Capital City Brevities

There were three candidates' petitions for nomination filed this morning. E. D. Cusick, of Linn county will run for the nomination for state senator from the fourth district as a republican. Walter M. Dimick, of Clackamas county asks to have his name on the ballot as a republican candidate for the nomination for state senator from the 12th district. Sam H. Brown, of Gervais, wants the position of representative in the legislature from the first district.

Although James Godfrey will be compelled to make his headquarters in Portland since being appointed income tax agent for Oregon, his wife will continue to make her home in this city.

Drs. Darby and Burton, dentists, second floor, U. S. Bank building.

Undertakers Rigdon & Richardson yesterday removed the body of the late Mrs. J. D. Ley to Mount Crest Abbey Mausoleum. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. L. R. Stinson, of this city.

Dr. Ameln, Zahnartz, Steeves Bldg.

Constable Cooper left this morning for Portland, where he will take charge of R. A. White, wanted in this city on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. White is charged with beating the Bligh hotel out of a sum of money.

If you are careful to see that all your flour, breakfast food, etc., is made by the Cherry City Mills you can be sure of getting the best and freshest the market affords.

A WINTER'S TALE
The most wonderful three-part feature ever produced.

Watt Shipp, with an Indian motorcycle, and Frank J. Moore, with a Thor type of machine, made several tryouts on Capital street this morning before the committee selected by the council to choose what make of motorcycle shall be used by the police department. The machines made some good speed today, but, swing to the street being wet, were unable to run their fastest. The committee will meet in Councilman Cumming's office at 3 o'clock this afternoon and talk over the situation with the motorcycle agents.

Finest meals anywhere, Mrs. Bent's, 391 North Commercial street.

Friends of J. L. Ahlers, president of the Salem Bank & Trust Co., were surprised yesterday when he returned to his home here with a wife, having married Mrs. Elizabeth D. Baird, of Augusta, Georgia, last Tuesday in Portland. Mr. Ahlers and his wife were old time friends, the latter having visited here several times when residing in Portland. The couple will be at home to friends at their home on the Garden road, May 1.

Meals, 15c. Salem restaurant, 178 South Commercial street.

The balmy weather has resulted in much of the preliminary work of gardening being done. The ground is in ideal shape, it is declared, and an early growth of spring vegetables is assured.

Chop suey and noodles. City restaurant, 420 Ferry street, near Liberty.

Henry Schomaker, who was seized with serious illness last evening at the Masonic Temple, where he is recovering today.

Gilson's barber shop will move to Bligh building soon.

With the exception of a number of a number of claims which are disputed, the claims for sewer funds will be all ready for payment Monday evening, it is expected. Some delay has been necessary in safeguarding the city's interests, but officials believe the plan to be the only proper one. Many of the disputed claims will be fought out in the courts, but as the city has no interest, it will be put to no expense.

Salem Heights hall, March 6th, "Around the world in 80 minutes." Everybody welcome. Fine program. Big eats. Given by Ugo Igo club.

When a Salem young man has "a bottle on his hip" it does not mean that he is addicted to the use of whiskey, sometimes called rum. Several young fellows are taking the nitrate or nitrate of silver cure, and they carry the solution with them. Since the sale or use of tobacco by boys under 18 years has been passed here, the users of the weed have become desperate, and are willing to take any sort of cure for the craving.

Do your feet tire easily when you walk? Get a pair of Dr. Reed's cushion sole shoes and be young again. Jacob Vogt, 250 North Commercial street.

Lewis Johnson, a druggist of Silverton, is being given a preliminary hearing in Justice Webster's court today on the charge of perjury. The information filed against Johnson accuses him of having testified falsely at a trial in which he was made the defendant in an action brought against him by the state for bootlegging. Attorney John H. Carson is appearing for the defendant.

Try Scott's 15c meals.

The court house lawn is being cut with a scythe at present, the law mowers being entirely useless for the reason the grass was allowed to grow several inches long. Arrangements had been made with County Commissioner Beckwith to have his herd of sheep driven down from Jefferson to crop the lawn, but in the meantime Mr. Beckwith had sold his sheep. However draymen and other stock owners in the city are jumping at the chance to haul the nice grass away and many an old horse will have a good feed for a few days.

Eugene Eckerlen has started work towards putting in a new front in his building on North Commercial street, formerly occupied by Mr. Eckerlen.

For the reason there was not sufficient evidence introduced tending to show the Isaac Miller had been imposed upon by his wife, Ida Hoff Miller, as was alleged in the complaint for divorce filed in the circuit recently by A. H. Fry, as guardian of Plaintiff Miller, Judge Galloway last evening denied the pleadings, saying that the couple although widely differing as to ages, were apparently satisfied with each other and that the complaint contained no substantial reason for granting a decree of divorce. The suit involved property in the north end of the county valued at $30,000.

The Central Circle Ladies of the Christian church will hold a candy and cooked food sale Saturday, March 7, at Buren & Hamilton's.

Regular $1.50 postal photos $1.00 per dozen; evenings only. Guaranteed satisfactory. Trover-Weigel studio, opposite Bligh theatre.

"Mother," the song so much admired by everyone who heard Byron's Troubadors here last year, has been requested by a dozen people as an encore. This will be sung in addition to a very attractive and entirely new program, at the First Congregational church tomorrow night. Any one of their musical numbers is worth the price—50c.

Cut prices on hair goods. Sanitary Beauty Parlors, 228 Hubbard building.

Byron's Troubadors will appear tomorrow evening, March 6, at the First Congregational church. Tickets 50c. On sale at Patton's book store and Y. M. C. A.

Be sure and hear Byron's Troubador Concert Company, which will give an entirely new program this year at the First Congregational church, tomorrow evening, March 6, at 8 o'clock.

The Club Stable ambulance made a fast run to the Southern Pacific depot this morning in response to a call to meet a train bearing a patient for the tuberculosis hospital. While making the run, the outfit came near colliding with an Oregon Electric train on High street but by cleverly handling the lines, the driver succeeded in avoiding an accident which might have resulted seriously.

John Thomas, of Portland, was in Salem today looking over the city for a short time. Mr. Thomas is a Portland real estate dealer, and he declares that his business is more than usually quiet at the present time. Salem looks good to him, he declares, and, if business does not open up soon in the Rose City, he will look around Salem for a home and a business location.

Lewis Johnson, who was tried today in the justice court on a perjury charge, was bound over to the grand jury late this afternoon under bonds of $500. He furnished the bonds.

An alleged grandson of the late King Edward VII, and properly the heir to the throne of England, is a Spokane waiter. How he got and keeps a job is not explained.

Advocates of corn planting might quote Whittier: "But let the good old crop adorn the hills our father trod; still let us for his golden corn send up our thanks to God."
