FINAL GAME TODAY FOR PRISON PENNANT

This afternoon the final game of the series at the Oregon State Penitentiary will be played off between the "Hitters" and the "Gladiators," the baseball teams representing the brickyard gang and the "house team," or those employed inside. The Hitters have won four and lost two games and the Gladiators have lost two but only won three, and they will play the game of their lives this afternoon. The third team of the league, made up of men in the tailor shop, is called the "Outlaws," but this team is at the bottom of the list with one game won and four lost. The Outlaws have a hard row to hoe at the state pen, it seems.

The rotund guard, W. F. Thompson, is the league magnate, and he says that any one of his three teams can beat any amateur team in the county, or in the state, for that matter, and the Capital Journal is authorized to hurl his challenge into the camps of any amateur team in the country that has the nerve to try conclusions with his wards. The teams have lost good men from time to time, but more keep coming in every day and the prison league scouts are never bothered by a man jumping his contract after he is once "signed up."

The present series has been continuing for several weeks and some hot contests for extra innings have been pulled off. The games are played on Saturday afternoon and the entire prison population turns out to root for their representatives.

The following is the personnel of the teams, their positions and batting averages:

Salem will practically be a closed town Monday, for a large majority of the laboring population will go to the Labor Day picnic near Rickreall to celebrate the day. The Salem banks will be closed, as the day is a legal holiday. While it has not been fully determined by the merchants to close their stores, many proprietors are allowing their help a vacation. It is certain that a number of the shops of the city will be shut up in honor of the day.

SALEM IS TO HAVE JEWISH SYNAGOGUE

For the first time in the history, the city of Salem is to have a Jewish synagogue. A number of the Jewish residents here have found it necessary to organize for the purpose of worshiping according to the ancient rites of their religion, and they accordingly rented a hall which will be used until such time as they are able to have a building of their own. It is located upstairs at 125 North Commercial street, over Pomeroy's jewelry store. The congregation officers are: H. Steinboch, president; M. Soloff, secretary; D. Samuel, treasurer.

Babbi Teorish, of Portland, has been engaged to direct the services of the congregation, which is to be known as Tiferes Zion. The synagogue will be opened September 21, which is the Jewish new year, being the first day of the month Tishri which is the first month of the year 5675 according to the Jewish method of reckoning. The ceremonies of the new year will last three days, and are known as Rosh Hashana, and correspond to the Christmas holidays of the Gentiles. September 30 is also an important event among the Jews, who call it Yom Kippur or the Day of Atonement, when the Fast of Expiation is held.

Robert Paulus, assistant manager of the Salem Fruit Union, is scheduled to return today from a week's vacation spent at Newport, Waldport and other beach resorts. It was thought he would return Thursday, but the fascination of the beaches was too much for him, and he lingered to listen to the singing of the sirens of the sea. He is due to be back at his desk in the fruit union this afternoon.

The funeral services of Antony Klein were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence at 118 Oak street. The services, simple and impressive, were read by Mrs. A. S. Flint, first reader of the Christian Science church. Mrs. W. Carleton Smith sang "A Perfect Day," a family favorite. The pallbearers were five brothers-in-law and a nephew, Messrs. The contract for the steam heating plant at the court house was let today to T. M. Barr, who will install the entire plant for $2,145. The lowest bid, that of the Pacific Heating company, for $1,820.80, was not considered, as the references furnished by Mr. Williams were not sufficient. The contract calls for a gravity steam heating plant and the entire cost of the remodeling at the court house will cost about $2,700. This includes the chimney, preparation of the furnace room, drainage, cement floor, etc. The plant is large enough so that the attic may be heated if necessary. The other bids were as follows: Spinning-Carnell Co., $2,468; F. J. Page, $2,154; Fraxer & Pratt, $2,480; W. G. McPherson Co., $2,530.

According to Nish advices, the victory the Serbians won over the Austrians at Jadar was even more complete than this, the assertion being made that more than 30,000 Austrians were killed alone.

These figures were unofficial. A message from Cetinje said the Montenegrins now controlled the coast of the Austrian province of Dalmatia from Antivaria to Cattaro.

TRIBUTE FROM SALEM MINISTERIAL UNION

Inasmuch as our honored brother, the Rev. P. S. Knight, has been promoted from his service on earth to the higher service in the kingdom of God, be it resolved that we, the members of the Salem Ministerial Union, express our highest appreciation of his long life of labor in the Willamette valley.

Many churches, organizations and buildings stand as monuments to his efficient labors. But a greater monument is his place in the hearts of the people, the love of thousands to whom he has ministered in the time of their greatest joys and deepest sorrows.

Unto the last, his interest in the kingdom of God seemed to increase, rather than to lessen, and his later years were filled with as joyous activity as those of his youth.

As ministers, we feel that, in his life we have received a rich heritage. He is typical of that great generation of pioneer preachers who are now passing from the field of action. Their labors now are ours. May we be as worthy and as efficient.

To the members of his family, and to his dear friends, whose name is legion, we extend our deepest sympathy in their sorrow. But with them we rejoice, also, and offer thanksgiving for the life that so greatly enriched theirs.

SALEM MINISTERIAL UNION, By the Committee.
