

THREE MEN KILLED IN GREAT NORTHERN HOLDUP

Grapple With Robber Who Is Locking Door and Are Shot Down and Instantly Killed.

LITTLE HOPE FOR THEIR CAPTURE IS HELD OUT

Traced to Waterfront and Are Believed To Have Made Their Escape To San Juan Islands.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Bellingham, Wash., Feb. 21.—When three passengers on Great Northern passenger train No. 358 bound for Vancouver, B. C., undertook to resist one of the trio of robbers who entered the day coach when the train was running along the edge of the bay, nine miles south of here last night at 7:30, the holdup pulled an automatic pistol and shot three men dead in their tracks. The dead men are:

Thomas S. Wadsworth, a Canadian Pacific conductor, of Vancouver, B. C.
R. L. Lee, of Bremerton, Wash.
H. K. Aderson, a traveling salesman of Vancouver, B. C.

Get On At Burlington.

It is believed the three got on the train at Burlington, a few miles south of the place where the holdup occurred. They were seen to leave the smoking car and enter the vestibule between it and the day coach where they tied white handkerchiefs about their faces. One of the men then entered the day coach and walked to the rear door, a second one stepped just inside the coach while the third remained in the vestibule.

As the man reached the rear door and started to lock the door, the three men who were killed leaped from their seats and started grappling with the holdup. At that minute the holdup who was at the forward end of the coach began shooting into the ceiling of the car and putting out the lights. Three Are Shot Down.

The holdup grappling with the three men then pulled out an automatic revolver and began shooting. He fired probably ten shots. Lee was the first man to fall. The next two shots killed Wadsworth and Aderson. Lee was trying to crawl behind the rear seat when the bandit turned his gun on him and fired five or six shots into his back. None of the shots fired by the other bandit took effect, but he kept the passengers in a state of fright, a half dozen women fainting.

The robber who killed the men turned and started back to the front of the coach. As he passed along several women passengers held their purses out in the aisle. He gathered up a handful of them and then ran.

The three bandits left the train together as it came to a stop from a signal given by the conductor who had heard the shooting from another coach, and pulled the cord. Poses were hurriedly formed here and a special train was hurried to the scene of the robbery, but on account of the wilderness of surrounding country and the opportunity to get away in a boat to the San Juan islands, little hope is held out for the bandits' capture.

Traces Are Soon Lost.

Sheriff's posse traced the bandits along the waterfront for a quarter of a mile but lost trace of them when they intersected a crushed stone path built from the shore to low water mark by oystermen.

A young man and woman strolling along the tracks where the train came to a stop saw the three bandits leap from the steps of the day coach and run along the train to the engine tender. They attempted to crawl up on the tender, but the engineer turned a flashlight in their direction when they darted under the train and disappeared along the tide flats.

Poses from two counties joined their forces last night and a strong patrol was established along the waterfront, all awgon roads and the interurban line which skirts the water front at this place.

Was Government Employee.

Bremerton, Wash., Feb. 21.—R. L. Lee, who was killed by a train robber near Bellingham, was a time clerk at Puget Sound navy yard where he had been employed ten years; he was 35 years of age. His parents live at Ackland, Kansas.

HERE'S AN EARNED NICKNAME.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Representative Langley of Kentucky has the nickname "back home" of "Turnpike John." And by hek sir, he's proud of it. He told the House recently during debate on the good roads bill that nobody could accuse him of playing politics on the $25,000,000 pork barrel roads measure, for by all the moonshine of the eternal Kentucky mountains, he had gained his title of "Turnpike John" because he was a red hot advocate of the good roads movement.

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If Tongue Is Coated or If Cross, Feverish, Constipated Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale feverish, full if cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today save a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

MOVIES INDISPENSABLE BY SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 21.—The use of moving pictures in state institutions has become such an important part of the entertainment and instruction of state charges that they are now indispensable. This statement was made today by C. J. Vassaly, chairman of the Minnesota State Board of Control. "The motion picture is being found especially valuable in the schools for the deaf and dumb and the insane asylums," said Vassaly.

"It has been found especially difficult to get any sort of attraction that will hold the attention of the insane, but the problem seems to have been solved with the movies.

"At different exhibitions of pictures at the state asylum, the inmates were invariably intensely interested by the rapidly changing views. "It undoubtedly has a good effect upon their minds. At the school for the deaf the motion pictures have proved one of the biggest items in the teaching system, as the educational pictures can be explained by flashing the words on the screen. The movies will undoubtedly grow in importance as time adds educational improvements."

CHAMBERLAIN AMENDMENT IS REJECTED BY SENATE

Washington, Feb. 21.—By a vote of 40 to 13 the senate, in executive session, late yesterday rejected the Chamberlain amendments to the arbitration treaties. Chamberlain desired to exempt from arbitration the admission of aliens, the attendance of aliens at schools, Panama canal tolls and all questions relating to the Monroe doctrine.

The vote was taken during a discussion of the treaty with Spain. It was pointed out that a final vote should not be taken after the settlement of so important an amendment without the treaty going over for a day. Consideration of the proposed treaty with England was then begun.

A big British railroad, not able to find in all England a man fit for its manager, easily found one in a young American. Uncle Sam's boys usually get to the front, and top.
