HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

The art class under Ethel Merriam are now making posters for the "Cantelbury Pilgrim," the "Willamette Junior play which is to be given at the opera house on May 1st.

These posters are the original work of the pupils and the one making the most original and best one will be given a ticket to the show.

C. V. Dement, assistant professor of journalism at the U. of O. was unable to speak before the students interested in journalism, yesterday afternoon.

The Clarion staff of the Salem High School had their pictures taken at Bullocks' studio yesterday afternoon after school. Those in the pictures were Heuratti Wolfer, Ralph Mercer, Helen Wood, Carmine Swanson, Otto Paubus, Victor Bradison, Helen Deckebach, Nannette Bloom, Marion Gould.

The teachers' training class of the Salem High School gave a surprise party on Mrs. Hand at her home Friday evening. Everything had been carefully planned and a delightful evening was spent in playing games and telling stories. Among those present were Catherine Fowles, Jennie McVicker, Alma Baker, Dora Gray, Beatrice Crawford, May Baller, Honore Wolf, Lita Waters, Vesta Gard ner, Carolyn Hrubets, Katie Mizo, Mary Clark, Elizabeth Downey, Theodosia Teal, Anna Miles, Laura Gainjobst, Leda Henderson, Elberta Roberts, Lula Tompkins and Nellie King.

P. E. & R. FILES ANSWER.

In the answer of the Portland, Eugene and Eastern railway company to the complaint filed in the circuit court for Marion county by George McGilchrist, the defendant company alleges that the plaintiff is to blame for his injury because he did not wait for the train to stop before alighting. The answer states that the plaintiff was aware the train was in motion and that it was dangerous to attempt to alight and that the responsibility for the accident is on himself.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel and Pills act on Liver and Bowels like pepper acts in Nostrils—Danger!

Get a 10-cent box now.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty. Age is not a time for harsh physics.

Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

TILLMAN GETS DECISION OVER AD WOLGAST

Hudson, Wis., April 24.—Johnny Tillman of Minneapolis holds a shade decision here today over Ad Wolgast as a result of their ten round contest last night. Five rounds were credited to Tillman and the others were even. The fighting was fast and furious from the start. After the fourth round Wolgast tried for a knockout but was unable to reach a vulnerable spot. Tillman peppered the former lightweight champion's head with lefts and rights and rushed him to the ropes several times.

COFFROTH WANTS MATCH.

San Francisco, April 24.—Promoter James W. Coffroth will leave here tomorrow night for Los Angeles to take in the Welsh-Cross fight. If Welsh wins, Coffroth will get his signature to a contract for a match in San Francisco with Harlem Tommy Murphy.

MORSON NOW BEFORE DESERT LAND BOARD

Says Suggestion Makes Him Want $350,000 and That He Can Get It.

GOVERNOR HAS NO DOUBT REGARDING HIS ABILITY

Irrigation Promoter Says His Credit Is Better Than the State of Oregon.

The desert land board met at 10:30 this morning to take up the matter of extending the time in which the somewhat notorious Morson land reclamation project might be finished. Mr. Morson was present, and the meeting was rather informal, as he got the floor and held it most of the time until the noon recess. Mr. Morson has good teeth apparently, as well as a flow of language far superior to that of the water on his irrigating project. The result was that the rag was thoroughly masticated and the situation minutely described.

It transpired that the notification to Mr. Morson was rather indefinite, and he did not bring the data the board expected, hence the meeting in that line was somewhat of a failure. Mr. Morson talked to the board as though he considered its members a lot of children and openly defied the whole bunch.

Governor Did Not Doubt It.

Among other things he said he "had seen in the newspapers that the governor had suggested that it was possible for him under present arrangements to get away with $350,000."

"Now when I suggest candy to my kid he always wants candy," he said, "and as the governor suggested that I can get away with $350,000 makes me want to do it, and I think I am big enough to do it."

"Understand," broke in the governor, "that I have never doubted for a minute nor do I doubt now that you will."

Attorney General Crawford asked—would he could get the money and continue and complete his contract, and was answered that "my credit is better than that of the state at the present time." Which it is freely admitted is "some credit."

Nearly Ready for Patent.

Morson explained rather fully the details of the two sections, one on the east and the other on the west side of the Deschutes, and how he had offered those on the east side the privilege of taking lands on the west side in lieu thereof if they cared to do so, but that now he had taken advantage of the offer, saying they were in a hurry, as they did not expect to commence operations until the railroad was completed. He said on the west the company's lands and interests were worth a quarter of a million dollars.

The engineer's estimates show that about $7,000 would put the west side lands up for patent, would complete the main canals and put water on the highest part of each 20 acres in the whole tract.

Did Not Care a Dam.

Morson claimed he had been held up by the board, the secretary, the retainer of the interior, or all combined, and that the time lost was about three years and three months. He said the board was mistaken if it thought he was asking it for an extension of time, for he was not. He insisted his contract provided for that and he did not care a dam, irrigation or any other kind, what the board did.

He was asking the secretary of the interior not to extend time, but to restore the three years and more of which he had been robbed. In conclusion, and between chews on the dilapidated linen, Morson hauled out the contract he had with the board. From this he read that "in case the work was not begun within the stipulated time or if for any reason it was not completed within the agreed time then the board must serve notice on him to proceed with the work, and if he did not do so within sixty days it could begin proceedings to foreclose on him."

Will Proceed to Proceed.

Besides the contract read that the same should be under the 1901 statute, and not under the later one which the board evidently thought governed it.

"The board has not served notice on me," said the incessant vocabulary, "and I wish it would." I am going ahead with the work for the simple reason it is none of the board's business, was the substance of the further remarks. Then he added, with a grin, "If I am notified to proceed I will proceed, and if I am not notified to proceed I will proceed anyway. In other words, I will proceed regardless of all proceedings." The soon hour having arrived the board proceeded to the entire districts, where Morson was foretold and trouble and irrigating ditches and questions did not enter into the matter later, but so far as the La Pine irrigation project is concerned the settlers can expect Mr. Morson to do some exceedingly rapid proceeding in the near future; that is if Morson said what he meant and meant what he said. Anyway he seems to have the whip hand so far the board is concerned for this one inning. How the game will come out remains to be seen after the board gets to bat again.

NAMES OF OFFICERS ARE RECOMMENDED

COLONEL C. U. GANTENBEIN SUGGESTS SPANISH WAR VETERANS FOR SERVICE.

Portland, Or., April 24.—Colonel C. U. Gantenbein has announced today that he will recommend to President Wilson the appointment of the following men to field officers in the regiment he proposes to raise, if more troops are needed than the regular army and national guard can furnish.

William E. Finzer, lieutenant-colonel; C. E. McDowell, major first battalion; Gordon Verries, major second battalion; Clemond McLaughlin, major third battalion. Colonel Gantenbein will be commanding officer.

Most are Spanish war veterans.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try this! Makes hair thick, glossy, fluffy, beautiful—No more itching scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderrine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderrine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderrine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance, an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderrine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderrine.

EFFORTS BEING MADE

to worry about him, as he already had 80 men, and that on short notice he could pull out with the requisite 108. M company reported 70 men this morning. L company, of Dallas, has 78; while K, of Corvallis, reported 66.

Applications from former members of M company, who are desirous of having a place in the Salem organization, are being received daily by Captain Gehlar. Letters came from Corporal Arthur Hoffmann, of Portland, and Privates Clarence Forbes, of Cottage Grove, and Raymond Louisgout, of Portland.

Patrol work, under the direction of First Lieutenant Roy Neer, formed the work of M company last night. It was the object of the three patrols that went out to scour the country east of the armory and send back messages giving information concerning the whereabouts of possible enemy. After the patrols had traveled by devious ways out to Twelfth street, and had sent back several messages to Captain Gehlar, they met and talked over the situations that developed along the march, and then were given a practical talk by the lieutenant in charge.

Swearing in recruits and measuring the members of the company for marching shoes made the armory a busy scene last night. Crowds of visitors thronged the hall. The following are men who signed up last night: Averil Branson, William Zosel, Curtis Zeitzer, Curtis Feltner, Elmer Blunk, Willard Kendall and Fred Meyers.

Men Cannot Afford to Be Poorly Dressed

Good appearance is a strong factor in business success. Good clothes are essential to good appearance.

But good clothing need not mean extravagance. The making of attire for men is now standardized almost to an exact science.

Prices are often quite moderate and seldom unduly high.

Glance through the advertising in The Journal from day to day and notice the character of the clothing the stores are offering.

Not much trouble to dress well if men are alert to their opportunities.

The advertising in this newspaper is the guide-post to Opportunity Street.

Baker, April 24.—H. A. Stewart, deposed mayor of Copperfield whose saloon was closed by state militiamen under orders of Governor West, is acquitted today of the charge of selling liquor to minors. The charges grew out of the governor's campaign to close up Copperfield. The jury deliberated five minutes.

DOES YOUR STOMACH CONTAIN A GLASSFUL OF ACID?

96 Out of 100 Dyspeptics Have Dangerous Acid in Their Stomachs Which Must Be Neutralized if Good Health is to Be Maintained.

If you held a teaspoonful of hydrochloric acid in your mouth for only a second you would not be surprised at its burning and inflaming all the tissues; yet an eminent specialist states that 96 out of 100 dyspeptics go about with a glassful or more of this powerful acid in their stomachs, and then wonder what causes the burning and itching and why they suffer the discomfort after meals. To put wholesome food into an acid stomach only increases the discomfort because the acid mixes with the fresh food and turns it sour, making a lot more acid. The acid condition causes food fermentation, which irritates, distends and inflames the tender stomach lining, and it is not surprising that specialists say acid stomachs are dangerous. This decidedly dangerous and uncomfortable condition can be overcome either by following a strict diet or, and this is far easier and more quickly effective, by taking a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia in a quarter glassful of water after meals to neutralize the acidity. The latter course is much more satisfactory because it corrects the acidity and banishes discomfort without any need for diet.
