Editor of the Journal: In answer to Mr. Citizen, I would like to ask this person if he expects organized labor to lay down like a waipped cur whenever attacked and not rise up in defense of its principles, and does he expect union labor to boost this market which is owned and controlled by a man that told union labor to go to — and called them names so vile and unfit for expression that no mortal man can stand when those when went to Mr. Ryan like gentlemen for an explanation! And I would like to ask man can stand when those when went to Mr. Ryan like gentlemen for an explanation? And I would like to ask how much would a laboring man have to spend in this market if every one had the same view as to a day's wages as Mr. Ryan bas? I would ask again would Mr. Citizen feel so enthusiastic about this market if he had a written agreement signed by Mr. Ryan which was purposely and wantonly broken shortly after by Mr. Ryan, and should be told to go to — when you asked for an explanation? If you expect this you are asking too much. Further, I would advise Citizen to learn all he can about both sides of this controversy before saying anything. versy before saying anything.
