.

It is the first duty of any civilized community to guard its girlhood and we must guard our at any price.

A large and efficient detective force of the best women of the city should be immediately organized. This force should be paid for by a private fund until we shame the government of men into action to watch over the girls of our city in all public places where they are in danger.

There should be a corps of women lawyers to follow up with energy and dispatch each white slave case which comes into our courts.

This is not a time to be satisfied with mere arguments or sensation. Day by day our feelings are harrowed by the account of the disappearance of some young woman; day by day we are horrified as we read of the incarceration in some small tenement of young girls who have been trapped by white slavers; each day we are stirred by some account of a little slip of paper dropped from a barred window and getting into the hands of a rescuer.

After the sensation comes no single detail of the prosecution and adequate punishment of the men involved in the violence done these young girls.

It is an insult to our hearts as well as to our heads to allow these cases to end with the mere record that they have happened. There should be a corps of women lawyers paid by a vigilance committee to follow up each case and give the public information as to the disposal in court.

Never has the world given example of a greater wrong than are these wrongs to young girls perpetrated almost under our eyes day by day. Nations have been conquered, men and women have been sold on the slave block, but never before has a great and powerful nation sat by with folded hands and seen its girlhood sacrificed to commercialized vice, entrapped and drugged and beaten into submission by the basest of men for the support of a trade loathsome to them.

All the horrors and terrors of serfdom and slavery that the world has ever seen pale in comparison with the horrors which the government of men do nothing to prevent and little to punish.
