FATE OF CARROLL

aroused suspicion. One of the men, the taller of the two, went down an alley. Klinger, according to the declaration of the district attorney, said that the marshal followed, led by his dog, until the rear of the hotel was reached, when the shooting began.

Zoller's Dying Statement.

The district attorney argued that the testimony of Carroll was not to be believed when he said he had no weapon with which to do the shooting. He said that Carroll's aim is to tell a story that would vindicate himself. In this, the attorney agreed that he was justified in distorting the facts if by so doing he could save his neck from the gallows.

He said that the dying declaration of Zoller to the effect that both men were shooting is to be believed as Zoller was about to die. From the testimony of the witnesses to the effect that the shots came in rapid succession, he said was evidence enough that both men fired. In regard to the statement of Carroll that he commanded Zoller to "Throw up your hands" in order to stop the trouble, the district attorney wanted to know why Carroll did not go to his partner and ask him to stop the shooting, as it was he who was causing the trouble. Ringo also showed that Zoller cried, "Don't shoot! Don't shoot!" and that he returned the fire only after being shot at.

In closing the district attorney declared the crime was conceived and carried out in malice. He says the story of Carroll about being wounded in Portland was no good and not plausible. He charged that Carroll was trying to lay all the blame on his partner, Hawley in order to save his own neck.

People Were Excited.
Attorney Smith in his argument on behalf of the defendant, declared that the prosecution had woefully failed to bring out any conclusive evidence showing Carroll guilty of the murder. He said he believed the defendant was telling the truth just as much as Zoller was when about to die.

Doubt as to the credibility of the witnesses was brought forward by Attorney Smith on account of the fact that at the time of shooting everyone in Gervais was excited and could not tell exactly what happened. He averred that the testimony of Ernest Klinger was not to be believed because when the shooting began he admitted that he crawled in a ditch and remained there until everything was quiet. Credence was not to be given the testimony of the girls and women, either, he argued, because they were excited, too. In fact, Attorney Smith declared, no one could tell just what took place and who was responsible.

Although the selection of jurymen began yesterday morning it was not until 2:30 in the afternoon that the panel was completed.

Two completed nominating petitions were filed with the Marion county clerk this morning. Catherine Pooler, one of the two women seeking county offices, filed her petition for county treasurer. She is a demure little woman unaccustomed to the publicity attendant upon a political campaign, and is said to be well qualified to hold the position to which she aspires. She says on her petition that she will conduct the office with efficiency and economy if nominated and elected. She has 196 signers. H. D. Mars, republican, filed his petition for justice of the peace for the Gervais district.

Election of officers of the Marion Lawrence Bible class of the First Methodist Episcopal Sunday school was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott on Leslie street in Englewood. The class numbers 80 members and a majority were present. The officers elected are: President, E. H. Anderson; vice-president, E. J. Swafford; Episcopal secretary, George Labaie; recording secretary, Mrs. Labaie; teacher, Mrs. Emma Cornelius, and assistant teacher, W. L. Cummings. Arrangements are being made by the class for a banquet to be held some time in May.

Constable Cooper of the Salem district, has not made an arrest this month so far. He declares that business in his department is unusually quiet, while Justice of the Peace Webster reports litigation to be a little less than nothing.

TOURIST CAR DERAILED.
La Grande, Or., April 15.—A diner and tourist car of O. W. R. & N. train No. 17 were derailed 12 miles east of here today, when a drawbar of the tourist broke. No one was injured. The derailment occurred on the edge of a deep canyon and had any cars toppled over loss of life would have resulted.

If beggars were choosers, police magistrates would be men of very few words and short sentences.

Y.W.C.A. MAY EXPAND

LOCAL ORGANIZATION MAY AFFILIATE WITH NATIONAL ASSOCIATION IN NEAR FUTURE.

Whether or not the Salem city Y. W. C. A. will affiliate with the national organization is one of the important questions that will be discussed at the meeting Thursday afternoon of the women who are completing the organization of an association here. The meeting will be held in the Carnegie library from noon until 9 o'clock p. m.

At that time the nominating committee, which consists of Mrs. H. D. Kimball, Mrs. P. A. Elliott, Mrs. C. A. Park, Miss Angie McCulloch, will submit a list of candidates for the president of the newly-organized association. Temporary committees will also make their reports. Ballots for the election will be at the library from 12 noon until 9 p. m., except that during the noon hour they may be found at the woman's rest room on Liberty street. The committee having charge of the payment of dues and the signing of the constitution will also be ready for work.

Up to the present time there has been no regularly organized Y. W. C. A. for Salem. Willamette University girls have had an association for years, but it has been kept distinct from city work. Now, however, an effort is being made to interest the women in a better and closer organization for the benefit of the homeless girls, traveling women, and those who may be in need of help.

The following is a list of the candidates nominated for president: Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mrs. C. A. Parks, Mrs. G. W. Pewtherer, Mrs. John H. Lewis, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Miss Nina McNary, Miss Angie McCulloch, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Miss Ellen Thielson, Mrs. Frank Spear, Mrs. Oda Chapman, Mrs. John H. Albert, Miss Mattie Beatty, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Wm. E. Kirk.

According to the records of the weather and rainfall kept at the Oregon City Transportation company's dock here, .70 of an inch of rain fell in this vicinity last night. This is the heaviest precipitation recorded here for some time and indications are that there will be considerably more wetness before April will come to an end. However, the rain is not harming the fruit or berry crop, is making garden truck fairly jump out of the ground and the wheat and oats crops are getting along nicely. Spring plowing is held up to a small extent on the bottom land farms on account of the ground being too wet, but the farmers are optimistic about conditions and say that there is still plenty of time to get in good work and plenty of it.

BOGUS MINISTER HELD

G. A. BARKEE, WHO CLAIMS TO REPRESENT MANY CHURCHES, HELD ON CRIMINAL CHARGE.

Oakland, Cal., April 15.—G. A. Barkee, who represented himself as an Episcopal minister, is held in the city prison here pending an investigation into his alleged criminal activities and the service upon him of a felony warrant held by the San Francisco police department. Barkee was arrested last night following a hand to hand struggle in front of the city hall with the Rev. Macon, rector of Trinity church.

A search of his room revealed the presence of ministerial calling cards representing him to be the rector of various churches in Victoria, B. C., and Tacoma, and Oakland; a broadcloth suit of clothes with black diekey and collar buttoning at the back; a bible, a large number of pipes and a large amount of tobacco and some poetry of an unprintable nature.

The cards, in bunch of 50 each, bore the following names: Rev. G. A. Wright, curate, St. Barnabas church, Victoria, B. C.; Rev. G. A. Barker, rector Trinity church, Tacoma, Wash., and Rev. G. A. Wilson, rector St. John's church, Oakland.

MILITIA FIRES VOLLEY TO STOP RACES

Tulsa, Okla., April 15.—Two companies of state militia, commanded by Adjutant General Canton fired a volley over the tracks here this afternoon when the race authorities here tried to go on with their races despite the order of the governor to cease.

The soldiers waited until the horses came down the stretch in the first race before firing. The jockeys immediately turned their horses off the track and racing ended for the day. No one was injured.

JUDGE SAYS PRISON SYSTEM IS ALL WRONG

Pasadena, Cal., April 15.—Organizations favoring the abolition of capital punishment and the reform of prison methods were encouraged today by the somewhat sensational utterances of Judge Frank E. Oster of San Bernardino. Judge Oster was the principal speaker at a banquet attended by 300 members of the Pasadena board of trade.

As the oldest superior court judge in southern California in point of service, he summed up the results of his 15 years experience, by asserting that the present prison system is a flat failure and that capital punishment is a survival of barbarism.

"If I could take the entire electorate of California through our two state prisons and have an election the next day these prisons would be abolished unanimously," declared Judge Oster.
