JOHNSON NOT TAKING ANY CHANCES ON FIGHT--SAYS HIS CONDITION IS GOOD

By Hal Sheridan.

New York, June 20.—Advice received here today from Paris indicates that Jack Johnson, who meets Frank Moran of Pittsburgh, June 27 in a 20 round bout, is not taking any chances of being caught out of condition. It will be Johnson's first ring appearance since he knocked out Jim Flynn at Las Vegas, N. M., July 4, 1912.

Interviewed for a Paris newspaper, Johnson said: "You can bet on June 27 I'll be the great Jack Johnson who floored Tommy Burns and who pummed Jim Jeffries. It's true that Moran is young and strong, but if I'm no longer young, I'm in better form than ever before. I'll make Moran pay for the insults Americans have heaped upon me and dash their crazy hopes. Let them dance. The whites shall never have my scalp."

Johnson is 36 years old a citizen of France. The Frenchmen seem to take his talk seriously and think all Americans are either Sioux or Comanches. Johnson talks just like all the great champions who come back to the ring after a long absence. Little Johnny Coulon was an example of the semi-retired champion who thought he was as good as ever.

Of course there's a big chance that

Johnson will beat Moran. Everything except condition is in the big black's favor. He is the champion, a much bigger man than Moran, and a wonderful boxer. He has the most remarkable defense ever developed by any fighter, and he has the calm, even tempered disposition and patience to wait for his chance before making an aggressive move. Even if he has gone back 50 per cent, Johnson will be very hard to beat.

Al Meyoy will have to do his "championing" in some other part of the country than New York. Technically he holds the middleweight title, but it is doubtful if many New York fight fans would pay to see him perform in view of his two recent bouts here with Billy Murray. His only chance is to go west and hunt for newer and greener pastures.

According to cable advices from Australia, Arthur Pelkey, the heavyweight who gained temporary fame by beating Luther Morry in a punch at Calgary; Charley Horn, a California heavyweight; and Mountain Dan Sullivan are on their way home. All three fighters, who were taken to Australia by Tommy Burns, failed to make good. Each was knocked out at least once.

International Yacht Races Are Next on the Program and Interest Shown Is Keen

By Hal Sheridan.

New York, June 20.—There'll be no peace or repose of mind for the land lubber until the international yacht races are out of the way. The international polo meet is over. Talk of "crowding" one's opponent, "back-hand" strokes and "riding down" the ball have given way before long winded arguments on the merits and demerits of topsails, spinnakers, "reefers", far-staysails and spankers by the rocking chair squadron which can be founded on the supply of cocktails, highballs and "1910" vintage" on the porches of any of the hundreds of yacht clubs that front the Atlantic from Maine to Florida.

It is especially along the Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York and New Jersey Coast where the largest number gather daily, and especially during any of the trial races to witness the tests or sit about on the club porches and gossip. And, take it from one who knows, the gossip is not always about the sea. As an aside, speaking of gossip, no bunch of women ever did so much small-talking about their neighbors and supposed friends as did the little knots of rich old boys who sat on the porches of one of the exclusive clubs off which the Resolute and Vanti had one of their trial races one day a few weeks back.

Interest Is Intense.

There is evidence on every side of the great season of "salt water activity" the Atlantic Coast states ever have known. Just because everyone who considers himself anyone wants to see the big races next fall, there isn't a yacht club in this section that has not a waiting list as long as your arm. The intense interest also can be seen in the orders of vessels of every description placed in ship and boat yards and on books of yacht brokers.

The yatching fever never was higher. According to the old guard, men who never would have learned the starboard from the port side of a ship if Secretary of the Navy Daniels hadn't ordered them to be called right and left respectively, are buying boats on which to take parties off Sandy Hook, to see the American defender, race Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, Shamrock IV.

Will Be Real Fight.

One thing that appears to be as certain and inevitable as taxes and death is that the Johnson-Moran scrap in Paris one week from Saturday will be a real fight. There was talk of a frame-up—certainly. There most always is just before a fight of this calibre. But the only frame-up, if any, will be double crossing that each fighter will try to put over on the other one.

Just put it down that Jack Johnson cares about as much for that championship title as he does for both his eyes and his two legs. His pride in the title is exactly like the pride of the average down-south dandy of his glaring lodge regalia on parade.

Jack Johnson, with a super-abundance of confidence and conceit, will tote into that fight on June 27, everything he has in the way of defence and punch. Johnson knows the jeers and howls of delight that would arise from some 80,000,000 American throats should Moran slip over a sleep-producer.

Johnson also knows and realizes that if he goes in and fights like the Big Black that humbled Jeffries at Reno, and wins, he will have it said of him in spite of his disgusting morality, or rather lack of it, that he is a grand fighter. For that much of his make-up fight lovers will hold admiration. Once more take the tip that Jack Johnson will fight with all that's in him.

Moran Is Good Bruiser.

Just how much is left in Johnson after a year of Paris life and Paris debauches, remains for Moran to discover. Moran is far above the average fighter in intelligence and intellect. Better, he is a pretty good two-fisted fighting man. But Moran's intelligence and superior intellect has made him map out a course, and carry it through to the best of his ability.

Moran has no idea that he will have it easy for a minute. He believes, on the other hand, and many others hold the same theory, that Jack Johnson will furnish Moran with a lot of trouble in the first half of the battle.

Moran wants only to last that long. After that, he says, he expects Johnson's condition to begin to show and to furnish the chance for him to bring the championship back to America on a white man's head.

PIGEONS WIN RACE.

London, June 20.—Three pigeons beat Handel Booth today in his race from Westminster to Pontefract, his home town.

Party strife was forgotten at Westminster this morning when legislators assembled in great numbers to witness the start of the first M. P. pigeon race in parliamentary history. The M. P. was Handel Booth, the versatile liberal member for Pontefract who offered a prize of £250 for every bird beating him from Westminster to his home town.

The regular feathered denizens of Palace Yard were startled by a tremendous flutter of wings when, on the signal being given, Starter Percy H. Illingworth, Chief Liberal Whip, loosed the champion homing pigeons for Yorkshire, and simultaneously Handel Booth ringed about the foot like his opponents, dashed off for King's Cross railway station in a taxicab. Booth planned to make the journey by express train to Doncaster, and then by fast automobile to Pontefract, in four hours. Last year when he matched Pontefract pigeons against those of Shipley, Illingworth's constituency, the fastest time made was 3 hours, 50 minutes, but this was believed to be exceptional. The distance from London to Pontefract is about 172 miles. The birds were also competing for the honor of Pontefract and Otley, which latter place through its parliamentary representative Hastings Duncan, challenged Booth's constituents. Both M. P.s are giving prizes for the first birds home in their respective districts, and all sporting Yorkshire is betting on the race.

FIGHT DATE CHANGED.

San Francisco, June 20.—Cable advices received here today said that the 20 round bout between Champion Willie Ritchie and Freddie Welsh in London has been put over from Saturday night July 4 to the following Tuesday night, July 7. The change was at the suggestion of the promoters, who figured that many persons who might otherwise attend the show would be working on Saturday night.

The same dispatches reported that Gunboat Smith and Georges Carpentier had deposited $5,000 each as a guarantee for their 20 round bout, which is now set to take place at Olympic, London, July 16. It had been reported that Smith and Carpentier would meet in the ring June 24.

SALVADOR IS KING.

San Francisco, June 20.—Sally Salvador of Sacramento still retained today his crown as king of the local four rounders, but he had a narrow escape in last night's encounter with "Fighting Dick" Hyland, an old timer who has not appeared here in more than three years and who was not figured to have much of a chance against the speedy boxer who toppled Willie Hoppe from the short bout throne a week ago. Referee Harry Foley called it a draw.

After taking a volley of long range punches in the first round, Hyland suddenly floored Salvador with a left to the jaw. For the rest of the bout Salvador was extremely careful and clinched whenever danger threatened. On points Salvador had a slight shade and Foley's decision was well received.

Jimmy Fox showed great improvement in his bout with Kid Lee of Boston, whom he defeated in four rounds. Lee floored Fox in the first round but Jimmy more than evened up in the third. Eddie Miller stopped Nate Kab of Chicago in the fourth round.

The other bouts resulted:

Charlie Givens of Seattle knocked out Ray Rivers of Los Angeles in the third round.

Sailor Schaeffer knocked out Bill Sloan in the first round.

Ray Richardson defeated Kid Ford, a negro in four rounds.

Tony Reynolds stopped Billy Simmons in a round, the police calling a CREW TAKES HIKE.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 20.—To keep down the weight of his men, Coach Hiram Conibear, of the University of Washington varsity eight, announced today that from now until the intercollegiate regatta, next week he probably would put the crew through rowing practice twice a day, the same as the other oarsmen entered in the big race.

The weather was frosty this morning, with a stiff west wind blowing, which kicked up white combers on the Hudson. Syracuse, Wisconsin, Columbia, Cornell and Washington took advantage of favorable conditions last evening and remained on the water until dusk. Instead of venturing out this morning, Conibear took the Washington crew for a long hike. A stiff workout was planned for this afternoon.

REAGAN GETS DECISION.

Jackson, Cal., June 20.—Jimmy Reagan of San Francisco holds a decision today over Joe Getz, on eastern lightweight, as a result of their fifteen round bout here last night. Reagan had a sinde in every round and the decision was popular. Getz was game, however, and never stopped trying, but Reagan was too fast and clever for him.
