Defeat of Bantam Champios Received With Genuine Sadness in Gothan Sporting Circles-Is Well-Liked

BILL STEEN IS WINNING TWIRLER FOR CLEVELAND

Buck Weaver Makes Tremendous Hit at Captain of the Chicago White Sox-Is Popular Player.

By Hal Sheridan, New York, June 17.—The defeat of Bantam Champion Johnny Coulon by Kid Williams in Los Angeles was re-ceived in Gotham sporting circles with genuine sadness. Coulon has always been a popular champion, both here and in his home town of Chicago. When Johnny became ill more than a year ago he kept on training and fighting, but found he was no longer in condition to do battle in the ring. Then he spent several months in the Wisconsin and Michigan woods trying to regain hi health, but his showing against the husky Dane on his first reappearance showed beyond all question that he was far from the Coulon of old. William hammered him at will and for the firs time in his life Coulon was whipped and whipped without showing even a flash of his old time form,
