Needham became the bride of Paul Louis Schmidt. The service was read by Rev. P. S. Knight, the ceremony taking place at the R. B. Houston residence, in the presence of 20 close friends and guests. The bride was attractively gowned in her going-away dress of old rose, and was attended by Miss Jessic Keeton, while the groom's attendant was Leo Page. The living rooms were beautifully decorated with apple blossoms while in the dining room armory. These are annual affairs and rooms were beautifully decorated with apple blossoms while in the dining room Bride's roses were used effectively upon the table, which was lighted by pink shaded candles.
