Glencove, I. L., June 25.---The three candidates for the honor of defending the America's yachting cup started from here today in another race in the elimination series. The boats crossed the starting line in the following order: Resolute, 12:16:00; Dantie, 12:16:20; D. fiance, 12:16:34. The breeze, which was light at the start, soon strengthened. The Defiance overhauled the two leaders, and was leading at the first turn.

The unofficial time at the end of the first leg was: Defiance, 1:25:02; Resolute, 1:24:03; Vanitie, 1:27:41. The Defiance still led at the second leg. The three yachts rounded the mark in the following unofficial time: Defiance, 2:28:50; Resolute, 2:29:50; Vanitie, 2:30:45.

ABE RUEF IS BARRED FROM HAVING VISITORS

Prisoner Is Charged With Abuse of His Privileges--Is Confined In His Library--Can't See Own Family.

San Quentin, Cal., June 25.--(Charged with abuse of privileges and circumventing a prison rule, Abe Ruef, in addition to being denied a parole by the prison directors, was barred today by Warden Johnston from receiving visitors or any communication from outside the walls of San Quentin. This applies also to members of Ruef's family.

While Ruef is still holding his job as librarian of the penitentiary, he might as well be in solitary confinement as far as the outside world is concerned.

Ruef's alleged offense lay in giving out for publication his statement which he had expected to make before the prison directors in urging that he be given liberty on parole. There is said to be a rule which prohibits a prisoner from giving visitors any statement to take outside the prison.

As a matter of fact Ruef did not give the statement to the newspapers. The statement had been prepared some weeks previously and a copy of it was in the hands of Ruef's attorney, George Keane.

Attorney Keane stated in San Francisco today that he gave out the Ruef statement on his own responsibility and without Ruef's knowledge. He did so, he says, believing that it could be no violating of prison rules inasmuch as the statement only concerned Ruef personally and in no way reflected upon prison management nor was it in any way subversive of prison discipline.

How long Ruef will be denied communication with his family and friends is not known. The warden's order was "until further notice."

"PAINLESS" PARKER ASKS DENTAL REGULATION

A bill promoted by Dr. "Painless" Parker, regulating the practice of dentistry has been filed with Secretary of State Olcott for approval as to form by J. T. Corcoran, of Portland. It is proposed to initiate the measure at the November election.

It provides that a graduate of any reputable dental college in good standing, which requires a course of study of at least two years, shall be entitled to practice dentistry in the state. It further provides that persons licensed to practice dentistry under the laws of any state may practice in this state. Applicants for certificates shall file their names, copies of diplomas or licenses and affidavits of at least two citizens as to the character of the applicants with the secretary of state.

Persons attempting to practice dentistry without these qualifications shall be found guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment of not more than three months in a county jail.

TORRENTIAL RAINS FLOOD CANYON IN CALIFORNIA

Redding, Cal., June 25.--The entire canyon was flooded here today as a result of torrential rains which had fallen in the vicinity since Tuesday. Ten miles north of Redding 100 feet of the Southern Pacific track was out, there were several bad landslides and much damage was done to crops, which were just being harvested.

BUSINESS ON VERGE OF REVIVAL

Washington, June 25.--President Wilson reiterated this afternoon his refusal to consider a postponement of his anti-trust program, and said that the business of the country was on the verge of a great revival.

Addressing the Virginia Editorial association here, the president said: "The most solid business men of the country are back of the legislation now pending in congress. When it is enacted into law, the business of the country will get its constitutionalist freedom and go forward. When it gets it, I propose a business revival unprecedented in this history of America."

This revival, the president insisted, would start as soon as the administration program was completed.

WILL TEST "AMERICA"

Hammondsport, N. Y., June 25.--The most severe test of Rodman Wammaker's airship "America", in which John Cyril Porte proposes to fly across the Atlantic ocean, was planned for this evening. Accompanied by Glenn Curtiss, Porte expected to take aloft the air equipment which he intends to use in the trans-Atlantic flight and to make the trial as near the real thing as possible.

Two duplicate 109-horsepower motors, which have already withstood the test, will be sent to Newfoundland for the coming flight across the ocean, to be used in case of emergency.

R. R. TRAFFIC DELAYED.

Dunsmuir, Cal., June 25.--Through traffic on the Southern Pacific railroad in northern California being delayed today as the result of a washout last night when a wall of water ten feet high caused by a cloudburst, carried out an entire temporary trestle near here. The water made a cut 60 feet wide.

Another washout 400 feet east of the temporary bridge cut out the bank for a distance of 200 feet. Railroad officials expected to have the line open early this afternoon. It was still raining but the water was receding.

TRAMP, THRICE HERO, GOES TO JAIL IN RAGS

Steals Suitcase and Is Sentenced To Serve Four Months--Rescued Several Sailors From the Bennington.

Sacramento, Cal., June 25.--A Worthington tramp in rags, his shirt broken, entered the county jail here today to start a four months' sentence for stealing a suitcase.

A. Worthington, hero, thrice winner of medals for conspicuous bravery from congress, several years ago went to the teaming hold of the United States gunboat Bennington, when she blew up in San Diego harbor and rescued several fellow sailors.

This was after he had been wounded in the head by flying steel. The injury is still lacerating him and, officers say, has been responsible for his strange actions. A movement is on foot to secure his pardon by the Spanish War veterans.

SHIPMENTS MUST WAIT FOR MORE RIPE BERRIES

The Salem Fruit Union reports that with eight carloads of loganberries shipped, the packing for eastern shipments will be discontinued until the warm weather sets in again to ripen more fruit.

"The crop is not damaged any; in fact, it is benefited, and these few days of cloudy weather will simply permit the pickers to attend the Cherry fair," said Manager Crawford this morning.

The berries coming in to the fruit union now are not suitable for shipping green, but the dryer is being run night and day to keep the fruit from spoiling and no losses are reported as yet. The remainder of the crop for canning purposes will be greatly helped by the rains and many small berries that would not ripen under ordinary circumstances will now reach a marketable size.

Mr. Crawford says the rain has eroded some of the cherries, but that at this early date it is impossible to estimate the damage, but unless further rains set in the damage will be slight. The loganberries that have been shipped east have arrived in good condition and are finding ready markets.

YOUTH CAUSES SOCIETY WOMEN TO MOURN

Seattle, Wash., June 25.--Prominent society men and women of Seattle are mourning the departure of Howard Piers-Jones, a debonair young man of pleasing address, who came here a few weeks ago, put up at a fashionable hotel borrowed money from everybody who would loan it notably from young women of the society world and his brothers at one of the university fraternities, wed a university girl and departed leaving debts unpaid.

His victims conferred with the prosecuting attorney yesterday with the view to recalling him but they were informed that Los Angeles lays prior claim to him. He is wanted there for grand larceny.

Jones was introduced into the golf and Arctie clubs by new found friends who later paid the bills.

RUMORED OUTBURST OF MT. LASSEN PROVES UNFOUNDED

Redding, Cal., June 25.--Wild rumors in circulation Wednesday night of a tremendous outburst by Mount Lassen's crater proved to have been wilfully unfounded.

Owing to the haze the peak was visible for but a minute yesterday afternoon. In the meantime two days snow had moved the snow line a considerable distance up the slope, and seeing less of the blackened cone than previously, many excited observers jumped to the conclusion that the mountains was sinking.

Later in the day a farmer near the foot of the slope heard thunders, mistook it for subterranean rumblings and promptly telephoned to Redding that a fearful explosion had occurred, which probably had blown the top of the mountain off.

Today's advices from Mineral and Mammoth Lake were to the effect that nothing unusual had happened and that the crater had been quiet for nearly a week.

SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS HAS $1,000,000 FIRE TODAY

1,500 ARE HOMELESS
Boston, Mass., June 25.--At 6 p. m. a third section at Salem, separate from the main fire and the one at South Salem, burst into flames.
To that hour dynamite had been used fruitlessly.
Mayor Hurley had ordered all school houses and public buildings filled with cots for the accommodation of those who have been burned out of their homes.
The restaurants were ordered to prepare coffee and sandwiches.
Fifteen hundred were homeless.

Boston, June 25.--Fire in Salem, Massachusetts, severed wire communication between there and Boston at 4:30 this afternoon after a square mile of buildings had been burned in the former town, with $1,000,000 damage. The structures destroyed included 100 residences and 12 factories. Besides the fire department, four companies of militia and the police from neighboring cities were fighting the flames. At least six tons of dynamite was being used in an effort to check the fire's spread.

Boston, June 25.--At five p. m. the fire at Salem was within an eighth of a mile of the city's center, according to message from there.
Seventy-five more houses had been destroyed in South Salem, forty fire fighters had been overcome and fifty

FIRE MAKES SECOND VISIT IN SIX WEEKS

Seattle, Wash., June 25.--The store of the M. A. Gottstein Furniture company on Second avenue, near Pike street, was visited by a severe fire last night for the second time within six weeks. The Helen 1200 shop for women, and the Keating Millinery company, occupying part of the lower floor, also, as before, suffered severe losses. The total loss approximates $85,000. The previous fire caused a loss of $100,000.

The three stores had just reopened, following the long process of stock-taking and insurance adjustment after the first fire, and it was principally the new stock of each firm that was the worst damaged last night.
The fire was preceded by three explosions of such force that the front windows on the fourth floor were shattered and the glass blown across the street, striking pedestrians. Spontaneous combustion of gas, arising from furniture packing, is believed to be the cause of the explosion.
Others had been taken to hospitals. The water pressure was very low. The Lincoln High house had been dynamited in an effort to check the flames.
Women were running about the streets as if demented.
The situation showed no signs of improvement.
