RECOMMENDATIONS BY GAME COMMISSION

Better System of Handling Accounts Is Planned and Money to Be Placed With Treasurer.

CHIEF CLERK IS NAMED TO LOOK AFTER MATTER

Finance Committee of Three to Meet Once Each Month and Duties of Game Wardens Outlined.

The report of the fish and game commission, filed with the governor last evening, is a voluminous affair, much too long to print, and longer than any would care to read, if printed. Out of the mass we have gleaned the following: That heretofore there have been no accounts kept, except in a very desultory way, and that the commission will have these slips and notes posted so that something can be learned of what the commission has done, and where the money has been expended. It recommends the turning over of all funds to the state treasurer to be checked out as in other state business, the commission heretofore having maintained its own private deposit.

It makes several other recommendations about as follows: That a board composed of two commercial men, two game men, with suggestion of the appointment of a fifth member from the scientific department of some educational institution.

The Appointment of a Chief Clerk. Appoint from the board a finance committee of three, who shall meet at least once a month.

That work be divided among the members of the commission so that each is responsible for visiting and reporting on certain plants.

Appoint a hatchery superintendent with residence at Bonneville, to have complete charge of fish and hatchery operations.

Game warden to have complete and exclusive control of the policing of all that district west of the Cascades, and three deputies or rangers to travel in connection with his work west of the mountains.

Makes it the duty of the fish warden to collect all licenses, look after dams, ladders, screens, etc., and to have exclusive control of the policing of all that district west of the Cascades, for both game and commercial interests, and be allowed one deputy to travel in connection with his work east of the mountains. That the expense of policing, etc., be born at the ratio of $2 from the game fund to $1 from the fish fund.

Finally recommends the department keep in touch with the U. S. bureau of fisheries, whose work is far superior to that done by the state.

BIG BOWLING GAME. A big match game will be played tonight at the Club alleys between Pop Weyman's Pirates and Ralph's Federals. The Pirates consist of such bowlers as Weyman, Captain Stutesman, Laflar, Rauch, and Kress. Opposed to them are a bunch of equally as good bowlers, Captain Pratt, Craven, Piere, Noud and Siddell. There is a great deal of interest aroused, the rivalry between the two being very keen.

There have been 55 bicycles stolen in this city during the past year, according to the police records at the city jail. Out of the 55 the police have recovered 17. The nature of the thefts indicate that transients are, in many instances, the nifty parties, for the reason the stolen wheels have not been located at any particular place, and that many of them were found lying along the roadside in the suburbs of the city. One was stolen from a Capital Journal news boy last evening.

Petitions for a remonstrating against state-wide prohibition are being circulated in Salem at present. The petitions are being handled by different local men, and it is understood that such a movement is now being made in every city in the state. One of the petitions which was circulated in North Salem today contained over 300 names, and it is understood that many more such papers are being signed up by the local citizens.

LARGE SUM INVOLVED IN SUIT BEING TRIED IN CIRCUIT COURT

One of the most important legal actions ever brought in Judge Galloway's department of the circuit court is being tried today, it being a case wherein Julius G. Vogel is seeking to recover $30,923 from O. L. Harris and the foreclosure of a contract for the purchase of lands located near Brooks, Ore.

There are 19 witnesses on hand who will testify in behalf of the plaintiff, while the defendants will be represented by nine witnesses. The lands in question compose some of the richest farming territory in the state, and the suit resulted from the plaintiff's objection to the defendant's actions in carrying out the contract to improve the property.

Attorneys William P. Lord, Jr., of Portland, and Walter E. Keyes, of Salem, are representing the plaintiff, Judge Galloway is holding court in the city council chambers.

ANTI-SALOON PLATFORM

GEORGE C. BROWNELL IS MAKING HIS CAMPAIGN LARGELY ON BIG STATE ISSUE.

George C. Brownell, prominent in the politics of Oregon for years, and former state senator from Clackamas county, is in Salem today from Oregon City, on legal business. Mr. Brownell is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, and stated today that he would make the campaign on a clean-cut, anti-saloon platform. If he accomplishes nothing else, he hopes to force other candidates to take a definite position on this important question.

"I am a good loser and a good winner," said Mr. Brownell, "and no matter how it goes, I will be satisfied. They will all know they have been in a fight, however."

WELLKNOWN BUSINESS MAN PASSES AWAY

Proprietor of Plymouth III Only Since Saturday and Death Surprises His Many Friends.

PROMINENT IN AFFAIRS OF CITY FOR MANY YEARS

Survived By His Wife, Parents, Three Brothers and Sister and Had Wide Acquaintance in Oregon

Oscar M. Johnson, for several years the proprietor of the Plymouth clothing store, at the corner of State and Liberty streets, passed away at his home in this city this morning at 2 o'clock, after an illness lasting but a short time.

The deceased was born near Jefferson, in Marion county, July 15, 1867. He came to Salem 31 years ago. About ten years ago he started a clothing store in this city. But a few years ago Mr. Johnson moved into the quarters now occupied by the Plymouth clothing store, and has built up a valuable business in the new location.

Mr. Johnson has been foremost in all public affairs in this city, and was popular in Salem society. He was an active member of the Masonic lodge and took part in several leading movements whereby the city has been benefited in the past. Besides having excellent business ability, Mr. Johnson was a loving husband and a good friend. He has a wide circle of friends, not only in this city, but in many other towns of the state, who will grieve to learn of his sudden and unexpected demise.

The deceased was taken down ill with pneumonia last Saturday, as the result of contracting a cold recently. His condition gradually grew worse, and this morning at 2 o'clock he died.

Besides a wife, who was formerly Mrs. Hal Bolan, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Johnson, Mr. Johnson leaves three brothers, Clyde, Paul and George Johnson and a sister. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Rigdon & Richardson. The funeral will be private.
