

THE WORLD

OF WOMEN

By MARGARET MASON.
(Written for the United Press.)
For there's nothing left there of Polly
To be on the right side of Polly
Means left when we go out to walk.
For then I see one eye, an eyebrow,
An ear and some face when we talk.
But when I'm in bad I am exiled
To right, 'tis a sad plight at that
For there's nothing left there of Polly
She's wearing a new bandeau hat!

New York, April 11.—It's quite appropriate that a moon-faced lady should effect a bandeau hat, for it certainly causes a total eclipse of the right hand side of her countenance.
These plats of tussel, plect and erin are set at a perilous angle on a deep ribbon trimmed bandeau which sets on the left side of the head. Their flat tops are almost universally a garden of exquisite blossoms, but one fascinating model glimpsed at the dais was of black hemp and unadorned save for the half of a tiny gold straw shepherdess basket filled with wee pink rosebuds, for-get-me-nots and violets set low on the face concealing right edge. The bandeau disclosed a huge flat bow of black moire.
The side tilt is a general favorite of the bandeau hat, but the Minichou-launched last season is still popular with its slant straight up form the back.

The tendency to turn up on the side is not confined to the head by any means this season. A novelty dancing frock of taffeta flounces on a chiffon foundation has a hoop on the right side only. This gives a bias effect, which seems to prove the wearer not quite on the level.
Striking the question of hoops and backing away from bustles, for they are now an old story, it cannot escape comment, however, that a return of the time-stained pages of a Godey's Lady's Book. With basque ruching, polonaise, dolman and shoulder cape crowding to the fore you can almost scent the musk and old lavender that should be clinging to those old-time up-to-date gowns.

Lovely woman is indeed all wrapped up in the old new cape wraps. Fittingly over the shoulders the separate cape wraps break out into ruffles and flounces to their three-quarter finish, while many of the jackets to the smartest tailored suits show quaint little shoulder capes instead of collars. In fact the erstwhile regulation tailored coat collar is absolutely taboo. Aside from capes the Capuchin collar and the Japanese are the most popular.

The few hemless skirts of last winter have now become legion and a hem on a skirt nowadays practically stamps it as passe. Either the selvage of the goods is used in lieu of a hem or else the skirt is faced up with a lining of self matching chiffon. Even handkerchiefs have taken to turning up noses at hems, at least hemstitched ones, and the smallest ones are now rolled and cross stitched in pastel hues. Where they are hemmed it is done with a running stitch of colored thread. No matter how its edge is finished the crucial point about the 1914 hankey is that it must have tint to have tone. Either the soft square of linen itself must be colored, or it must boast a hem, stitching or initials of tint.

Whether the new style coiffure and the exposed ear are an outcome of the bandeau hat or the bandeau hat is an outcome of the hair dressing is a question, but both seem responsible for the sickle spit curl in front of each ear, that seductive beauty mark filched from the daughters of Andalusia.

Like a feminized lid burn these fascinating flat curls, gummed well for on each cheek, are infinitely more charming than the gobs of hair, like ear muffs, that hide the ears this winter and were pasted over almost half the cheek. With a beauty spot at the corner of your left eye and sickle lock in front of each ear how can you possibly fail to look piquant? You simply can't!

A colloquial fashion that deserves universal adoption is the fad of San Francisco woman for wearing a tiny conventional bouquet in a black paper frill in place of an artificial corsage. With a rosebud as centre and alternating rows of for-get-me-nots and violets set off with its quaint lace paper edge the effect is fragrantly artistic and reminiscent of those olden golden days when minuets and romance reigned in lieu of tangos and organies.

CHILDREN'S CARNIVAL COMING EVENT

(Continued from page 3.)

for the men. The Emigrants and Puritans will appear in a most appropriate way. Promptly at 2 o'clock the pupils put aside books and assembled in one of the hall, where they sang heartily, "Oregon, My Oregon," and "America." While a shower passed, Principal Miller spoke briefly of the change in view and interest that a few years brings and of the pride all would have in years to come for the work of this afternoon. Repairing to the grounds eight fine elms were planted in the parking along the west side of the school block. Enthusiasm for and interest in the occasion among pupils were unbounded and showed their appreciation of progress and improvement.

Miss Effie Needham was the guest of honor at a pretty "shower" given Monday evening by Miss Matilda Eckstein and Miss Lucie Keaton. About thirty girls were asked. Dainty refreshments were served and Miss Needham was the recipient of many beautiful gifts as mementoes of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. McCarthy left this morning for their home at Independence.
Miss Avis Ogden a student at Willamette university is spending the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Ogden of Portland.

The Thought and Work club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Purvine with seventeen members and several additional guests present. An Arbor Day program was presented, Mrs. Sowa Burton speaking of the importance of observing the day and the beneficial results to future generations. A general discussion on forest planting was one of the instructive features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fargo gave a reading "When the Green Gets Back in the Trees" by the Hoosier poet, Riley, which was greatly enjoyed, and Mrs. Purvine pleased with a selection, "What Do We Plant When We Plant a Tree?" Mrs. Fleming gave an instructive talk on the city charter and the program closed with a beautiful vocal solo by Mrs. Theodore Roth. The rooms were beautifully decorated with white lilacs and apple blossoms while a beautiful cluster of red anemones adorned the dining room table. The next meeting will be held, April 23 at the home of Mrs. Emma Minton, on North Broadway.

William Wallace Graham will present Miss Mary Schultz in a violin recital Monday evening at eight o'clock at the First Baptist church. Miss Carol Sullivan will be the accompanist and those having heard Miss Schultz and Miss Sullivan and who know of the excellent work of Professor Graham are anxiously anticipating the event. The following program will be presented:
I. Sonata in G Major ..... Tartini
Andante.
Presto non troppo ..... Largo
Allegro Commodo.
II. Raverio ..... Vieuxtemps
Air Savoyard.
III. Liebes Lied (Love's Sorrow) ..... Kreisler
Berceuse ..... Godard
IV. Legende ..... Wieniawski
V. Scherzo Tarantelle ..... Wieniawski

Last evening the Woodman membership contest closed with a banquet, Silver Bell Circle being guests. There were over two hundred present who were entertained by music and impromptu speeches. Next Friday evening the Silverton Camp of Woodmen and Circle will be entertained by the best hotel in this city.

Mr. Evans is to personally manage the business, and he goes to work with the ambition to please the most fastidious. If you like the home cooking attention you receive at the New England restaurant tell your friends. Any thing does not exactly suit tell management and they will consider a favor to fix it right.

You can build up an industry in Salem by using Eppley's "Perfection" brand of baking powder. Ask your grocer for it.

A NICE NEW RESTAURANT IN A NICE LOCATION

J. W. Evans and wife, who last purchased the New England restaurant have moved it into the former box of trade building, located just across the street from D. A. White and So. feel store on west State street. The splendid large room is being completely remodeled. There will be a first table for men and special tables arranged for the women.

Their specialty is to be home cooking. An experienced woman cook is in charge of the culinary department and is planning to have regular chick dinners on Wednesday and Saturday each week, the price to be 25 cent. Orders of roast pork, beef and veal will be obtained at any time, together with a liberal supply of side dishes. The orders will be in order at any time of the day, with Chili and clam chowder as specialties.

Mr. Evans is to personally manage the business, and he goes to work with the ambition to please the most fastidious. If you like the home cooking attention you receive at the New England restaurant tell your friends. Any thing does not exactly suit tell management and they will consider a favor to fix it right.

You can build up an industry in Salem by using Eppley's "Perfection" brand of baking powder. Ask your grocer for it.

Dresses

Every day adds to our already large stock of women's and misses' dresses. And, of course, you need a new dress for that spring wardrobe. Pannier and tunic effects predominate, Silk, Poplins, Printed Poplins, Crepe de Chine, Wool Crepe, etc., are the materials. A wide range of predominating colors for your approval.

Coats

Women's and misses' coats are to be found here in great profusion in all the late spring styles, materials and colors. You are sure to see just what you have been wanting by looking through our racks, and you will be surprised at the moderate prices.

Novelty Suits

We have taken all the novelty suits in our stock and put them on our racks. The materials are Silk Poplin, Wool Crepe, Serge and novelty materials in blues, tans, greys, lavender, etc.
Regular $35.00 to $37.50. Special $24.50.

Dresses

One rack of dresses comprising Foulards, Silk Poplin, Serge, Lace and Cotton. All good styles, well finished throughout and dresses that will not last long at the price.
Special $9.75.

GLOVES.

Women's and misses' kid gloves in black, white, tan and colors; good range of sizes.
Special 89c

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

A clean-up of odds and ends in combination suits in dainty material, well trimmed, with good quality lace.
Special $1.00.

WAISTS.

Dainty, fresh blouses in voile and lawn materials, high and low neck. All sizes.
Special $1.98.

UMBRELLAS.

We don't want to carry any umbrellas over, so here's your chance; good, serviceable ones that will wear.
Regular $1.48. Special 98c

BEADS.

Long strand jet and matt black beads with good fastener.
Special 39c

CHILDREN'S HOSE.

Children's heavy fast black cotton hose in full range of sizes.
Special 2 pair for 25c

MIDDIES

Just received another shipment of those popular Jack Tar Middies, linen and galatea.
Prices $1.25, $1.50, $1.75

BEADS.

Our stock of the popular beads is most complete. Any kind you may want is here.
50c, 65c, 75c, $1.00.

Children's Coats All at Reduced Prices

Raphael Tuck & Sons

$5000.00 Painting Book Contest

The painting books eligible for this contest are on sale here, 25c, 50c. See us for particulars.

QUALITY
MERCHANDISE

U.G. SHIPLEY CO.

LIBERTY STREET

POPULAR
PRICES

Talk It Over With Geo. C. Will

When you are in doubt about what make or style or finish of piano you should buy.

When you are pondering over which organ will give you the most satisfaction.

When you are perplexed by the many kinds and improvements offered you in sewing machines.

When you are undecided which sort of talking machine to buy.

When you are puzzled by these or other questions that pertain to them.

Ask Geo. C. Will

For over 35 years he has made a study of these things and has watched the progress of every important invention that has brought about their present perfection.

For more than a quarter of a century he has been steadily and successfully engaged in the sale of musical instruments and sewing machines in Salem and the central Willamette valley.

He has both experience and reliability. He is always alert for everything in his line of business that is new and improved. He always buys the best there is in the market.

Therefore, when in doubt, ask

Geo. C. Will

Oregon's oldest and Most Successful Dealer in Musical Instruments and Sewing Machines.

432 State Street. Salem, Oregon.

Grant school observed Arbor Day yesterday afternoon in a most appropriate way. Promptly at 2 o'clock the pupils put aside books and assembled in one of the hall, where they sang heartily, "Oregon, My Oregon," and "America." While a shower passed, Principal Miller spoke briefly of the change in view and interest that a few years brings and of the pride all would have in years to come for the work of this afternoon. Repairing to the grounds eight fine elms were planted in the parking along the west side of the school block. Enthusiasm for and interest in the occasion among pupils were unbounded and showed their appreciation of progress and improvement.

Miss Effie Needham was the guest of honor at a pretty "shower" given Monday evening by Miss Matilda Eckstein and Miss Lucie Keaton. About thirty girls were asked. Dainty refreshments were served and Miss Needham was the recipient of many beautiful gifts as mementoes of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. McCarthy left this morning for their home at Independence.

Miss Avis Ogden a student at Willamette university is spending the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Ogden of Portland.

The Thought and Work club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Purvine with seventeen members and several additional guests present. An Arbor Day program was presented, Mrs. Sowa Burton speaking of the importance of observing the day and the beneficial results to future generations. A general discussion on forest planting was one of the instructive features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fargo gave a reading "When the Green Gets Back in the Trees" by the Hoosier poet, Riley, which was greatly enjoyed, and Mrs. Purvine pleased with a selection, "What Do We Plant When We Plant a Tree?" Mrs. Fleming gave an instructive talk on the city charter and the program closed with a beautiful vocal solo by Mrs. Theodore Roth. The rooms were beautifully decorated with white lilacs and apple blossoms while a beautiful cluster of red anemones adorned the dining room table. The next meeting will be held, April 23 at the home of Mrs. Emma Minton, on North Broadway.

William Wallace Graham will present Miss Mary Schultz in a violin recital Monday evening at eight o'clock at the First Baptist church. Miss Carol Sullivan will be the accompanist and those having heard Miss Schultz and Miss Sullivan and who know of the excellent work of Professor Graham are anxiously anticipating the event. The following program will be presented:

I. Sonata in G Major ..... Tartini
Andante.
Presto non troppo ..... Largo
Allegro Commodo.
II. Raverio ..... Vieuxtemps
Air Savoyard.
III. Liebes Lied (Love's Sorrow) ..... Kreisler
Berceuse ..... Godard
IV. Legende ..... Wieniawski
V. Scherzo Tarantelle ..... Wieniawski

Last evening the Woodman membership contest closed with a banquet, Silver Bell Circle being guests. There were over two hundred present who were entertained by music and impromptu speeches. Next Friday evening the Silverton Camp of Woodmen and Circle will be entertained by the best hotel in this city.

Mr. Evans is to personally manage the business, and he goes to work with the ambition to please the most fastidious. If you like the home cooking attention you receive at the New England restaurant tell your friends. Any thing does not exactly suit tell management and they will consider a favor to fix it right.

You can build up an industry in Salem by using Eppley's "Perfection" brand of baking powder. Ask your grocer for it.

Whether the new style coiffure and the exposed ear are an outcome of the bandeau hat or the bandeau hat is an outcome of the hair dressing is a question, but both seem responsible for the sickle spit curl in front of each ear, that seductive beauty mark filched from the daughters of Andalusia.

Like a feminized lid burn these fascinating flat curls, gummed well for on each cheek, are infinitely more charming than the gobs of hair, like ear muffs, that hide the ears this winter and were pasted over almost half the cheek. With a beauty spot at the corner of your left eye and sickle lock in front of each ear how can you possibly fail to look piquant? You simply can't!

A colloquial fashion that deserves universal adoption is the fad of San Francisco woman for wearing a tiny conventional bouquet in a black paper frill in place of an artificial corsage. With a rosebud as centre and alternating rows of for-get-me-nots and violets set off with its quaint lace paper edge the effect is fragrantly artistic and reminiscent of those olden golden days when minuets and romance reigned in lieu of tangos and organies.

CHILDREN'S CARNIVAL COMING EVENT
(Continued from page 3.)

for the men. The Emigrants and Puritans will appear in a most appropriate way. Promptly at 2 o'clock the pupils put aside books and assembled in one of the hall, where they sang heartily, "Oregon, My Oregon," and "America." While a shower passed, Principal Miller spoke briefly of the change in view and interest that a few years brings and of the pride all would have in years to come for the work of this afternoon. Repairing to the grounds eight fine elms were planted in the parking along the west side of the school block. Enthusiasm for and interest in the occasion among pupils were unbounded and showed their appreciation of progress and improvement.

Miss Effie Needham was the guest of honor at a pretty "shower" given Monday evening by Miss Matilda Eckstein and Miss Lucie Keaton. About thirty girls were asked. Dainty refreshments were served and Miss Needham was the recipient of many beautiful gifts as mementoes of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. McCarthy left this morning for their home at Independence.

Miss Avis Ogden a student at Willamette university is spending the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Ogden of Portland.

The Thought and Work club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Purvine with seventeen members and several additional guests present. An Arbor Day program was presented, Mrs. Sowa Burton speaking of the importance of observing the day and the beneficial results to future generations. A general discussion on forest planting was one of the instructive features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fargo gave a reading "When the Green Gets Back in the Trees" by the Hoosier poet, Riley, which was greatly enjoyed, and Mrs. Purvine pleased with a selection, "What Do We Plant When We Plant a Tree?" Mrs. Fleming gave an instructive talk on the city charter and the program closed with a beautiful vocal solo by Mrs. Theodore Roth. The rooms were beautifully decorated with white lilacs and apple blossoms while a beautiful cluster of red anemones adorned the dining room table. The next meeting will be held, April 23 at the home of Mrs. Emma Minton, on North Broadway.

William Wallace Graham will present Miss Mary Schultz in a violin recital Monday evening at eight o'clock at the First Baptist church. Miss Carol Sullivan will be the accompanist and those having heard Miss Schultz and Miss Sullivan and who know of the excellent work of Professor Graham are anxiously anticipating the event. The following program will be presented:

I. Sonata in G Major ..... Tartini
Andante.
Presto non troppo ..... Largo
Allegro Commodo.
II. Raverio ..... Vieuxtemps
Air Savoyard.
III. Liebes Lied (Love's Sorrow) ..... Kreisler
Berceuse ..... Godard
IV. Legende ..... Wieniawski
V. Scherzo Tarantelle ..... Wieniawski

Last evening the Woodman membership contest closed with a banquet, Silver Bell Circle being guests. There were over two hundred present who were entertained by music and impromptu speeches. Next Friday evening the Silverton Camp of Woodmen and Circle will be entertained by the best hotel in this city.

Mr. Evans is to personally manage the business, and he goes to work with the ambition to please the most fastidious. If you like the home cooking attention you receive at the New England restaurant tell your friends. Any thing does not exactly suit tell management and they will consider a favor to fix it right.

You can build up an industry in Salem by using Eppley's "Perfection" brand of baking powder. Ask your grocer for it.

Whether the new style coiffure and the exposed ear are an outcome of the bandeau hat or the bandeau hat is an outcome of the hair dressing is a question, but both seem responsible for the sickle spit curl in front of each ear, that seductive beauty mark filched from the daughters of Andalusia.

Like a feminized lid burn these fascinating flat curls, gummed well for on each cheek, are infinitely more charming than the gobs of hair, like ear muffs, that hide the ears this winter and were pasted over almost half the cheek. With a beauty spot at the corner of your left eye and sickle lock in front of each ear how can you possibly fail to look piquant? You simply can't!

A colloquial fashion that deserves universal adoption is the fad of San Francisco woman for wearing a tiny conventional bouquet in a black paper frill in place of an artificial corsage. With a rosebud as centre and alternating rows of for-get-me-nots and violets

Beautiful dance by 10 little girls in costumes of pink gauze with wreaths of roses, who dance attendance upon their Queen Margaret White, this dance is completed by unfolding the national colors.

Dorelle Anderson, Helen Ehmer, Lena Baumgartner, Ruth Wechter, Frances Dek, Cleta Perry, Grace Babeck, Mabel Updegraph, Constance Yantis.

Emigrants.
Late arrivals from the old country who are enjoying the Carnival:
Germans—George Lienkaemper, Helen Arpke.
Japanese—Elsie Hop Lee, Ella Hop Lee.
Gypsies—Charles Dillard, Glen Babcock, Esther Miller.
Italians—Frederick Arpke, Lois Nye, Ruth Page.
Virginia Reel.
Virginia belles and their beaux who have been invited to assist in the program:
Eva Cary, Carson Hunt, Helen Schindler, Frank Dekebach, Gussie South, Paul Staley, Thelma Young, Earl Schaefer, Mabel Hunter, Wayne Allen, Frances Ward, Emmett Summerville, Florence Cartwright, Milton Steiner, Mary Albert, Malcolm Smith.
Mrs. Carleton Smith, one of Salem's favorites will sing.
Latest Paris fashion models who have been imported as a special feature:
Constance Yantis, Cleta Perry, Majorie Harbert, Elsie Boyington, Ruth Kennedy, Eula Aufrance.
The sailor's hornpipe a fancy dance by two charming little sailors:
Alice McClellan, Margaret A. White.
Song by a famous Prima Donna.
Puritans who represent in song our ancestors who came over in the "May Flower":
Hazel McGilchrist, Letha Driscoll, Edith Bynon, Alta Johnson, Evelyn Gibbs, Gladys Harbert, Gertrude Tucker, Helen Rose, Isabelle George, Helen Howell, Mary Albert.
The stately minnet danced by 16 beautiful girls representing elegant colonial costumes, the men and maids of long ago.
Helen Currie, Lucile Cameron, Letha Wilson, Margaret White, Winifred Goss, Maxine Baren, Genevieve Howell, Florence Cartwright, Eva Miles, Margaret McMahon, Lois Smith, Carolyn East, Olive McClellan, Helen Carey, Hilda Tillinghast, Margaret Livesley.

Especially beautiful will be the services at St. Joseph's Catholic church,