

Men's Suits Must Go!!

Your chance to buy a good Suit AT LESS THAN COST PRICE

We are positively retiring from the Men's Clothing business. Every Suit and Overcoat must go as soon as possible. The garments are of the most dependable makes and offer a wide choice of fabrics. Regular and Norfolk models. This is how we are going to sell them, beginning today, continuing through the week. We must sell 100 suits during the week, and these prices are going to do it.

Men's regular $10.00, $15.00 and $16.50 Suits. Take your pick now, the suit $8.00

Men's regular $18.50, $20.00, $22.50 and $25.00 Suits your choice, $12.00

Salem people have never been offered such bargains as these and we could not possibly afford such tremendous price reductions if we did not desire a speedy riddance of our Men's Clothing stock. We advise early choosing, as the most choice suits will be the first to go

CHERRY FAIR JUNE 25, 26, 27 W. W. & M. L. Meyers GOOD & GOOD CHERRY FAIR JUNE 25, 26, 27

All Around Town

Dr. Assen, Zahnartz, Steeves Bldg.

Ab Minton and wife of Albany spent the week-end visiting in this city. They returned last night.

Dr. F. L. Utter, dentist, Masonic building.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to John Soudner, Jr., a farmer of Seio, and Allitta Rose Neal, a Salem housekeeper.

W. O. W. carnival, June 10-11-12-13. Four big days.

BORN.
McPEEK—At the farm house four miles north of Salem, Saturday, June 6, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. McPeck, a daughter.

Dr. E. F. Reamer, eye, ear, nose and throat. Masonic Temple.

An operation was performed upon Mrs. C. M. Colvin last Saturday by Dr. H. C. Gray. The physician stated this morning that the patient was getting along nicely.

Don't forget the dates—June 10-11-12-13. W. O. W. carnival.

The funeral services of L. T. Taku-moto was held from the Cottage undertaking parlors this afternoon at 2 p. m. Interment was in the Japanese Lot in the Old Fellows cemetery.

Pay your Irrigation bills now, and get the 10 per cent discount.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Will, of 1196 North Seventeenth street, were made the happy parents of a 9-pound baby daughter last night at 12 o'clock. Dr. Harry E. Gray attended and both mother and child are doing nicely.

Notice! Irrigation bills are now due. 10 per cent discount allowed on said bills to and including June 10th.

The funeral of Rose Dressler was held from the Cottage undertaking parlors this morning at 10:00. Rev. Mr. Kohler officiated and interment was in the Old Fellows cemetery.

Pay your Irrigation bills now, and get the 10 per cent discount.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Strong have arrived in Salem from Amboy, Blue Earth county, Minnesota, and will make their home here. Mr. Strong was engaged in farming and in the management of grain elevators in the east and has come to the west for the benefit of his health.

Dr. Mendelsohn, specialist in fitting glasses correctly. U. S. Bank building.

The monthly meeting of the members of the Salem Commercial club will be held tonight when they meet at the Hotel Marion for the usual feed and jolly-up meeting. Messrs. Shipley, Staley and White, the committee in charge, have secured a number of local speakers of note who will be on hand to assist in the flow of wit and humor.

Ten per cent discount allowed on irrigation bills the first 10 days of this month.

J. C. Videman and Clyde Pratt, two fine looking young fellows, were arrested last Saturday night on the charge of begging. When they appeared before Police Judge Elgin this morning their argument was hardly strong enough for them to get by, and the court gave them sentence of 10 days each.

Ten per cent discount allowed on irrigation bills the first 10 days of this month.

Wednesday and Thursday special trains will leave North Bank station via Oregon Electric for Salem and intermediate points, south of Garden Home. Leave North Bank station at 10:40 p. m.; Jefferson street, 11:00 p. m.; arrive Salem, 12:40 a. m. Friday the special will run from Jefferson street only, leaving at 11:00 p. m., arriving Salem at 12:40 a. m.

Notice! Irrigation bills are now due. 10 per cent discount allowed on said bills to and including June 10th.

The huge auto truck seen on the streets of Salem lately has been purchased by Roy and Glad Hoffman, who will take it to Southern Oregon, where they will use it in hauling lumber from a Medford sawmill to Astoria. The machine is a Packard, weighs five tons, and has a rating of 42 horsepower. The trip to Medford will require about four days.

The Browning Amusement company will furnish the attractions for the big W. O. W. carnival. Five big, free acts. June 10-11-12-13.

Mrs. T. J. Brown, of Portland, has secured the services of Miss McInturf as Salem representative for her hair tonic. Massage parlors have been opened in the Lincoln apartments, where treatments for the scalp will be given, or persons wishing to do so may purchase the tonic. Calls will be made by special appointment. Mrs. Brown's preparations are well and favorably known in this city, and Miss McInturf will undoubtedly meet with success.

Straw suit cases, regular $1.25 values for 98c. Buren & Hamilton.

The members of the recently organized Potato Growers association are taking unusual interest in the problem outlined by the association, according to the report of Luther J. Chapin, who has been visiting them in his trips throughout the agricultural districts. Each of the growers secured 50 pounds of pure Burbank seed potatoes which they planted, and next year promise to have on hand plenty of seed potatoes free from the mixed varieties that have hindered in the past.

Our straw suit cases are big values at 98c. Buren & Hamilton.

A farmer, residing south of the city, was fined $5 by Judge Elgin in the police court for being intoxicated on the streets. He told the court that he must have been doped as he knew nothing when arrested last night until he woke up several hours later feeling awfully ill. The arresting officer states that the man was undoubtedly intoxicated when the arrest was made. He paid the fine and took possession of a gold watch which he put up last night as security for his appearance in court today.

Opal ranges guaranteed for 15 years, $27.00 up. Buren & Hamilton.

The case of the State of Oregon ex rel, McKee against Livesley of Woodburn, a contest over the majority of that city was heard before Judge Benson, in department No. 1 of the circuit court, this morning, and the case taken under advisement. Judge Benson will hand down his decision in the near future. Judge Percy R. Kelly opened court in Lake county this morning on Judge Benson's bench, and as this was the only case on docket in department No. 1 Judge Benson left at noon for Portland.

Have your picture made at the Post Card Photo Shop. We finish while you wait. 441 Court street, ground floor.

Dog ordinance meeting—Persons opposed to the new ordinance prohibiting dogs from running at large are requested to meet at the Commercial hall Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A music roll makes a fine birthday present. The best place to get them is at Shafer's, 187 South Commercial street.

Parent-teacher Circle of the Lincoln school, will meet Tuesday, June 9th, at 3 o'clock, in the basement of school house. All parents are urged to attend. The playground will be open to the children and co-operation of parents is requested.

Do you have music in your home? If you do you should get acquainted with our store and our methods. We can help you. The Wiley B. Allen Co., R. E. Peters, 521 Court.

Uncle John Minto, that grand old man who came to Oregon when Salem was a wild frontier station, was seen on the streets this morning looking as happy as though he was walking out to saddle his favorite broncho and take a spin across the bunch grass. Mr. Minto has been under the weather a little of late, but is now feeling fine as a new colt in a clover patch.

Bring your kodak films to the Post Card Photo Shop, 441 Court street, ground floor. Developing, 10c a roll. Quick service and good work.

Good time will be sure tonight, if you eat hot chicken tamales. Fred makes them home and sale them on corner Liberty and State.

Dr. C. J. Sweetland and family have left for their new home on the campus of Hobart college where the doctor is to have charge of athletics during the next college year.

The annual conference of the United Brethren church, at 12th and Mission streets, Salem, Oregon, is in session this week. Meeting each evening. All are cordially invited to attend all meetings. H. D. Talman, pastor.

Funeral services for Miss Eleanor Colony will be conducted by Richard Avison at half past two o'clock tomorrow from the First Methodist church, special music will be by the choir. The body will lie in state from twelve until two o'clock, when friends may view the remains, the coffin being closed thereafter.

Dr. M. C. Findley, of Grants Pass, is moving into a suite of rooms in the Steeves building today and will be associated with Dr. B. L. Steeves in the practice of his specialty, diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. Dr. Findley has been practicing in Grants Pass for the last 13 years and has purchased a home on South Commercial street and will move his family here to make his home in this city.

Justice of the Peace Webster is in Portland today on business. The judge is looking after various kinds of business matters and will probably be gone a couple of days. During his absence, Constable E. E. Cooper is holding down the bench, but in view of the fact that there are no important cases on the docket which need immediate attention, Constable Cooper is not having a very hard time taking the place of the justice.

According to Asahel Bush of the Ladd & Bush bank, this morning, it is more than likely that the institution will enlarge at the first of the year by taking over the rooms now occupied by the C. T. Pomeroy jewelry firm. Mr. Bush declares that the bank will require additional room by the first of 1915 and that the room south will, in all probability, be fitted up so as to be an adjunct to the main banking apartments.

William "Billy" Townsend, one of Marion county's oldest pioneer farmers, was in the city today shaking hands with old cronies. He met many of his old-time friends, and enjoyed himself immensely in "kidding" his

BEER BOTTLE AND PISTOL USED TO KILL

Los Angeles, Cal., June 8.—Called to his door by a friendly whistle early today, Troplio Gonzales, assistant foreman of the Bixby ranch near Compton, was struck down with a beer bottle and shot five times in the stomach and heart. He was killed instantly. According to Deputy Sheriff Anderson, the murder was committed by a man known as Claudio, who was assisted by Juan Lopez. Lopez was arrested and confessed, according to the authorities, that he had smashed Gonzales with the beer bottle, and that Claudio had killed him as he lay on the ground. Officers are searching for Claudio.

TRANSFER COMPANY WANTS ORDER OF R. R. COM. VACATED

Complaint Filed Says That There Has Been No Discrimination Used Against Other Companies—Other Cases.

Objecting to the recent ruling of the railroad commission that the Baggage and Omnibus transfer company of Portland, be prohibited from entering upon trains into Portland and soliciting business or putting their labels on the baggage before it reached the depot the Northern Pacific terminal company has filed a suit today in the circuit court for Marion county asking that the order of the commission be set aside. The complaint alleges that the Baggage and Omnibus transfer company has followed the practice of going through the baggage cars and putting duplicate checks upon pieces of baggage in order to facilitate the handling of the baggage and that it is not working in exclusion of other competing companies. It claims that there has been no discrimination but that the practice has been a great convenience to the public and prays for a decree vacating the order of the railroad commission.

The case of C. I. Johnson against Ferdinand Kutzel, a proceeding to vacate the alley in Block 11, of George H. Jones addition to Salem was heard in department No. 2 of the circuit court this afternoon before Judge Galloway.

A suit for foreclosure of a mortgage for $2,700 and interest and $250 attorney's fees with costs and also mortgage aggregating $3,050 was filed yesterday afternoon in the circuit court by the members of the state land board against B. C. Weaver, Mildred E. Weaver, James Carroll, Herman Lewis, W. H. Woodward, Sattley Litschgi, and John Doe Litschgi, her husband, Rosa L. Monday and John Doe Monday, Flora M. Murphy and C. A. Murphy her husband and Marion County, Oregon.

aged friends about the outcome of the primary election. Mr. Townsend has always taken an active part in politics in this county and takes great pride in relating to his friends the different scraps he has gotten into over political matters.

With the exception of a few acres of hay being thrown down, the rains of the past few days are benefiting everybody in the rural districts in Marion county," said L. B. McMahon, who owns a ranch a few miles north of this city, this morning. Mr. McMahon declares that if the weather does not turn off extremely cold, there will be a bumper crop in every locality and of every class this year. He speaks very encouragingly in regard to the hop yield, and declares that all other farm produce will make a splendid showing.

One of the front wheels of a buggy belonging to A. B. Noland, a farmer residing north of the city, was broken off this afternoon when the tire became fastened between the rail and the brick foundation in the center of the North Commercial street car track. The front end of the rig dropped down when the wheel shattered and the horse, being a three-year-old, ran away. Mr. Noland was thrown out of the rig but was not injured. The buggy was badly demolished and the horse was not caught until it had run as far as Market street on Commercial.

That the fame of Salem as a cherry center has spread abroad is shown by the fact that a long distance call was received by M. L. Meyers, king of the Cherrians, this morning, which resulted in an order for two boxes of cherries to be sent to Minnesota. The people in Minnesota wishing the cherries wrote to friends in Portland to secure the finest cherries grown on the Pacific Coast. The Portland man immediately called up the king of the cherrians who set about to secure the fruit. One ten pound box of Royal Anns and a similar sized box of Bings will be sent by express to Minnesota where the cherries will probably be used for exhibition purposes.

When Queen Thelma of the Portland Rose Festival and her retinue arrive in Salem tonight on her special over the Southern Pacific she will be presented with a floral piece and a box of the finest cherries that grow by the Cherrians. The special will not arrive until 8 o'clock and considering the hour it will be impossible to hold any elaborate reception in honor of her Majesty but the Salem people will be remembered by this token of their appreciation of her visit. She will be extended an invitation to attend the Cherry Fair and the compliments of the season. M. L. Meyers and George Rodgers have charge of the selection of the royal offerings.

Company M of the O. N. G. will leave for Portland 7:30 strong next Friday morning at 7:10 to attend the rose festival and to take part in the military display. Major Carl Abrams and staff of this city will also accompany the local company. The guardsmen will wear their olive drab field uniforms instead of the heavy dress parade uniforms that are usually elected for long parades in the hot sun. Beside the entire regiment of the Oregon National Guard, eight companies of Coast artillery, Troop A, First Oregon cavalry and the Twenty-first infantry of regulars from Vancouver will take part in the parade.

To Correct Defective Vision

You need RELIABLE GLASSES accurately fitted.

Our work is our pride, and you are guaranteed good, conscientious work and accurate results.

Miss A. McCulloch
Optometrist
291 N. Comm'l St. Phone 925
Hours 9 to 5. Ground Floor

NEW TODAY

One cent per word each insertion. Copy for advertisements under this heading should be in by 2 p. m.

PHONE MAIN 51.

FOR SALE—Guernsey cow. Call 2600 Oak street.

WANTED—Housework in family or hotel. J. C. W. Jordan.

NOTICE—All coupons must be in by June 10. Studio De Luxe.

OLD PAPERS for carpets; 10 cents per hundred. Journal office.

SAND, GRAVEL or loam delivered to any part of the city. Minto Bros.

WANTED—Loganberry pickers. J. L. Vincent, Bicknell, Oregon, route 1.

FOUND—Mother of pearl necklace, cross pendant. Inquire Journal office.

FOR SALE—Nine pigs, nine and fat. T. K. Simpson, Salem, B. F. D. No. 1.

IF YOU WANT a good hot meat sandwich fried in butter, get it from Fred Night Lunch.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS for sale this week only. Party leaving city. 1065 Court street.

LOST—Black satin bag, Sunday, on Union, with letter "D." Reward by telephoning 1039.

GOOD SEWING MACHINES for sale, $3.00, $5.00, $8.00. Singer machine office, 940 State street.

LOGANBERRY PICKERS WANTED. Two miles south of Salem. Address U. F. N., Journal office.

FOR SALE—Four room house and two lots 60x100 on Nob Hill. Inquire of Mrs. Tom Tricker, corner Hazel and Judson.

ONEY TO LOAN—We have money to loan on good farm property as security, for one, two or three years. Phone 470.

FOR RENT—Modern five-room bungalow. Walking distance. Address H. R. W., care of Capital Journal, or phone 1956.

FOR SALE—Five acres on South Commercial street car line, close in; cheap. See or call on Stacy Reeves, care Perry's drug store.

WANTED—High-grade Jersey; must be fresh, give not less than 36 lbs. of milk per day, testing 4 to 4 1/2 per cent. Call up Main 1431 or 491.

FOR RENT—The finest six-room flat in Salem, New, modern and very close in. Enquire Salem Auto garage, 245 State street. Phone 386.

FOR RENT—Four-room house, woodshed, good well, chicken house; on car line; 1255 South Twelfth; $8.00 per month. Inquire first house north.

STRAYED—Black horse, between 1300 and 1400 pounds. Reward for information. Phone 7x2 Bentley. John Warren, Grande Ronde, Oregon, or chief of police, Salem.

MRS. T. J. BROWN, Portland scalp specialist, announces that Miss McInturf has accepted the agency for her hair tonic. Massage Parlors at 633 Perry street. Phone 465.

WANTED—To make arrangements with some good congenial party wanting to go to eastern Oregon to look up at the same time as company for each other. Call on or address at once, C. H. Green, 1341 Madison street.

FOR SALE—Sump, acre tract inside city limits; one block from streets, street macadamized; 22 bearing cherry trees; 6 English walnuts, 4 peach trees; good drilled well, plenty of water; newly new house, plastered; woodshed, chicken park. Owner contemplating leaving Salem. Address F. P. C., box 41, Fairgrounds, Oregon.

Those who win success by practice haven't time to do much preaching.

POMEROY, JEWELER, MOVES HIS STORE

C. T. Pomeroy, the jeweler, who is at present located in the Bush building on 8th Commercial street, will remove to the store room formerly occupied by

GLOBE

TODAY and TUESDAY
Eleventh Series of

"The Adventures of Kathlyn"

Only two more of this series left. All a Sterling Comedy.

COMING
WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY

"LUCILLE LOVE"

Two Reel Vitagraph Comedy.
10 CENTS

Charles H. Hinges, Mr. Pomeroy hopes to get permanently located in his new quarters by the first of next month.

Contractors will commence work tomorrow morning installing a new front in the building. The front will be similar to that of the Hauser Brothers sporting goods house. There will be a tile entrance and the base of the front will be supported by handsome tiling. The transoms will be of prism glass, and the show windows of the finest plate glass.

Mr. Pomeroy states that there is not enough room in his present quarters, and that he intends to remodel the interior of the old Hinges building and make the room into one of the finest and most up-to-date jewelry establishments in the city.

William Wechter, the building contractor, is doing the work of remodeling.

HARVESTER TRUST OUSTED.
Washington, June 8.—The federal supreme court sustained today the lower federal tribunal's order ousting the harvester trust from doing business in Missouri. It also affirmed the Missouri court's imposition of a $25,000 fine against the trust for violating the Missouri anti-trust laws against the crushing of competition.

It reversed, however, the International Harvester company's conviction of violating the Kentucky anti-trust laws and set aside half a dozen fines of $3,000, each imposed in various Kentucky counties.

DIED.
LINDBLAD—In this city June 4, 1914. Oust Lindblad aged 29 years. The remains are at the Cottage Parlors and funeral will be held on the arrival of relatives from Butte, Montana.

ELEVENTH CONVENTION OF I. B. OF B. AND I. S. OF A. CONVENES

San Francisco, June 8.—The eleventh consolidated convention of the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders of America was opened here today with 150 delegates, representing all parts of the United States and Canada, in attendance.

Mayor Rolph, welcoming the delegates, said in part:
"I believe in labor's right to organize and my sympathies always have been with organized labor in its fight for better conditions. I have never belonged to any organization hostile to organized labor, and I never will. I am a firm believer and supporter of the eight-hour day."

Among other things the convention will consider will be the advisability of working for the amalgamation of the boilermakers, structural ironworkers and sheet metal workers into one union, the abolishing of certain international offices and a closer understanding with the boilermakers of Great Britain by exchanging a monthly news letter.

MEN TRY TO KILL PRISONER WITH KNIVES

Cleveland, Ohio, June 8.—While Joseph Berardi was being arraigned today before Juvenile Judge Adams on a charge of assaulting a 12-year-old girl, several men drew knives and tried to kill the prisoner. Berardi escaped injury by being rushed back to his cell while bailiffs overpowered his assailants.