Daddy's Bedtime

With the Man In the Moon.

Peter Saw the Man In

"FIN HERE was once," said daddy, "a little floy named Peter who had always longed to see the man in the moon. Every night when there was a full moon he would sit at his window and look at the funny. SUGGESTION IS MADE THAT jolly face of the old man until he became so sleepy he would have to go to bed.

"One night he sat watching so long that he fell sound asleep by the win-It was not long before he saw the strangest thing. The moon seemed to be growing larger and larger, and soon it was back of a tree near his win-He could see quite plainly the jolly old face of his beloved man in the moon looking joiller and fatter than ever. The old man grinned from ear to ear at Peter, and in a moment or two he spoke.

'Well, Peter, here I am. Now how do you like me?' And as he spoke he chuckled and laughed.

'Oh, I think you're wonderful!' said Peter, with wild enthusiasm and joy "'So you think I'm wonderful, do you? Ha, ba! Well, that is a joke! But there certainly isn't any one else just like me, that's true enough. So maybe I'm wouderful because I'm so queer. What about that?'

'Oh, no,' said Peter; 'you're wonderful because you're so fat and jolly because you're always laughing and seeming to have a good time. "At that the old man in the moon laughed some more and said: Well, you're a funny little chap too. All folks don't think it's such a compliment to be fat, but I do. It's the way I am, you see, and it's best to be satisfied with the way you are, isn't it? If you really like me then I'll take you off in my chariot of mist to visit the stars, and you'll call on all the bright queens of the stars, who sparkle so you can see them from down on the earth.' "So off went Peter with the man in the moon for the most gorgeous trip. "So off went Peter with the man in the moon for the most gorgeous trip.

They visited all the stars, saw the bright fairy queens who live in them and all the little elves and brownies. And then the man in the moon showed Peter to balk for a time but the crowd inwhere in the sky he stayed and how he moved every week so that all the little boys and girls in the world could see a full moon every month. And Peter could see down below all the wee little houses (they looked so small from where Peter was) and the earth, which looked very funny and small, too, from up in the moon. Peter felt a little afraid at first that be'd fall, but as he'd never heard of the man in the moon having a tumble to earth he felt comforted. Alas, all too soon the journey had to end, for Peter beard the dis-

BUSINESS MEN DECIDE TO AGAIN HOLD FAIR

Committee Named to Stage Cherry Pest and Several Enthusiastic Talks Are Made.

CHURCHES MUST HELP FAIR

R. Ryan Offers His Big New Building and it is Probable That the Fair Will Be Held In It,

With Ex-Mayor Louis Lachmund, president, J. R. Linn, secretary, and Ernest Anderson, treasurer, of a committee authorized to appoint sub-com mittees to assist in the work of preparation, it was finally decided last night at the meeting of an enthusiasti bunch of local business men to hold another Cherry festival this season. Mr. Lachmund took the lead last night, after several others bucked at being named as a member of the principa committee, and upon being nominated by Graham P. Taber and elected amid loud aplause, the ex mayor of this city said that he would serve providing Mr sisted so strenuously that he act that the popular hopman and booster at last joined Mr. Lachmund, E. Anderson was unanimously chosen treasurer of the committee and the three gentlemen will now start the ball rolling for the 1914 Cherry fair.

Mr. Linn declared that if the churchwill give as much as the saloonmen did formerly that a fair could be held. He stated that he did not wish to be understood as speaking sareastically but that it was a business proposition and one which must be given considerate attention if the people want to raise sufficeifnt funds.

Ryan Offers Proposition.

He said that he will soon have his big market building completed and the cher ry exhibits can have all the space required in his place this season. Mr. Ryan suggested that there be made a general display of Marion county preduce and that there would be no chargmade for the use or the building. Mr. Ryan's offer was given enthusiastic consideration by the business men and he was heartily thanked for the offer. It is more than likely that the Ryan building will be the seene of the next festival as it is large and roomy and festival as it is large and roomy and fully while H. L.
