SOCIETY

musical numbers could not be given. Professor E. A. Miller presided at the meeting, and the topic for the evening was "Co-Operation of the Home and School." Superintendent Kuntz spoke along that line, while Mrs. F. L. Purvine viewed the subject as it related to the formation of ideals of life. Professor Chapin spoke of it in connection with agriculture and Director Miles viewed the subject in its relation to discipline. Directors Barnes and Buron spoke and Mrs. Chapel, Mrs. Clark and Messrs. Frazier and R. A. Harris gave brief addresses. This afternoon a committee meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. L. Purvine when Mrs. McCov Mrs. Shanks and Mrs. Purvine will prepare a constitution to be acted upon at the next meeting which will be Wednesday evening.

Miss Elma Oiling of Albany, is the guest of Miss Pauline Pennebaker at Lausanne Hall, having come down to attend the concert of the Willamette Freshman Glee club.

Mrs. Ivan Bellinger and Miss Bess Hockett have gone to Portland for a week end visit and to attend a performance of "Blue Bird."

The Yeoman lodge gave an enjoyable tango tea Friday evening following the regular business session. The attendance was quite large.

Instead of being the greatest lot of patriots in the world, as they claim, the people of the United States are really the greatest lot of chumps. If they were not chumps they would not so calmly submit to being made fools of by the politicians.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child—the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

HAS MODERN VIEWPOINT

ENCYCLOPAEDIA RECEIVED AT THE WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY PLEASES PROFESSORS.

A recent addition to the Willamette university library, "Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics," edited by James Hastings, is a matter of great satisfaction to Dr. Henke and Dr. Patterson, as it treats many subjects belonging to their departments from the modern point of view.

This important work which in its specialities constitutes a library of itself, is a contribution from the Honorable R. A. Booth, who has made the most important addition thus far afforded the library in the present campaign for improvement of the same. It has been said that this is the first attempt on an adequate scale to produce an encyclopaedia of religion and ethics in the light of modern investigation of the origin of ancient belief and of modern philosophical thought. "It is indispensable for anyone who desires to possess such worthy sources of information concerning modern investigations and concerning the present state of opinion among expert specialists in their very numerous departments."

Another says, "The work is not only modern; it is clean up to date. There is nothing in it that suggests 'the back number.' It is absolutely reliable. One can feel safe in accepting the articles as authoritative."

Radium is like the recall; a great deal was expected of it, but when the test came it was about like other remedies, though more expensive.

The notion that a poor man is the soul of honor, while the well-to-do man is naturally disposed to roguery, is only accepted in socialism.

The people pay for the compliments they receive from politicians in taxes. We need more plain, simple common sense and less extraordinary nonsense.

The people, like fire department horses, run as fast as they can to a false alarm.

A Message To Women

Those of Middle Age Especially.

When you have found no remedy for the horrors that oppress you during change of life, when through the long hours of the day it seems as though your back would break, when your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, don't forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds of women safely through this critical period.

Read what these three women say:

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak."

"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish and I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get health from your medicine as I did."—Mrs. A. HORNUNG, 91 Stanton St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Was A Blessing To This Woman.

So. RICHMOND, VA.—"I was troubled with a bearing down pain and a female weakness and could not stand long on my feet. Of all the medicines I took nothing helped me like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now regular and am getting along fine. I cannot praise the Compound too much. It has been a blessing to me and I hope it will be to other women."—Mrs. D. TYLER, 23 West Clopton St., South Richmond, Va.

Pains in Side, Could Hardly Stand.

LODI, Wis.—"I was in a bad condition, suffering from a female trouble, and I had such pains in my sides I could hardly move. Before I had taken the whole of one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt better, and now I am well and can do a good day's work. I tell everybody what your medicine has done for me."—Mrs. JOHN THOMPSON, Lodi, Wisconsin.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ENDORSES CHAS. McNARY

CENTRAL LABOR COUNCIL OF SALEM TAKES ACTION IN CASE OF CANDIDATE.

The Central Labor Council of Salem last night passed the following resolution:

"Whereas, organized labor of Salem and, no doubt, of the entire state, is sincerely appreciative of the work of at least one member of the Oregon supreme court who seeks reelection, namely, Charles L. McNary.

"His decisions breathe the spirit of modern thought. His conclusions take notice of modern economic conditions. His reasons ignore and defy ancestral precedents, that, however cruel and senseless in their application to our changed industrial life, are yet worshipped by judges who lack the stamina, brains and conscience to take advanced ground.

"McNary says: 'It is the duty of the court to smite that rule of human action which is found to be unjust, however well it may be buttressed by precedent.'

"It was McNary who wrote the opinion which declared that the Oregon eight-hour law meant exactly what it said and said precisely what it meant. His colleagues, in a later decision, modified the application of it somewhat, but the vitality given the law by McNary's clear-cut language is the best judicial support of eight-hour legislation in the history of the state.

"He wrote a ringing decision on the application of the employers' liability law, and has set aside in a dozen decisions the inhuman rules of courts that have laid the burden of blame upon the unprotected for a hundred years.

"Therefore, be it resolved, that the Central Labor Council of Salem and vicinity hereby commends to organized labor of Oregon and to thoughtful citizens generally, the public record of Charles L. McNary, member of the supreme court of Oregon, in which honorable position he has proven himself a fair, a fearless and a modern judge.

"J. R. Neer, President.
"Chris J. Kernan, Secretary."

The Markets

The prices being paid for wool are the highest since 1897, and are still advancing. In the northwest growers are holding, and few contracts are being made. Flour prices are expected to advance in the near future as the price of wheat makes it impossible to make foreign shipments at present flour prices. There has been no change in the price of patents as bluestem quotations have not advanced in proportion to the raise in club and other varieties. Hops are steady and some contracts have been made at 15 cents. There are a few buying orders from California at 15 to 17 cents and a few sales have been made at 18 cents.

There is a keen local demand for poultry, and this in spite of liberal supplies. The egg market is unchanged with prices steady at 19 cents. The price is kept up by the demand for eggs for cold storage.
