NO RATE SLASHING TO SAN FRANCISCO

Hill Declares Great Northern Cannot Afford to Operate Its Big Steamships for Nothing.

ALSO IT IS WORTH SOMETHING TO SEE THIS COAST SECTION

Believes Travelers Will Be Willing to Pay for Making Trip Over the Southern Pacific Lines.

Portland, Or., April 9.—Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern, denied today that his line will slash rates when the two new steamships, connecting with the Hill road at Astoria, are placed in operation to San Francisco during the exposition.

"Neither are we going to absorb the Southern Pacific's 'arbitrary' on the Portland-San Francisco haul. It is worth something to see this northwestern country, and travelers will be willing to pay for it. It is worth something to carry people between Portland and San Francisco, and the Southern Pacific is entitled to its revenue."

Hill stated that the two steamers to run between Astoria and San Francisco will cost $5,000,000 and that "the Great Northern could not afford to operate for nothing."

FATALLY WOUNDS WOMAN AND STABS SELF AFTER QUARREL

Seattle, Wash., April 9.—As the result of what the police term a tragic misunderstanding, Mrs. Carl Tengreen, aged 22, lies unconscious in the Noble hospital here today, suffering from bullet wounds which probably will result fatally, and Victor Hammer, a cook in the Savoy hotel, is in the city hospital with a stab wound in the left breast.

Statements of Mrs. Tengreen during intervals at the hospital accuse Hammer as the man who fired five shots at her as she hurried up a narrow trail to her home at 1:30 o'clock this morning, after leaving a Hammer at the police station after the shooting. She declared that Hammer attempted suicide after the shooting. Bleeding from a stab wound in the breast he was found two hours after the shooting, on the porch of G. R. Wood, a contractor.

A blood stained knife was found on the lawn, bearing out the suicide theory.

The injured woman told the police the man sprang out at her without a word of warning, and, after shooting her, choked her as she fell to the ground.

HURLED DOGS AT HER SHE SAYS IN COMPLAINT

Mrs. Lawler Admits Shot Went Wild, However, and Her Pet Dog's Life Was Dashed Out On Wall.

BULLDOG ALSO MISSED HER BUT STRUCK HER FRIEND

Shower of Canine Missiles Descended On Her Because She Laughed at His Appearance in Bathrobe.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 9.—Mrs. Teresa Kelly Lawler, daughter of the late Mike Kelly, Illinois coal baron and friend of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, is suing William E. Lawler for divorce in the superior court here today. Lawler has filed an answer containing general denials of his wife's charges.

Among other things, Mrs. Lawler alleged that her husband hurled her pet dog at her head, but the shot was wild and the animal's life was dashed out against the wall. She claims that on another occasion he hurled a bull dog at her but missed again, the dog hitting her friend, Miss Moore.

The shower of canine missiles was thrown upon her, Mrs. Lawler alleged, because she laughed at the appearance her spouse made when lashed inside a bathrobe.

Rabat, Morocco, April 9.—Their motor becoming disabled while they were making an aeroplane flight near Zennour yesterday, Captain Herve, a French military aviator, and a lieutenant who accompanied him made a successful glide to the desert, where tribesmen captured them, tortured them frightfully and finally cut them to pieces.

The men are charged with an offense similar to that with which Maury I. Diggs and Walter Gilligan stand accused by Miss Ida Penning.

Miss Hume will come into a considerable fortune, left her by her father, on her 18th birthday. In addition, she has an income of about $100 a month.

PROPOSES GOVERNMENT ENGAGEMENT IN COASTWISE TRADE.

Washington, April 8.—A bill proposing that the government engage in coastwise trade, in a limited way, by extending the route of government vessels, now plying between New York and Colon, to the principal ports on the Pacific coast, was introduced in the house yesterday afternoon by Representative Church of California. It also provided that mails, parcel post packages, passengers and government freight be carried on this line as a subsidiary of the Panama railroad company, now controlled by the government.

A SURE REMEDY.

"What's the matter, Bill?" said one friend to another the other day, "you look terribly blue and worried!"

"I'm only worried because my wife is without help again and although she expected new girls yesterday they failed to show up," replied Bill.

"That's unfortunate," said his friend, "but it's mighty lucky you can find others so quickly through a little Want Ad. My wife had the same trouble once, then a friend told her of the Journal Want Ads and she has never allowed the servant question to bother her since."

Read and use the Journal Want Ads and forget your troubles.

The Markets

Wheat is dead so far as movement is concerned but prices are unchanged. Goat shearing is progressing rapidly and will soon be completed. Growers are not anxious to sell and 27 cents fail to tempt most of them to let go. A car load of strawberries will arrive in Portland Friday morning and will be placed on the market at $1.75 the crate. Hood River is supplying the market with asparagus from the farm of Joseph Koberg, the largest grower of this vegetable on the coast. Eggs are steady at 19 cents the cold storage demand clearing up the surplus when ever the price drops below that point.

Little is doing in hogs, and such sales as have been made show prices at around 19 cents. A pool of 5571 hogs is reported in California for the purposes of boosting prices. Butter is steady at 25 cents for prints and 22 for cubes.
