Women's New Wash Dresses

For remarkably low prices. We made a demand on two manufacturers of women's dresses to furnish us some extra good values in women's wash dresses for this sale. This they were kind enough to do, in the season's latest, made with long tunics, roll collars, and daintily trimmed, of flowered, striped and plain materials. We are offering these from $1.50 to $4.50 each. You'll wonder how they can be made for the price. They can't! The manufacturer loses—that's all—and it's your gain.

Women's New Fall Suits

Beautiful in the extreme. We do not know whether our Eastern manufacturers fear that there may be a big general Western railroad strike or not, but at any rate they have been rushing our fall merchandise to us at an unprecedented rate, and we find they are not at all too early, as people are already calining for them.

Children's Dresses EXTRA SPECIAL

In white and colored Summer Dresses for children from 2 to 14 years. Many of these garments are the long waisted effects, trimmed with plain bandings, pipings, embroidery or laces. The general remark of the casual observer is, "Oh, how pretty those little dresses are!"

LABOR HAS INNINGS BEFORE COMMISSION

Employers at Bat for Two Days Give Place to Labor Today in the Chicago Investigation by Committee.

Chicago, July 23.—Labor had its innings at today's hearing of the federal industrial relations committee, in session here. The first two days of the hearing were given over to testimony from representatives of the employers. The sessions of the commission, which were held in an effort to determine the principal causes of difference between labor and capital, probably will close Saturday.

Replying today to statements made before the commission by ex-President Charles Piez and Chief Counsel Dudley Taylor of the Illinois Manufacturers' association at previous sessions, President Fitzpatrick of the Chicago Federation of Labor made a strong defense of the workers in their efforts to better their condition.

"Big business holds a heavy hand at the workman's back," Fitzpatrick said, "and constantly presses downward. The control exercised by big business extends not only to industrial affairs, but the private lives of the workers."

Labor is an "it," as far as Mr. Piez is concerned. He forgets entirely that the worker is human. He has no idea that the workman in his shop has a wife and children behind him. There is a nice green lawn in front of his factory, an automobile drive and plenty of flowers—but there are no flowers in the foundry room where the men work."

Fitzpatrick ridiculed legislation designed to make the unions financially responsible for breach of contracts. Referring to the local labor troubles, he asserted that recent charges that labor agents here had been guilty of extortion and grafting were started by a Chicago newspaper in a campaign to discredit the labor movement.

John Glenn, secretary of the Illinois

Manufacturers' association, testified at this afternoon's session in advocacy of the open shop.

EXPOSITION GETS $500,000

Washington, July 23.—By a vote of 135 to 108, the house this afternoon refused to reconsider its decision appropriating $500,000 for a government building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition to be staged in San Francisco in 1915. The vote means the appropriation will stand and the building be erected.

POLICE LOOKING FOR PRETTY SCOTCH GIRL

Lottie Milne on Way to Court to Get Married Disappears and Not a Trace of Her Can Be Found.

San Francisco, July 23.—The San Francisco police were appealing today to the departments at cities between here and Toronto for aid in finding Miss Lottie Milne, a pretty Scotch girl of 20, who was on her way to the coast to marry Allen Watton and disappeared somewhere on the road.

Watton and Miss Milne met in Scotland two years ago, the former told the authorities, and became engaged. A little later Watton came to San Francisco to accept a position and Miss Milne accompanied her mother to Toronto.

Having fitted up a home Watton sent for his fiancée, who left Toronto July 15. Her ticket was over the Grand Trunk to Chicago, over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul to Omaha, over the Union Pacific to Ogden and over the Southern Pacific to San Francisco. Her baggage arrived in San Francisco July 19, but up to today its owner had not been heard from. After waiting 24 hours for her, Watton, frantic with anxiety, asked police help.

MRS. ROSS M'INTIRE FOUND DEAD IN BED

In Good Health When Husband Leaves Home in Morning But Dead When He Returned a Few Hours Later.

Florence Metcalf McIntire, wife of Dr. Ross T. McIntire, passed away at her home in Independence yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Apparently enjoying good health and about her duties in her new home in Independence, death came without a warning. Her husband had been called to visit a patient earlier in the morning. At 10 o'clock, during a short lull in his work, he talked to his wife over the phone. She was cheerful and in excellent spirits. Returning at 11:30 he found her dead. She had succumbed to heart disease. She seemed to be well, for only recently she spent a few days at Newport visiting her parents, and Friday she visited her sister, Olive Metcalf, at the maternal home, 1253 Court street, in this city.

Mrs. McIntire was popular in social, school and church circles of this city. In 1909 she was graduated from the Salem high school. She attended the Willamette university for three years and while there she and Dr. McIntire were students together, the doctor being a graduate of the Willamette medical school. She graduated from the University of Berkeley in June, 1913, and was married the following August to Dr. McIntire. With every promise of life's happiness, her untimely death brings heartfelt sorrow to relatives and friends.

She is survived by her husband, Dr. Ross T. McIntire; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Metcalf, and three sisters, Miss Olive Metcalf, Salem; Mrs. C. T. Doughty, Sheridan, and Mrs. R. A. Biecki, Phillips, South Dakota.

The funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the First M. E. church, Richard N. Avison officiating.

A cent a word will tell your story in the Journal New Today column.
