EDDIE MOY WINS ALL THE WAY FROM JOHNNIE O'LEARY

San Francisco, May 2.—Eddie May, Freddie Welsh's sparring partner, was entitled to a decision over Johnny O'Leary in their four-round contest here last night, but the best that he got was a draw. Moy showed a light-ning left hand and outboxed O'Leary rom start to finish,

Eddie Miller and Roy Moore went four rounds to a draw with Moore setting the pace. The other bouts re-sulted as follows: Sally Salvadore won the decision from Willie Robiason; Charlie Givens and Johnny Aarons drew; Fred Nelson won the decision over Al Greenwood; Red Butler knocked out Jack Ryan in one round, and Dawn, Harry Wade knocked out Eddie Mack in two rounds.

Make No Court Fight.

President James A. Gilmore has an-nounced that the Federal league has given up its plans to make a court fight to regain Baumgartner, Williams and Kahler. The organization, how-ever, will ask Judge Sessions for a rehearing in the case against Catcher Killifer, and should the judge refuse it the league will appeal to the supreme court.
