

SOCIAL EVENTS

The past week has been a busy one in club and lodge circles, with a few large society affairs, but many of the smart set have taken advantage of the fair weather prevailing to enjoy motoring and other out-door sports. Valentine affairs have lapped over into the week just closing, as Cupid's patron saint is always popular, and next week promises to be especially festive, since it is the last period before the gray days of the Lenten season, beginning about March the first and which will mean a brief respite to society people.

Coming as a delightful item of interest is the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Erixon, of the engagement of their daughter Gertrude Carolyn, to Mr. Joseph Hughes Reinhart. The marriage will be an event of June. Miss Erixon who is a most attractive young woman has always resided in Salem and enjoys a large circle of friends gained by her charming personality and beautiful singing. Mr. Reinhart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reinhart of this city, and conducts one of the most successful business enterprises. Congratulations are being showered upon the young people.

Mrs. R. B. Fleming and Mrs. R. K. Page went to Donald Thursday on the Oregon Electric, combining a business and pleasure trip.

Attorney and Mrs. John H. McNary are planning to leave next week for a trip to California.

Miss Beatrice Sheiton attended the wedding of Miss Lois McMurphy and Allyn Freeman Roberts of The Dalles, occurring a few days ago at the bride's home at Eugene.

Shirley B. Foster, the 17 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Foster has received an invitation to compete for honors at the Temple of Childhood, Panama-Pacific Exposition. At the Marion county eugenics show her grade was 99.5 per cent. She is the daughter of the Great Northern Express agent in this city.

Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson went to Portland Wednesday for a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Meredith have returned from a trip to Vancouver, B. C. where Mr. Meredith went on business connected with the state fair.

Salem friends of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Sweetland are regretting to learn of Dr. Sweetland's prospective departure from Salem and Willamette University, to Geneva, N. Y., where has accepted a position with Hobart college.

The following announcement which appeared in the Portland Journal of Tuesday, will be of interest to Salem friends of the parties concerned. Mrs. E. D. Roberts will be remembered by many as Miss Maud Adams, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Adams, who with their three attractive daughters were at one time residents of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. William C. Knighton have been frequent guests at the Roberts home in Southern California and are looking forward to a visit from Mrs. Roberts and the Misses Louise and Marie, in the early spring. Messrs. Kamm have many friends in Salem who will join in congratulations. They are cousins of Mrs. W. Connell Dyer.

Announcement has been made in the California home of the brides-to-be of the approaching double wedding of Walter W. Kamm and Miss Louise Eliza Roberts and Philip S. Kamm and Miss Maud Marie Roberts. The Messrs. Kamm are the sons of Mrs. Charles Tilton Kamm of the well known family of that name in Portland and the Misses Roberts are the attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Roberts of San Bernardino, Cal. The Misses Roberts have recently finished their courses at Dana Hall and Miss Marie has been attending Mills college this year. Messrs. Kamm have been at Amherst until this year, when they returned to Portland to engage in business. The wedding, which is planned for November, is the culmination of a pretty romance which began aboard the steamer Corona, en route to Europe a few years ago, when the young people were in school.

"The Roberts family is prominent in California society. Mr. Roberts, who is a prominent banker, is state treasurer. The young women are most attractive and accomplished and will be a welcome acquisition to the younger set in Portland. They are members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. "Messrs. Kamm are well known in the younger set here, where they have hosts of friends. They are brothers of Mrs. James A. McKinnon (Caroline Kamm) of this city, and Jacob Kamm who is an tour of the world, now in the island of Java. Their grandfather, the late Jacob Kamm, was one of the foremost pioneer settlers of the state, identified with the river transportation for about three score years.

"Both young men are members of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and are affiliated with several prominent clubs."

Mrs. T. Livesley entertained with two tables of bridge Friday afternoon.

The sixtieth anniversary of St. Paul's Episcopal church was celebrated Wednesday by a large reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thielson. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Ada Strong and Mrs. Gilson. Mrs. Edward Weller, Mrs. A. M. Crawford, Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. Jos. Baumgartner poured. Others assisting were the Misses Alice Skiff, Mignon Oliver, Beatrice Walton, Helen Wood, Dorris Churchill and Ellen Thielson. The dining room was brilliant with crimson carnations while yellow daffodils were used in the reception rooms. On the dining table an unique feature was the church's birthday cake, surrounded by 60 candles, while the birthday idea was further emphasized by friends who brought bags containing as many pennies as they were years old to be placed in the church treasury. Several delightful musical numbers were given, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Miss Margery Marvin and Miss Alice Skiff contributing solos and Miss Mignon Oliver giving a pleasing reading.

Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. F. S. Craig were joint hostess at a delightful 500 party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Smith. Eleven tables were played, card honors going to Mrs. Chester Cox and Fred Steusloff. The gentleman's prize was an unique folding axe that promise to be grossly appreciated when the camping season opens, and the lady's prize was an exquisitely hand painted vase. The refreshments, daintily served, added new laurels to the reputation for hospitality already achieved by these hostesses.

Mrs. Robert E. Downing has just finished a series of bridge and 500 parties, four large affairs having been given, two being afternoons of bridge, and two evening parties of 500. For the afternoon affairs a profusion of canary daffodils were used, giving a sunlight reflection in marked contrast to the gray weather out-of-doors. About 200 persons were entertained during the series.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott entertained at three pretty luncheons last week, Wednesday asking Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Mrs. S. G. Sargeant, Mrs. H. J. Bean,

Mrs. F. A. Turner, Mrs. Harvey J. Cléments, and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding. The guests on Thursday were: Mrs. Robert Downing, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. I. H. Van Winkle, Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. F. W. Steusloff, Mrs. Edward Tillinghast, Mrs. Ray L. Farmer, Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mrs. J. Churchill and Mrs. Frederick A. Legg. Covers were laid for Mrs. Charles L. Dick, Mrs. Ralph Watson, Mrs. John Caughill, Mrs. Compton, Mrs. A. S. Kazmarek, Miss Sophie Catlin, Miss Veda Cross, Mrs. O. E. Siocke, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Percy V. Cotter and Mrs. John Ferguson, Jr., on Friday. Daffodils were used lavishly in the decorations, adding much to the beauty of the perfectly appointed table. Miss Sophie Catlin assisted the hostess in these charming affairs.

Miss Muriel Steeves and her cousin, Miss Helen Hunt, entertained at an enjoyable valentine luncheon Saturday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves. The place cards were pretty heart-shaped affairs, as were the cakes, while festoons of red ribbons were used effectively. Besides the hostesses covers were laid for Miss Ethel Rupert, Miss Genevieve Patton, Miss Pauline Remington, Miss Margaret Legg, Miss Lucile Jones, Miss Thelma Young, Miss Grace Hunt, Miss Grace Farrar and Miss Vesta Smith.

The ninth birthday of Kola McClellan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. McClellan, was made a most enjoyable occasion by a party given at his home, 353 Leslie street, on Saturday afternoon. His birthday fell on February 12, Lincoln's birthday, but the celebration was deferred until Saturday in order that a moving picture matinee might be included in the day's festivity. Eight boys were guests, and including Kola, the party of nine were chaperoned by O. O. McClellan, to the Wexford. After an enjoyable hour they repaired to the McClellan home where a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. McClellan, and the remainder of the time spent at games. The boys reported the occasion most enjoyable, and the young host received many pleasant mementos of the occasion.

The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Woman's club was held last Sunday afternoon at the public library, when they were addressed by Miss Lullie Robbins, assistant professor of domestic science at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Wednesday afternoon the regular monthly tea of the Woman's Social Circle of the Central Congregational church, was held with Mrs. D. H. Talmadge, at 1740 Court street. Associated with Mrs. Talmadge as hostesses were Mesdames Dale, Keith, Kochman and Phillips. Features of a program designed, like the simple and dainty refreshments, to promote rather than hinder sociability, were musical numbers by Miss Van Patten, Mrs. Talmadge and an observation game.

A valentine party was given last Friday afternoon by the Adalante Literary society of Willamette University. A reading was given by Miss Fay Goin and musical numbers were given by Miss Gertrude Eakin and Miss Grace Thompson. Games were played and refreshments served.

eral girl friends at dinner Saturday evening at Lausanne hall, the table being prettily decorated in honor of St. Valentine.

The Priscilla class of young ladies of the First Methodist Sunday school, were entertained at a banquet in the parlors of the church last Friday evening, by Miss Stella Chappell.

A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Ida Thornton last Friday evening, a number of girl friends coming in unexpectedly, as a farewell courtesy, since the Thornton family will remove to Washington soon. Games were played and refreshments served. Those present were the Misses Esther Paragonian, Helen Frey, Louise Cooper, Edna McFarland, Grace Davis, Lois Tyler, Vera Wright, Lavianna Anderson and Edith McFarland.

A valentine party was given Thursday by Roy Klunen and Miss Cleo Kinnon to a number of their friends. Mrs. Leslie Parker assisted in serving refreshments. The evening was spent enjoyably at games and dancing. Those asked were: The Misses Pearl Howe, Amy Marvin, Deva Golden, Helen Noguebar, Leatha Wise, Esther Lucas, Eva King, Mrs. Leslie Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown and Marvin Brown; full chorus presentation of "Long, Long Ago." Typical numbers were "Bonnie Dundee," sung by S. P. De Witte in a black knee breeches suit, accompanied on the piano by his daughter, Miss Katherine, wearing old time pantslets; vocal solo, "Twenty Years Ago" by Mrs. D. H. Talmadge accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mary, on the violin, which was her great-grandfather's, and Mrs. Woodcock at the piano; "Monastery Bells" piano solo by Miss Baker, and vocal solo, "I'd Rather Be Married Than Die an Old Maid," Miss Pearl Eyre, Boyd Ashby sang, "The Old, Oaken Bucket" and the Misses Ashby and Reid each gave a solo in their characteristically pleasing style. Other numbers were an instrumental solo by Miss Laura Yantis, vocal solo by Mrs. Basher, violin solo by Miss Mary Talmadge, chorus, "Kentucky Babe" and quartette and chorus "Tracaddillo," trio and quartette, "Sleep Little One" with violin and piano accompanying.

The golden jubilee of the Knights of Pythias, Central lodge, No. 18, was celebrated Thursday evening, the auxiliary lodge, Pythian Sisters, joining in making the affair a success. The following musical program was presented:

Everybody Admires a Beautiful Complexion.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER An Indispensable and Delightful Toilet Requisite for Fashionable Women.

A daily necessity for the ladies' toilet whether at home or while traveling. It protects the skin from injurious effects of the elements, gives a wonderfully effective beauty to the complexion. It is a perfect non-greasy Toilet Cream and positively will not cause or encourage the growth of hair which all ladies should guard against when selecting a toilet preparation. When dancing, bowling or other exertions heat the skin, it prevents a steady appearance.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream has been highly recommended by physicians, actresses, singers and women of fashion for over half a century and cannot be surpassed when preparing for daily or evening attire.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures Skin Diseases and relieves Sunburn, Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Blisters, Yellow and Muddy Skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.
