

SOCIAL EVENTS

Events have followed closely upon each other the past week, a number of large bridge parties and the tea given by the Woman's Club Wednesday, having occupied the time of society folk very fully. Out of town visitors have been much entertained and still other affairs are planned for their next week.

Mrs. Harry Clay entertained Friday at a 12 o'clock breakfast in honor of Mrs. F. M. Jordan, of Seattle, who is the house guest of Mrs. Henry Meyers. Covers were laid for 12, the table being exquisitely decorated with red carnations and dainty hand painted place cards. After the breakfast, bridge formed the amusement. Today Mrs. Clay was hostess at another charming bridge party of seven tables.

Mrs. Thomas C. Smith gave two delightful bridge parties during the week, Tuesday with eight tables, and Thursday with seven. Assisting the hostess on Tuesday were Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, and Mrs. C. L. McNary. The winner of the first prize was Miss Aline Thompson while Miss Viola DeBeek secured second. On Thursday Mrs. Arabelle Gough, mother of Mrs. Smith, Miss Lella Slater and Miss Lucille Belle, assisted the hostess in serving dainty refreshments. On this occasion card honors fell to Mrs. Ralph Watson and Mrs. C. L. Dick. The rooms for both parties were beautifully decorated with potted plants. Out of town guests were Mrs. F. M. Jordan, of Seattle, Mrs. Claude Knight, of The Dalles, and Miss Viola DeBeek, of Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. B. O. Schucking entertained a few guests informally at luncheon Thursday, and was hostess again today to a few friends.

Mrs. Frank G. Meyers is entertaining the Kensington club this afternoon, and will be a joint hostess with Mrs. Max O. Bureu at two bridge parties next week.

Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley entertained the Auction Bridge club of which she is a member on Thursday evening. Her sister, Miss Viola DeBeek, of Vancouver, B. C., assisted Mrs. Livesley, the affair proving one of the most enjoyable of the week's events. Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop and Mrs. Rollin K. Page were the fortunate winners of the first and second prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Caughell observed the eleventh anniversary of their marriage, by one of the most enjoyable "500" parties of the week, Thursday evening, January 29. Five tables of this popular game were played the prizes going to Mrs. Ralph Watson and George Fox. The following made up the list of players in addition to the host and hostess: Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Watson, Mrs. Witehen, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Seicke, Mrs. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Meyers, Mrs. Locke.

Mrs. Asahel Bush, Jr., entertained last Friday with two tables of bridge. Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley captured first prize. Miss Ellen Thielson, Miss Althea Moores and Mrs. William H. Boot were guests in addition to the members forming the club.

Mrs. William McElchrist, Jr., and Mrs. Roy Barton entertained last Thursday with two tables of "500," card game.

Miss Myrtle Hill was the recipient of a "shower" at the home of Mrs. Albert Fieselman last Wednesday evening, the event being in honor of her approaching marriage to Harry Ross, which will occur some time in April.

The thirty-eight birthday of William P. Babcock was observed by a most enjoyable family dinner at the Babcock home, last Saturday evening, when covers were laid for twelve. Holly and red carnations with streamers of ribbon were the decorations.

Louis Leonard Osborn and Miss Mary Belle Hutton, both of Silverton, were married in this city Wednesday, January 21. They left immediately for California, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will be at home to their friends in Silverton. Mr. Osborn has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, with headquarters at Silverton, for some time. He is a very capable man and stands well, both with the company and his associates. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hutton, one of the oldest families in Marion county. She is an accomplished vocalist and is also quite popular in local dramatic circles. Both contracting parties enjoy a very large circle of friends.

The local brotherhood of wall paper and paint dealers and hangers held a most enjoyable social meeting at Union hall Friday evening. Refreshments were served and an informal good time enjoyed.

The 48th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ratcliff was observed at their home at Morningside addition, Monday, January 19, by a delightful surprise given them by their friends. Their daughters, Mrs. William McReynolds and Mrs. George Voris, assisted by Miss Ella Bennett served dainty refreshments. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Tharp, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Reeves, Mrs. Geo. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Law, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bennett, Mrs. Myrtle Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Mode Reedy, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boyman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McReynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Voris, Mr. L. St. Ores of Portland, Miss Ella Bennett, Miss Lela Bowman and great grand son, Malcolm McReynolds.

The 55th birthday of John Campbell was made a pleasant event by the unexpected appearance of a number of his friends at his home in Yew Park. Cards and music furnished the amusement, after a delicious luncheon had been enjoyed. Fifty-five wax tapers decorated his birthday cake, which proved an attractive centerpiece for the table. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pero, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs. John Printz, Mr. and Mrs. Amel Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Swiger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shedeck, Mr. and Mrs. George Stankoy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Shrum, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Campbell; Misses Ruth Smith, Margie Munson and Lillian Stankoy, and Messrs. Arno Campbell, Harry Deacon, Mrs. Munson, Mrs. E. V. Race and Mrs. E. Duncan.

The Davenport girls, half sisters of the late Homer Davenport, are said to be preparing for a theatrical career in Los Angeles. All are gifted musicians and Addie Davenport Martin has won some distinction as a sculptor and artist.

At a tea recently given by Mrs. Ernest Tucker of Portland, the engagement of Miss Polly Hewitt, her cousin, was announced to Lewis A. McArthur, a son of Mrs. Harriet McArthur, and a brother of C. N. (Pat) McArthur.

The Christian church held an enjoyable housewarming last Wednesday evening when 200 members gathered at the new bible school that has been erected in connection with the church work. WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES.
Anxious to give the most complete and satisfactory service at a minimum cost to the girls and women who patronize the Rest Room, the Salem Woman's club has added the new feature of serving soups and a vegetable of some sort in addition to the tea and sandwiches, making it a pleasant innovation for cold days. So popular has the rest room become that the service of Dr. M. A. Seip has been secured to assist Mrs. P. L. Blackerly at the rooms. Dr. Seip is a graduate nurse and physician and proves especially competent in assisting Mrs. Blackerly to look after the comfort of visitors.

The Red Letter Day of the Salem Woman's Club, proved such indeed on Wednesday afternoon, when the beautiful home of Mrs. E. Cook Patton was thrown open, while guests thronged the rooms throughout the reception.

Everybody Admires a Beautiful Complexion.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Delightful Toilet Requisite for Fashionable Women.

A daily necessity for the ladies' toilet whether at home or while traveling. It protects the skin from injurious effects of the elements, gives a wonderfully effective beauty to the complexion. It is a perfect non-greasy Toilet Cream and positively will not cause or encourage the growth of hair which all ladies should guard against when selecting a toilet preparation. When dancing, bowling, or other exertions heat the skin, it prevents a greasy appearance.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream has been highly recommended by physicians, actresses, singers and women of fashion for over half a century and cannot be surpassed when preparing for daily or evening attire.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves Sunburn, Removes Tan, Freckles, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Residues, Yellow and Grubby Skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.
