BY MOLLIE RUNCORN.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knighton spent several days the latter part of last week as guests of friends in Portland. During their stay they were dinner guests of the Dr. A. E. Rookes at his splendid new country place, "Rockholm," which is located on the exclusive Riverside drive residence district. They were also guests at the smart garden party of the A. M. Smiths, given at their beautiful residence, also located on Riverside drive.

Sunday a party of Portland motorists, composed of Mr. and Mrs. O. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Stevens, and J. W. Newkirk, came up to be their guests for the day.

A very informal little bridge club, formed last fall, and which has met each week during the winter, was entertained by Mrs. S. M. Endicott Monday afternoon.

Mrs. G. W. Laffler and Mrs. W. O. Assen were additional guests, the club members being Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. S. S. East, Mrs. Craig Marvin, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Thomas Galloway, Mrs. Harry Wenderoth and Mrs. Howard.

Miss Grace Holt, a popular high school student, is being entertained by her classmate, Miss Edna Howd, at the Howd's country place at Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dane, Miss Grace Dane, and Clifford and Desmond Dane will spend their summer's outing at their cottage at Nye Beach, leaving for that place yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Needham and their two sons left Salem today for Bricentunah Springs, where they will enjoy a month's vacation.

Miss Jessie West, who is attending the Capital Business college this summer, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Miss Louanna Brown. Miss West has many friends here, where she formerly resided with her parents. At present their home is in Winlock, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Minto and son Jack left yesterday for Newport, expecting to remain there until the middle of August.

Mr. John W. Minto, of Portland, formerly of Salem, entertained last night at a card party at his home in East Twenty-second street, North. Mrs. C. L. Crellin, of Pleasanton, Cal., was the honored guest. Auction bridge furnished the diversion of the evening. A dainty supper followed the game. The rooms were decorated artistically with choice flowers from the gardens that surround the Minto residence.

Mrs. Crellin is the house guest of Mrs. Herbert Holman. Last Monday Mrs. D. W. Campbell gave an elaborate luncheon for the visitor. On Friday afternoon Mrs. Holman will be hostess at bridge, with Mrs. Crellin as the guest of honor.

Members of the First Congregational church and Sunday school held their annual picnic last night. Going by launch and motor, about 100 enjoyed the outdoor pastimes and attendant lunch on a lovely spot on the Hon. George W. Weeks' country place two miles north of Salem.

Mrs. F. E. Yantis and daughters, Mary and Birden, leave tomorrow morning for Portland and Seattle, expecting to be gone two weeks. While in Seattle they will attend the annual Portland, Mrs. Yantis and Birden being entertained as the guests of Mrs. Yantis' sister, Mrs. A. Keys. Miss Mary Yantis will be the guest of Miss Ruby Hoff, formerly of Salem.

Mrs. F. Jessup, a former Salem matron, is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. P. Carpenter. Mrs. Jessup is at chaperone at one of the sorority houses of the University of Oregon, making her home in Eugene.

Miss Anna Bryan and Miss Evelyn Nash are among the local people enjoying an outing at Newport. They will visit friends in Albany upon their return, which will be in August.

Teachers of the Baptist church converted their regular business meeting into an outdoor affair Tuesday evening, holding it at the attractive lawns at the state fair grounds. Following the business discussion, a picnic supper was served. July 28 has been decided upon as the date on which the annual church fair will be held, taking place amid the same surroundings. Those present Tuesday afternoon were: Rev. and Mrs. Harry Marshall and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roth and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roth and sons, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Davidson, Mrs. Joseph Walsh, Mrs. James B. Shanks, Mrs. Edward Shanks and children, Mr. Kopley and two daughters, Miss Irma Bushnell, Miss Inez Dennison, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson, John Brewer, Miss Katy Reinhardt, Miss Mina Gile and Miss Flo Innes.

BADGERS HAD BIG PICNIC YESTERDAY

Big Crowd Assembled at Fairgrounds to Talk Over Old Times—An Event that Grows More Delightful Yearly.

The "Badgers" held a picnic yesterday at the state fairgrounds. The picnic grounds were crowded at this, the fifth annual picnic of the Wisconsin residents in Oregon. One hundred and fifty persons registered, but with the visitors and children nearly 300 enjoyed the occasion. Some of the representatives were pioneers in Oregon, too, and many were the recipients of experiences they had in crossing the mountains to the new land, Oregon, where they were to make their homes. Old things, memories of the older generation, history to the younger folks, were recalled. At noon old-fashioned lunch-baskets were opened and the goodies were shared with those who had prepared a cafeteria luncheon, so even the old and new style "cats" mingled.

Mr. Hill opened the program, pleasing all with a violin medley, including improvising from popular to old-time melodies. Miss Morris gave a reading; J. W. Yates rendered two solos; Mrs. O. A. Noyes gave two enjoyable readings; Mrs. Trestrail gave a short talk and also read an appropriate poem. Of unusual interest was a poem read by W. L. Cummings, written by W. T. Williams, a Wisconsin resident, which was written for and first read several years ago at a Wisconsin gathering at Omro, calling forth so much approbation that it was forwarded to be read at Salem's reunion.

Verdon county had the largest representation this year, capturing the banner the second time. Trempaun county scored second and Wauashara carried away third honor for high attendance.

Arrangements were made to have a Wisconsin register open at the coming state fair so that visitors and residents could become acquainted. Plans are also on foot for a probable mid-winter meeting, and plans went on record for a sixth picnic to be held the middle Wednesday in July of next year. Officers elected for the coming year are: Captain Daniel Webster, president; W. H. Dalrymple, vice president, and Mrs. J. Snover, secretary. Reception committee, Mrs. R. Donaldson, Miss Southwick, Mrs. R. Donaldson, Miss Southwick, Mrs. R. Trestrail, Mrs. R. Morris, W. Cummings and J. Snover. Program committee, Mrs. M. Denison, Mrs. J. Snover, Mrs. O. Noyes and Mrs. R. Donaldson.

Those attending were: Mrs. A. Underhill, Viroqua; H. Davis, Oshkosh; Abbie Davis, Fort Atkinson; H. Corey, Burlington; F. Southwick, Viroqua; Emery Blodgett, Fenimore; Roy Blodgett, Fenimore; Casper Andregg, LaCrosse; Mrs. C. Andregg, LaCrosse; Clair Blodgett, LaCrosse; Mrs. O. Huncorn, Wauashara; L. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bureh and children will camp at Bickel for the balance of the summer, combining work and pleasure, as Mr. Bureh has steady employment there.

Mr. Joe Siddall and son, Mr. Dick Siddall, of Kings Valley, were recent guests at the J. H. Eaton home. Siddall, recently the Edmondson's moved into their new home at 245 Myers street. In her immediate family she leaves her husband and two sons, Donald aged 9, and Paul aged 1 1/2 years. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Pemberton; a sister, Mrs. C. A. Cole and a brother Dr. J. B. Pemberton also survive her.

The funeral took place this afternoon from the Friends church, Reverend Josephine Hockett and H. E. Pemberton officiating. A quartette composed of E. O. Newby, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hadley and Miss Hazel Keeler sang favorite hymns. The interment was in City View cemetery.

Over 200 mementos were found in the room of a female kleptomaniac, believed in laying up something for a rainy day.

AUTO PUMPER TESTS ARE SATISFACTORY

The new auto pumper of the Salem fire department was tried out this afternoon and amply fulfilled all expectations both as a pumping engine and a hose wagon. The first test was tried at North Mill creek on Summer and Division streets. Water was pumped from the creek through several lines of hose and an even pressure was maintained. It was proven that the water could be thrown from the creek upon the highest residence from the street level, in a good volume.

The engine was then brought down to the corner of Front and State streets where a line of hose was run from a stand pipe. It was demonstrated that the water could be thrown in sufficient volume to the top of the United States National Bank building. It was expressed by the members of the fire and water committee of the city council and the members of the board of underwriters that the engine had demonstrated that it could do all that was claimed of it. Councilman Constable, chairman of the fire and water committee, stated that he believed that the city of Salem now had the best fire protection that it had ever enjoyed and that the department was better equipped to fight fires than it had ever been before. The department has been able to reduce expenses by letting out two firemen and one team.

THE GOAT GOT BACK BY SMALL MAJORITY

Denver, Colo., July 16.—The "goat" motioned this morning in the ritual of Elks' initiations, following a sharp fight between the small town delegates and representatives of big cities, in which the small town friends of the old order of things were victorious by a vote of 254 to 244.

The opposition to reinstatement of the "goat" said such initiations were horseplay and a "return to barbarism." The ruling was finally amended so as to change the ritual and by-laws in such a way that lodges desiring to return to the old form of initiation may do so, but leaving the use of the "goat" optional with each lodge.

fico party fomented every one of these rebellions and plunged Mexico into a bitter war which will not end until these conspirators have been put to death.

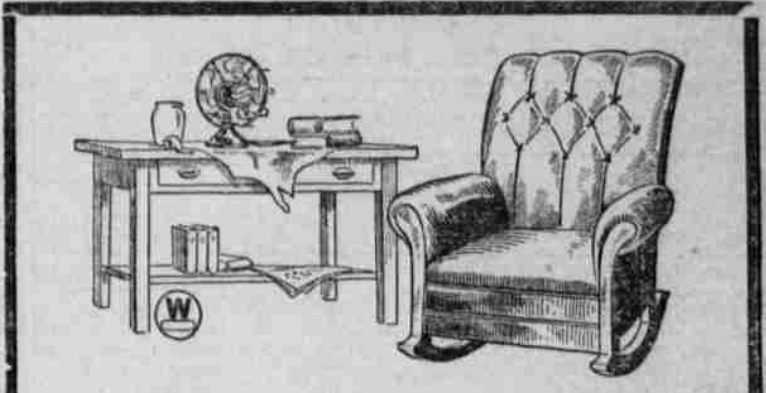

Land Owners Against Reform. "As these men are the large land owners and feudal lords of Mexico, they will never sit idly by and watch the common people rule the country. They will never listen to the idea of dividing the great estates and the restoration of a constitution which gives the masses the right to govern Mexico. If Rivera and Blanguet except, it means that they will foment rebellion from abroad. This should be extended as the common criminals which they undoubtedly are, and should be made to pay the penalty for their crimes.

No Peace While They Live. "It was the scientific who persecuted the people that Madero was not fulfilling his promises, and it was the old followers of Diaz who spread discontent among such illiterates as Pascual Orozco. Inez Salazar is a red-flagger who believed in nothing short of banditry. Zapata is a bad man fighting for a good cause—the division of the great landed estates, and the germs of rebellion were sown in their brains by the cunning conspirators.

"When the men of this type are put out of the way Mexico will flourish in peace. With the victorious army of the constitutionalists about to take possession of the capital there is already talk of a counter revolution in favor of Felix Diaz.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Prize For the Fairy Queen.

It dawned on daddy that it was high time for him to tell the children a fairy story, but before he had had time to suggest it Evelyn said: "Oh, daddy, do tell us a story about the fairies! You haven't for just ever and ever so long."

"No," said daddy; "that is quite true. I was thinking that myself this evening and had planned to tell you one. Besides, I haven't told you about the swimming party they gave the other day."

"The chief feature of this party was the diving competition. For this competition the fairy queen offered a prize of a great big bunch of pond lilies.

"All the fairies entered the competition, of course, and they all were such excellent divers and able to make such wonderful leaps into the water that the fairy queen could not make up her mind. Finally, though, she decided that perhaps little Lightfoot fairy had made almost the most wonderful dives. But then, just at that moment, Silver Wing made one of the most perfect dives the fairy queen had ever seen. And once more the fairy queen could not for the life of her decide who should win the prize.

"So she decided she would make a little speech. She called all the fairies over to the bank and began: "Little fairies," said she, "I cannot begin to tell you how I have admired the diving of every one of you."

"At this all the fairies looked so happy and so proud.

"But what has been puzzling me," continued the fairy queen, "has been to decide on the winner of the prize. So I have decided that every one of you will be given a pond lily instead of giving the whole bunch to one prize winner, for it would be quite impossible to do that."

"Whereupon the fairy queen presented to each little fairy a beautiful big pond lily. And oh, how happy and proud they all were!

"They suggested that the fairy queen should show them some of the wonderful dives she could make. So she loved to dive, and she always liked to help along the parties all she could. So she made all the different dives she knew, and the fairies clapped their hands and were absolutely delighted.

"But one little fairy seemed to be missing.

"Where has little Golden Hair gone?" someone suddenly shouted.

"The fairy queen stopped diving, and the fairies were just arranging to look for her in various cores of the little lake when she came in view, swimming for all she was worth and carrying with her an enormous pond lily and breathlessly shouting:
