WOULD DISMISS CASE FOR $15,000 DAMAGES

Alice E. Kennedy Denies She Accused Mary Kelly of Immoral Conduct With Her Husband.

SAYS SHE FOUND MISS KELLY SITTING ON KENNEDY'S LAP.

Accused Young Woman of Immorality Only When Plaintiff and Defendant Were Alone.

Through her attorney, Carey F. Martin, Alice E. Kennedy, the defendant in the $15,000 personal damage suit recently commenced in the circuit court by Mary Kelly, has filed an amended answer in which she asks that the action be dismissed on several grounds set forth.

Mrs. Kennedy recently obtained a decree for divorce from her husband, Thomas N. Kennedy, and later, she alleges, in her amended answer, her former husband and others induced Mary Kelly, the plaintiff, to institute suit for damages in the sum of $15,000 for personal injuries by reason of some remarks alleged to have been made regarding the plaintiff by Mrs. Kennedy prior to the latter's divorce trial.

In the complaint filed for damages, Mary Kelly avers that Mrs. Kennedy accused her of immoral conduct with the defendant's former husband, with the result that plaintiff was injured and humiliated to the extent of the damages prayed for.

Denies Allegations.

The defendant alleges in her answer that she did not accuse Mary Kelly of being several things mentioned in the complaint by plaintiff but admits saying that the plaintiff was "not a good woman." Mrs. Kennedy, in a further and separate answer, states that her reasons for saying the plaintiff was not a good woman are that the defendant filed suit for divorce, and found the plaintiff sitting upon Kennedy's lap and associating with him in a manner she did not believe was moral.

Mrs. Kennedy further avers in her answer that the prosecution for damages is not being brought in good faith by the plaintiff for the reason defendants made no slanderous statements concerning Mary Kelly and accused her of immorality only when plaintiff and defendant were alone and in private.

Plaintiff asks that the action be dismissed.

WARM CONTEST ASSURED

CAPITAL CITY ROD AND GUN CLUB SHOOT'S FIRST OF SIX EVENTS FOR DUPONT TROPHY.

The Capital City Rod and Gun club pulled off a good shoot Sunday. The score:

Pete Holihan, who shoots for the Dupont Powder company, broke 88 out of 100; Veatch, 88; Siddall, 86; Wharley, 75; Wilson, 72; Hubbard, 70; Emmett, 70; Stanton, 65; Jones, 67; Smith, 62; Hawthorn, 55; Wiggins, 45; King, 50. The high scores were made by Holihan, Veatch and Siddall, each getting 24 out of 25 targets. They also shot the first of the six events for the 1914 Dupont trophy, Siddall being high man, Veatch and Wilson, second and Wharley third. This promises to be a warm contest.

DR. PATTERSON TO TALK

WILL BE SPEAKER OF EVENING AT SESSION OF MEN'S LIBERAL CLUB WEDNESDAY.

Dr. Gaylord H. Patterson, dean of the college of liberal arts of Willamette University, will be the speaker of the evening at the meeting of the Men's Liberal club at Unity church, corner of Cottage and Chemeketa streets, next Wednesday evening.

Dr. Patterson will discuss the subject, "Effect of Unrestricted Immigration on the Pacific Coast." This is a subject commanding especial interest with the opening of the Panama canal, which promises to pour a large stream of immigration on the Pacific shores from the countries of Europe. In the chair of social and political science Dr. Patterson has given study to immigration problems, and his address is expected to be of unusual interest.

The club will discuss the topic as an open forum after the speaker has finished, in accordance with the usual rule, at its meetings. The meeting will be open to the public, all men interested being invited.

Medford property owners have appointed a committee to work in connection with the assessor in equalizing assessments.

GROCERY STORE LOOTED BY BOYS FOND OF WEED

Smoking Material Included in Loot Secured From Grocery Store of A. Daue & Son, South Salem.

CLUB IS GIVEN BY MAN WHO WAS IN VICINITY

Saw Two Boys Ride Away With Packages About 10 O'clock and Capture May Be Effected.

The grocery store of A. Daue & Son, South Commercial street, was burglarized last night and several articles taken. The loot included four $1 watches, 50 cigars, a dozen pipes, three and one-half dozen knives, a dozen of which were pearl-handled, a dozen packages of cigarettes and $1.50 in money.

The robbers tried to pick the lock of the back door and failed. They then cut the panel and entered the building.

A South Salem resident saw two boys ride away on bicycles from the building about 10 o'clock last night. They carried packages. They were about 17 years old, and, it is believed, can be identified Lundberg, the man who saw them.

Daue & Son are convinced that the robbery was the work of boys. Since the sale of tobacco was forbidden here to boys under 18 years, some of the lads addicted to its use have used desperate means to secure it.

BOISE GUN CLUB LEADS IN INTERSTATE SHOOT

THE FIFTH AVENUE GIRL.

By Mary J. Atkinson. A feather duster from her hat sticks high into the air, Her neck is harnessed peek-a-boo, or else her throat is bare. The pollywogs upon her veil throw splashes o'er her face, Her corsage is a wild cross-cross of chiffon, silk and lace. The sleeve is rather nondescript, at wrist a floppy ruff, The rest of her is tightly swathed in slinky, clinging stuff. Her snub, low fastened, bears a knot that bobs against her knee, There is no curve about her waist that anyone can see. Her high-heeled patent leather feet can scarce make out to wobble, So closely are the ankles tied within a puckered hobble. These last look bare, but are not so, as everybody knows, They're cased, if one looks sharp enough, in gauzy silken hose. In Winter there are priceless furs, in Summer ditto lace, While jewels similar flash out from almost any place. But after all, there beats inside a heart as good and true As that of any pretty girl that bothers me or you. She'll settle down some day and put her furbles aside To trot her little boys about with all Cornelia's pride. And when she's old she'll criticize her girls' new-fangled ways, And tell them how much saner were the styles of olden days. —New York Times.

Better praise a man while he is alive and abuse him after he is dead than reverse the order.

Barnes' Cash Store Is a Changed Place

It is more than six weeks since the contractors began to raze, change and rebuild our store rooms. We've been silent for that reason.

The entire store has been completely changed about. Walls were removed and large balconies built to increase floor space. Dress goods and kindred lines have been placed and arranged where the BEST OF DAYLIGHT affords easy selection—a special favor to our lady patrons.

While there are still many changes to be made, we are now in a position to look after our customers in a more creditable manner. SPACIOUS AISLES, SPLENDID LIGHT, fresh spring goods arriving daily and the lowest cash prices will, more than ever, makes Barne's Cash Store the ideal shopping place. We cordially invite you to come in without feeling in the least under obligations to make purchases.
