

BOYS WILL HAVE BIG TIME ON THE FOURTH

The Fourth of July will be celebrated at the State Industrial School for boys, says Superintendent W. F. Hale. Early in the morning they will begin having a big time. There will be a regular athletic field meet and a baseball game. At noon a picnic dinner will be served to the 100 boys and the visiting parents. Besides the foot races, sack races and the good old-time picnic sports, the boys will have a carnival feature. To test their sure-shot ability, they will throw balls at puppet dolls, and every time they hit the nigger baby they will get a stick of candy. In the evening, fireworks will form the entertainment.

ALBANY CARNIVAL IS ON.

Many special events are planned for Saturday, the concluding day of the celebration. Streets and business houses are decorated.

SWIPED AFFECTIONS COST THEM $25,000

The Haywards Make Their Son Abandon His Bride and the Jury Says Must Pay for Their Fun.

Los Angeles, July 3.—Twenty-five thousand dollars, the heaviest financial recompense for alienated affections ever awarded by a California court, is the amount allowed today to Mrs. Louis A. Hayward, for whom a jury found in a suit for $100,000 damages she brought against Henderson Hayward, her father-in-law; Thomas Hayward, her son, and Miss Laura Hayward, his daughter. Mrs. Hayward charged that the family had turned from her the affections of Lester Hayward, a son and brother, whom she married a year ago in Virginia. Her suit alleged that, when she came here with her husband on her honeymoon, his family caused him to pack his bags and leave for parts unknown to her. They Haywards, who are wealthy, will appeal the case.

Over a thousand feet of hose was laid at the fire Wednesday morning. It has taken the fire boys the balance of this week to clean up the engines and get the dirt and ashes from the hose. There was enough hose left to lay another line if it had been needed.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. THE GRAFT SCANDALS STILL SHAKE JAPAN

Investigation Shows Higher-Ups in All Branches of the Government Are Implicated in Theft.

Yokohama, July 3.—Discovery that the government's naval steel laundry management was involved in the graft scandal affecting the Japanese marine department threatened fresh trouble throughout the country today. At the outset it was supposed only a few officers responsible for buying electrical appliances had been corrupted. As the investigation broadened, the names of more and more, including a number of admirals, were dragged in. Increased to find that the enormous taxes squeezed out of them for naval purposes were, to a considerable extent, being pocketed by dishonest officials. The masses of Japanese have repeatedly shown alarming signs of their dissatisfaction with a government which has permitted them to be so grossly swindled.

With each succeeding revelation these demonstrations of popular discontent have been more emphatic. The uprising of a number of weeks ago, when the parliament houses were stormed, several lawmakers were mobbed, crowds rioted in the streets and the Yamato minister was finally driven from office, though immediately due to the general objection to still higher taxes for naval purposes, certainly never would have occurred but for the graft scandal.

Worried by these outbreaks, the government has been doing its latest investigating as secretly as possible and trying to suppress news of its discoveries. The belief is widespread, however, that enormous pecuniations have been discovered.

That the steel foundry management has been found to have shared in the loot probably would never have been known to the public but for the attempt made at suicide by Vice Admiral Baron Masuji Yamamochi, who was closely identified with it.

This was about June, 1908. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life." (Affidavit) JAS. SQUIRES. (Above abbreviated; more on request.) HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Don't Stay Gray! Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

AGED WOMAN TRIES TO BEAT A LAWYER

Miss Mary Shuff, Aged 65, Robbed by Land Sharks at Los Angeles, Attempts Blackmail.

Los Angeles, July 3.—A pitiful effort of Miss Mary Shuff, aged 65, a spinster, to raise money, betrayed her into the hands of the police, who have her in custody today, pending a further investigation of an attempt to extort $500 from M. M. Meyers, an attorney to which they say she has confessed. According to the story the police say Miss Shuff told, she stayed away from prayer meeting last Wednesday night for the first time in a quarter of a century to complete her plan. Finally, they say, she wrote an anonymous note to Meyers threatening to burn his house unless he left $500 in a can in an alley behind their homes. Meyers went to the police and a trap was laid. When Miss Shuff went for the money, the officers say, she found five men waiting with sawed off shotguns. She fled into her home, where the officers found her kneeling in prayer. Satan, she told them, has possessed her, and forced her to act as she did. Miss Shuff was robbed of her fortune by land sharks, her friends say and is almost penniless. Meyers was not expected to prosecute her.

SELLERS DEMAND TEN DOLLARS 'OR DEATH'

Pasadena, Cal., July 3.—A red hand letter and a black hand letter provided Chief of Police McIntyre with diversion today. The red hand letter demanded $500 of John Holloway, a merchant, under penalty of death. The sender of the black hand letter was more modest, demanding $10 of A. R. Klock. Both letters were grotesquely designed, and the police believe they were the work of boys. One was ornamented with the conventional "black hand", the other with a large hand drawn in red pencil.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES FOR JOURNAL READERS

TRIED RECIPES.

Pork Cutlets. Cut them about half an inch thick from a delicate loin of pork, trim into neat form, take off part of the fat or the whole of it, when it is not liked; dredge a little pepper or cayenne upon them and broil or fry over a clear and moderate fire from 15 to 18 minutes. Sprinkle a little fine salt upon them just before they are done. They may be dipped into egg and then into bread crumbs mixed with minced sage, then fried in the usual way. When fried, flour them well and season with salt and pepper. Serve with gravy made in pan.

Cherry Dumplings. Into a pint of prepared flour chop a heaping tablespoonful of butter, stir in an equal of milk and work into a dough. Roll into a sheet and cut into squares about four inches across. In the center of each square put a great spoonful of stoned and sugared cherries, pinch the four corners of the pastry together in the middle over the cherries and lay the dumplings, joined sides down, in a flour-dusted baking pan. Bake and eat hot with hard sauce.

Cherry Ice. Stem and stone a quart of cherries, crush and cover them with two cupfuls of sugar. At the end of an hour squeeze the cherries through a vegetable press and extract all the juice. To this add the juice of a lemon, a pint of water, and the unbeaten whites of three eggs. Turn all into a freezer and grind until you have a firm, light ice. Pack the freezer in ice and salt for an hour after the dasher is removed.

Cherry Fritters. Two cups of scalded milk, one quarter cup of cornstarch, one quarter cup of flour, one half cup of cold water, yolks of three eggs, one-half cup of cherries cut in halves. Mix the cornstarch, flour, sugar and the salt. Dilute with cold milk and add the beaten yolks; then add gradually to the scalded milk and cook 15 minutes in a double boiler. Add the cherries, pour into a buttered shallow tin and cool. Turn on a board, cut in squares, dip in flour, egg and crumbs, fry in deep hot fat and drain. Serve with sauce.—Jonesville Gazette.

Cherry Conserve. Cherry conserve is delicious: Add to two quarts of fresh cherries the juice and this yellow rind of four oranges and four pounds of sugar, and cook together until thick and tender; just before removing from the fire add one-half pound English walnut meats. Canned cherries may be used for this recipe. In this case use one quart of cherries.—New Haven Journal-Courier.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to Flush out Your Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer in an constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.
