doom to the fiercest corn that ever come itself to a toe. It's good-by Johnny. You apply 'GETS-IT' in 'two seconds—no fusing with plasters that don't stay put, with salves that make corns 'pull' and make the toe beefy and raw, with knives, scissors, razors and diggers that make corns grow faster and that may cause blood poisoning from corn-cutting and corn-bleeding. 'GETS-IT' shrivels up corns they come right off. That's the new principle. It's just common sense. No more corn-pains. 'GETS-IT' is safe, and never hurts the flesh. Get rid of corns and callouses.

'GETS-IT' is sold at 25c a bottle by all druggists, or sent direct if you wish, from E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

These little toes had 'GETS-IT' These little toes had none.

LONG SEARCH ENDS IN DISAPPOINTMENT

SON REFUSES TO ACCOMPANY MOTHER WHO SOUGHT HIM FOR SEVEN YEARS.

Seattle, April 28.—A story of mother love was revealed when Mrs. McHugh Telfer met her 16 year old son in the superior court here today afternoon after a search of seven years, which took her to England, Canada and various parts of the United States.

She wept when the boy told her he had no desire to live with her and refused to leave Seattle and his high school work to go back to Chicago with her.

She told the story of privation and her attempts to find the boy. She worked in a Chicago factory for $30 a month, saving every penny she could for the trips she made, she told the court.

She testified that her husband, Alexander Telfer left Chicago with the boy when the latter was 9 years old. Later she says the husband obtained a divorce and married again.

She asks for annulment of her husband's divorce on the ground that she had no notice of the suit. She wants the custody of the boy and separate maintenance.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

The Senior class of the Salem High school entertained the Faculty and Parents last Friday evening.

A clever Mexican war game was enjoyed by all. Sides were chosen and the Mexican and the American had a guessing war. The American side won by a large majority.

The gymnasium was cleverly decorated with fir boughs and shrubbery.

Emily Palmer instructor of Mathematics of the Salem High school entertained Miss Regina Long and her mother last Saturday evening.

The candy sale held by the Y. W. C. A. girls Thursday was declared a great success by Miss Davis Sawyer who was in charge.

Mrs. A. L. Schmale, wife of Assistant Principal A. L. Schmale of the Salem High school, had gone on a few weeks visit to her old home town, Ockley, Iowa. Mrs. Schmale is accompanied by her little son.

Chapter G of the national club of P. E. O. of which several Salem High school teachers are members, met at the home of Mrs. M. E. Grant Friday evening.

This was a surprise meeting on Mrs. Grant, and all of the members brought a surprise dish.

Merrill Richmond and Ray Metcalf have returned from O. A. C. where they have been taking the entrance examination for Annapolis Naval Academy.

The Willamette Freshmen have issued invitations to the Seniors of the Salem High school for an informal reception which is to be held at Eaton Hall May 9th. This is an annual affair and a good time is always assured.

EUGENE CITIZEN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Eugene, Ore., April 28.—John M. Howe, a citizen of Eugene for the last 24 years, a retired merchant, died at his home here Sunday, aged 55 years. He was born in Missouri and came to Oregon when he was 9 years old, the family settling first at La Grande. They later came to Willamette valley and located at Brownville, living there for many years. Mr. Howe was ill for three months of heart trouble. He leaves a wife and five children, as follows: Oregon P. Howe, of Eugene; Fay D. Howe of Salem; B. Lloyd Howe of Eugene; Miss Lola Howe, of Eugene and Mrs. Elizabeth Mills of Cottage Grove. Mr. Howe's aged mother, Mrs. America Cochran, lives at Salem, and he leaves four sister. He was a prominent Mason and a member of the Baptist church.

FARM BUILDINGS BURN WITH ALL CONTENTS

Dallas, Ore., April 28.—The fine house and barn and all other outbuildings on the farm of Ira Stubblefield, two miles south of this city, were totally destroyed by fire Saturday evening, while the family was in Dallas. The fire started in the barn, and the buildings with all their contents were consumed, including nearly 100 chickens. The cattle and horses were all in the pasture and thus escaped. The value of the property destroyed is not less than $7,000. The insurance was small.

THE REAL SECRET OF REJUVENATING THE FACE

She holds the true secret of facial rejuvenation who has learned how to remove the dead skin particles as fast as they appear. It's a secret anyone may possess. The aged, faded or discolored surface skin may be gradually absorbed, in an entirely safe and rational manner, by the nightly application of ordinary mercolized wax. Within a week or two the underlying skin, youthful and beautiful to behold, has taken the place of the discarded outside. So little of the old skin is absorbed each day there's no inconvenience at all, and no one suspects you are putting anything on your face. The mercolized wax, procurable at any drugstore (an ounce is sufficient), is applied like cold cream. In the morning it is erased with soap and water. It's the best thing known for freckles, blackheads, pimples, moth patches, liver spots and fine surface wrinkles. For the deeper wrinkles, an excellent recipe is: Powdered saxolite, 1-oz., dissolved in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution produces quick and wonderful results.

WAR STIRS CALIFORNIA

SALEM MAN RETURNS FROM EIGHT-SEVEN TRIP TO NEIGHBORING STATE.

"War is hell and no mistake," said A. G. Magers, of this city, who has just returned from a sight-seeing trip in southern California. Mr. Magers states that there is but one word of interest in Los Angeles at present and that word is war. He states that the entire populace of that city is up in arms over the Mexican conflict with the United States, and that the recruiting stations are being flooded with men, young and old, who want to take a shot at the greasers.

In San Francisco, Mr. Magers says, he saw auto trucks, mules and men loaded with supplies in a line which stretched out for over a mile on Market street. The Salem man was within a few steps of a woman with a baby in her arms who fainted away when her husband marched by in the long line. Mr. Magers states that many pitiful things were seen when the troops assembled. Mothers, wives and great hearts congregated around the great Presidio and great excitement prevailed when the soldiers swung away toward the shipping yards where long trains waited to take them to the border.

That a Mexican, like the proverbial dog with a bad temper, will bite the hand that feeds it was actually demonstrated in Los Angeles, declares Mr. Magers. Mexican men with families who owned land near Los Angeles and who were making a good living by raising garden truck and selling it to Los Angeles people, were seen trooping toward the border to take up arms against the people who enabled them to eke out a living. Mr. Magers states that he saw several hundred Mexicans leaving Los Angeles for Mexico when war news began to spread and that he was told they were leaving simply because they wanted to fight the Americans.

Paul Marnach was with Mr. Magers in the south and he states that Salem peace and quiet look good to him.

YESTERDAY'S HAIL WILL FINISH PRUNE CROP

County Fruit Inspector C. O. Constant said yesterday afternoon that the present cold and wet weather would probably put the finishing touches to the Italian prune crop. The prunes have been falling off in considerable quantity and it was hoped that warm weather would prevail and save some of them. The crop of peaches, which only forms a minor part of the valley acreage, is practically unhurt. Peaches are unhurt. Crop conditions from other sources indicate that the present rains have done the grains a great amount of good. The cold weather has kept back the growth and sent the roots deep, which gives prospect of abundant harvests next fall.

EATING RELIEVES STOMACH TROUBLE

A Prominent Physician's Advice.

"Eat good foods and plenty of them. Dieting, in many cases is almost criminal. Get back to normal. To do so you must have the proper quantity of nourishment. You need it for brain or physical work. Probably there is nothing the matter with your stomach. Neutralize that acid and your stomach trouble will end at once. Neglect may mean ulcers if not cancer of the stomach. Do not take patented medicines or peppin tablets for dyspepsia. Simply take a neutralizer of acid. Decidedly the best neutralizer is ordinary bicarbonate of soda. It is inexpensive and you can get it at any drug store. Take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water after each meal. The relief will be immediate."

Daddy's Bedtime Story — The Clever Fire Horses Save a Life.

The Old Man Loved His Horse. JACK and Evelyn had not been able to sleep very well the night before because they had heard the fire bell ring late at night. Then they had looked out of the window to see the engines fly by, and then that it was difficult to get to sleep.

"I think," said daddy, "I will just tell you a short story, for I am sure you children must be sleepy after such a wakeful night."

"Did you hear anything about the fire last night?" asked Jack. "No one was hurt or anything dreadful like that?"

"The fire," began daddy, "was in a deserted barn on the very outskirts of the town. It was quite near some houses and an inn. So the firemen wanted to do all they could to keep the fire from spreading to the houses, for there was quite a high wind. No one minded if the old barn burnt, for it really was of no use to any one, and the owner of it never bothered to keep it up at all.

"But the fire engine horses made an awful fuss. They heard, what the firemen didn't hear, one of their own kind crying for help in horse language. They tried to break from the engines and kicked their heels and made a lot of commotion. They shook their heads and made all sorts of funny sounds. Finally one of the firemen said:

"I have a suspicion that the horses hear something in that barn, and I am going in to investigate, for maybe there is something alive inside. I have never known these horses to make a mistake."

"So he went in through a broken window, and when he got inside he found a horse trembling with fear at seeing the flames. The old fireman unbolted the back door of the barn where the fire had not as yet spread and led the horse out. Then you should have seen the fire engine horses. They were so happy that the old horse had been saved. "But just at that moment an old man came running out of the inn and crying: 'Oh, save my horse! He's in that barn!'"

"And when he saw that his horse had been saved he went over and put his head on the horse's mane, and the horse neighed contentedly. "The old man had stopped at the inn for the night, and there they had told him he could safely keep his horse in the old barn. "Oh, I am so grateful to you!" said the old man to the firemen. "I love my horse like a very real friend, and he is just as devoted to me. How can I ever thank you?"

"We're not the ones to thank," said the fireman who had saved the horse in the barn when the fire horses had seemed so excited. "Our horses gave your horse's life."

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother herself.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

BLAMES MOTHER-IN-LAW FOR MARITAL TROUBLES

Los Angeles, Cal., April 28.—Mrs. W. B. Bryn, niece of the late Colonel Thomas Swope of Kansas City and an important witness in the recent Hyde murder trials that resulted from Swope's death, is a divorcee case plaintiff here today. Bryn was a clerk of Denver. He eloped with his wife in 1911.

Two widows, both wealthy and elderly, are named by Mrs. Bryn as correspondents. Bryn replied that his relations with these women were of a strict business character. He places the blame for his marital troubles on his mother-in-law, Mrs. Logan Swope of Kansas City.

Gets All She Earns Now.

This "emul" was published last week in the Tonkawa (Ok.) Chieftain: I notice through the news columns that Mr. Carl Capito has notified the people of Tonkawa not to let me have credit as he would no longer stand good for my debts. I was not aware of his ever being responsible for my debts since we have lived in Tonkawa. He says he has supported me, which he did, this being the way: He bought me a washtub and board and gave me half, he paying for the tub and board out of my half. So to my friends that I may ask in the future for credit, I will just say that I still have the old tub and board.

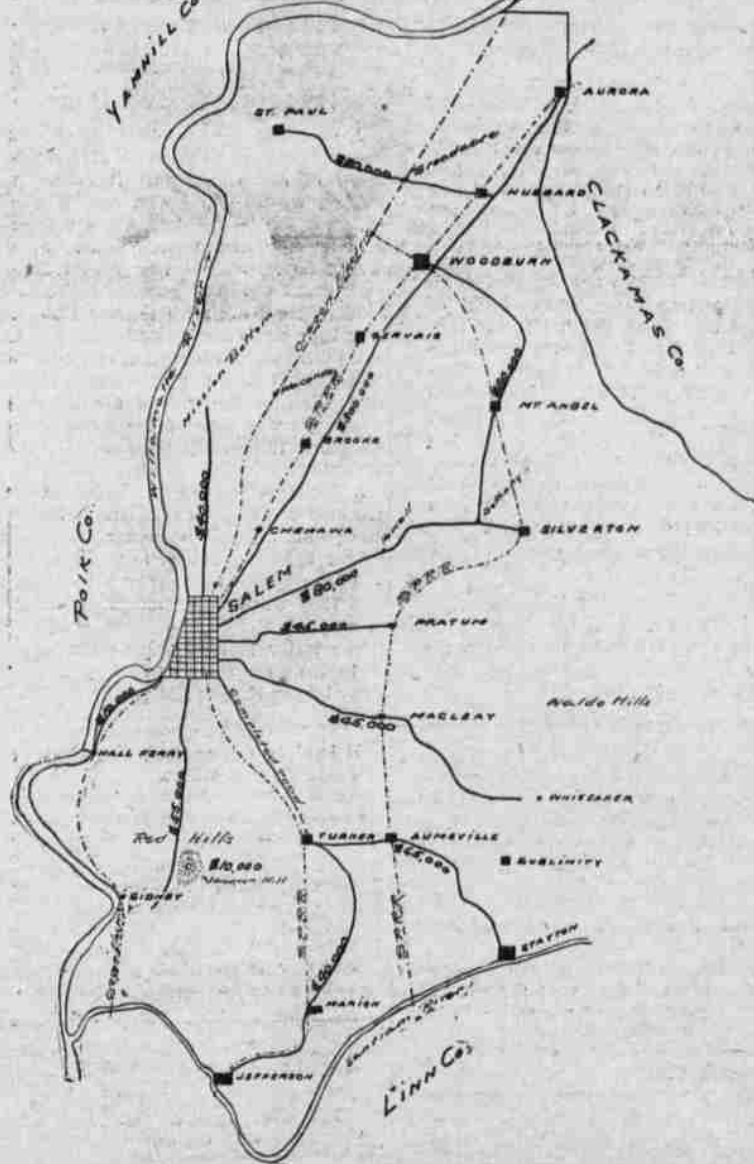

MRS. EVA CAPITO.

News was received here today to the effect that George F. Lawson, a former Salemite, passed away at his home at 2656 Folsom street, San Francisco, Cal., Monday, April 27. Mr. Lawson was 44 years old and was born in this city. He was the only son of the late George W. Lawson, one of the pioneer attorneys of Salem. Besides a wife, the deceased leaves three sisters, Mrs. A. Goodrich, of Arizona; Mrs. Millie Goodrich, of Portland, and Mrs. Adam Strommer, of this city. The funeral will take place in San Francisco.

WILL HOLD GOOD ROADS MEETING NEXT SATURDAY. There will be a rising goods roads meeting in Salem, afternoon and evening, Saturday, May 2, at which time Sam Hill, who has an international reputation for being the best-posted man in our country, upon the good roads question, who will speak at the opera house in the afternoon at 2 p. m. and at said place at 8 p. m., at which time he will show his pictures of good and bad roads that he has accumulated in his travels, not only in this country but in the foreign countries.

Map Showing Roads to Be Improved by $850,000 Bonds

The above map shows the roads that are to be permanently improved with the money that shall be received from the sale of the $850,000 of bonds that are to be voted upon May 15th. It will be seen that all of these roads are among the most important roads in the county. After the third year it will require $76,500 each year to retire these bonds, both principle and interest, in twenty years. Judge Busby has informed the committee that it requires more than $76,500 each year to keep these particular roads in repair so that they will be in a passable condition.

NEGLECT THE CARE OF YOUR SCALP AND YOUR HAIR WILL BECOME A DISGRACE

The hair is more exposed and hence more liable to accumulate dust and dirt than any other portion of the body. In spite of this the hair receives, as a rule, the least attention and no real effort is made to keep it healthy. If the dandruff germ is allowed to work unmolested and the scalp becomes crusted with dirt accumulations, one may expect the hair to die and fall out. There is no cause for surprise in this phenomenon; it is natural and happens in every instance where the care of the hair and scalp is overlooked. The one sure remedy which prevents the loss of hair and permits a healthy, luxuriant growth is found in Newbro's Herpicide.

The dandruff cannot remain on a head to which Herpicide is regularly applied. The hair ceases to fall. The terrible itching stops almost instantly. That is what Newbro's Herpicide does. Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded. Send 10c in stamps for booklet and sample to The Herpicide Co., Dept. E., Detroit, Mich. Applications at the good barber shops.
