The greatest trouble of a man who is minding his own business is that so many want to help him.

A Strong Indorsement.

W. H. Holmes, of the Decorah, Ia., Journal says: "I have been a sufferer from Piles and Hemmorhoids for years. I got no relief until my druggist recommended Meritol Pile Remedy. Before I had taken half the package the distress was gone and I have had no trouble since. I would not take a thousand dollars and be back in my former condition." Capital Drug Store, Salem, Oregon.

There Is Healing in Foley Kidney Pills.

You need a mighty good medicine if once your kidneys are exhausted by neglect and overwork, and you have got it in Foley Kidney Pills. Their action is prompt, healing and tonic. Sound health and sound kidneys follow their use. John Phillips, Mgr. Hambleton Gro. Co., Hambleton, W. Va., says: "Three boxes of Foley Kidney Pills completely cured me of kidney and bladder trouble, and I consider them invaluable. I sell them over my own recommendation." Try them. J. C. Perry.

Remember that it is of very little use to have a good heart if your manner is harsh and unkind.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. W. S. Gunsalus, a Pennsylvania farmer, residing near Fleming, P. O., Pa., says: "For the past fourteen years I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family and have found it to be an excellent remedy. Sometimes a man is willing to remain at the foot of the ladder for the purpose of pulling others down.

Taking Big Chances.

It is too great a risk to depend upon neighbors or sending for medicine in case of a sudden attack of bowel complaint. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from cholera morbus that could have easily been saved had the proper medicine been at hand. Then think of the suffering that must be endured until medicine can be obtained. The safe way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has never been known to fail and has undoubtedly saved the lives of many people. Buy it now. It only costs a quarter. For sale by all dealers.

Eases Torment of Asthma and Hay Fever.

For the discomfort and misery of asthma and hay fever use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It puts a healing, soothing coating over the swollen, tickling membranes, and eases the thick and choking sensation. Helps you to breathe easily and naturally. Mrs. Agatha Longacker, Fon du Lac, Wis., says: "My left lung was greatly affected by a severe cold, and one-half bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar cured me." Refuse any substitute offered. J. C. Nothing better for constipation, sour, distended stomach, bad breath or biliousness. Stops headaches quickly. J. C. Perry.

A PERFECT CATHARTIC.

There is sure and wholesome action in every dose of Foley Cathartic Tablets. They cleanse with never a gripe or pain. P. A. Morgan, Gore, Ga., writes: "I lately had occasion to use a liver medicine, and took Foley Cathartic Tablets. They thoroughly cleansed my system, and I felt like a new man—light and free." SPAIN GOOD LUMBER MARKET.

The American consul general at Barcelona, Spain, in a recent report says that especial attention should be given to the new lumber market in Spain that is bound to be created immediately upon the opening of the Panama canal to commercial traffic. The opportunity will be further increased upon the establishment of a regular freight service from the Pacific coast of the United States to Spanish and Portuguese ports by way of the isthmus.

The import lumber trade as it now stands in Spain is in a flourishing condition. Oregon and California woods, particularly Oregon pine, are well liked for their quality and especially for their large sizes. Several consignments have come to Spain, in reality transshipments from France, England and Germany, which puts the local quotations for this lumber at a high figure and renders it practically impossible to compete always with the pitch pine (long leaf yellow pine) from the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico ports. Pitch pine is extensively used in Spain and would, it is stated, be still further employed had there not been disputes between sellers and buyers as to quality of lots ordered. This unfortunately has led to a gradual rearrangement of conditions, so that now most importers buy through the large Spanish wood brokers who guarantee fulfillment of contracts and allow a good portion of the payment to stand over until the goods have been received and approved. Moreover, they agree to the insertion of a simple arbitration clause in the lumber contracts. At the present time only entire cargoes could profitably be brought direct from United States ports on the Pacific to Spain. This would be too considerable an undertaking regularly for any single importer with the existing high freights and would render a successful competition with pitch pine impossible. When smaller lots can be delivered direct, as is hoped will be possible by the opening of the interoceanic waterway and consequent reduced freights, there will be a certain increasing market for the woods of the Pacific coast.

MOUNTAINS OF CULM ARE DISAPPEARING

The mountains of culm or coal waste which break the sky line throughout the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania and which were for many years considered a nuisance are now being made to serve a very useful purpose. There is at present a market for almost any grade of anthracite that will burn, and no more coal goes to the culm bank except for temporary storage and subsequent recovery by washers. These ranges of artificial hills, unsightly monuments to former waste, are contributing their share to the total coal production and are rapidly disappearing. Even the waste from the culm-bank washers is being utilized, for it is flushed into the mines and partly fills old workings where it cements together and furnishes support to the roof when the coal previously left for pillars is removed.

A DREADFUL AFFAIR.

Christiania, Norway, July 21.— Official circles here were much wrought up today over Monday's dispute on the American steam yacht Pauline between Secretary of the United States Legation Franklin Mott Gunther, and the harbor minister, who had given offense by asking that the yacht change its anchorage in Christiania fjord to make room for the Kaisers yacht Meteor. According to the harbor master's account, Gunther finally knocked the former's uniform cap off.
