JOURNAL CONTEST IS GETTING RED HOT

Pearl Zinn Jumps to Second Place, Only 30 Votes Behind the Leader

Miss Jean McInturf was still leading in the Capital Journal's Panama-Pacific contest when the votes were counted today. Pearl Zinn had moved up to second place and was only a few votes behind the leader. Mrs. Hibbler was third. Decided gains were made by Ruth Fugate and Mildred Atherton.

Altogether the contest is becoming closer and much more interesting as it progresses, and more of the friends of the young lady contestants are taking part in it with each succeeding day. Many trade checks are being brought into the Capital Journal office for which votes are issued, but not all these votes are being deposited in the ballot box. Many are being held out by the candidates to be voted later on in the contest.

The trip to the great exposition with its wealth of world-wide wonders, will be the event of a life time for the fortunate winner, and the Capital Journal guarantees that no expense will be spared in making it a pleasant one. First class railroad fare, the best of hotel accommodations, and facilities for seeing the great fair at its best will be provided free of all charge by this paper. It will be a prize well worth working for.

KAISER'S FORCES ACTIVE IN AFRICA

Cape Town, Union of South Africa, Sept. 11.—The Kaiser's forces from both German Southwest and German East Africa were active today against the British.

So far as could be learned the British force dispatched against the invaders from the former territory were not yet in touch with the enemy. News of fighting was expected shortly, however.

On Lake Nyassa the British had already gained one victory. The invaders attacked the British station of Karonga and for a time pressed the British hard. The latter were finally reinforced and drove the Germans back.

Definite figures were lacking but the losses were said to have been severe.

Some light artillery figured in the engagement.

ROAD TO SALEM WILL BE BUILT

President Sprouts, of S. P. Co., Says Work Has Been Resumed Between Portland and Oregon City.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 11.—William Sprouts, president of the Southern Pacific company, arrived in Portland last night after a trip over the system's lines in Oregon.

He is here to inspect the various improvements recently made and now being made by the Southern Pacific on its main branch and subsidiary lines. So far as he has seen the property he is well satisfied with the work performed. He will remain here for a few days and complete a thorough inspection before returning to his office at San Francisco.

Branch Roads Inspected.

Since coming to Oregon last Sunday Mr. Sprouts has been over the Corvallis & Eastern, a Southern Pacific subsidiary operating between Albany and Yachima Bay; the Pacific Highway & Navigation line, between Hillsboro and Tillamook, and various other branch roads.

"Oregon ought to be well pleased with its railroads," he said last night. "In spite of the financial depression the roads in this state have been able to continue some of their improvements."

"The road to Yachima Bay now is in good condition and constantly is being made better. We are doing a lot of work on the Tillamook line, too, and are bringing it up to a high standard."

"We have no piece of road on our system that is as attractive to travelers as the road to Tillamook. It has scenery of a varied nature, including mountains, streams and valleys. It offers hunting and fishing close to the tracks and a delightful stretch of beach country."

ASKS TRANSFER OF VOTES AND MORTGAGES CANCELLED

In the suit of the Bank of Woodburn against Philip Kuntz and Emma A. Kuntz the complaint asks that the assignment of the notes to Emma Kuntz by Philip Kuntz be set aside and annulled and that the assignment of the mortgages be cancelled. The bank alleges that it has loaned Philip Kuntz, Al Miehler and The People's Store the sum of $1000 on two different notes. Action to recover money on these notes resulted in a judgment against the defendants in the sum of $918.40 and costs. The People's Store and Al Miehler are alleged to be insolvent.

It is alleged in the complaint that Philip Kuntz held two notes one for $300 and one for $700 but that he assigned these notes to Emma A. Kuntz and it is to set aside the assignment that this suit was started.

GENERAL LEMEN TELLS OF BATTLE AT LIEGE

Antwerp, via The Hague, Sept. 11.—A letter to King Albert from General Lemen, who directed the Belgian defense at Liege and is now a prisoner in a German fortress, was made public here today.

"Your majesty will learn with grief," the general wrote, "that Fort Louvain has been blown up and that most of the garrison is buried in the ruins."

"That I did not lose my life is due to the fact that I was drawn from the ruins while softening from the gas arising from the burning powder."

"I am a prisoner, physically shattered by the explosion."

"I surrendered neither the forts nor the town, and ask pardon for the first which destroyed the forts."

"I would willingly have given my life the better to have served Belgium and my king, but death was not granted to me."

WITHDRAWS TROOPS FROM

operating in this region were making their best speed southward.

The Belgians took the offensive the moment the evacuation began.

A strong Belgian column attacked the rear of a German corps in the Audenarde-Contrai-Renaix district and in the fight which ensued there were heavy losses on both sides.

It was believed the Germans were about to evacuate all of northern Belgium and northeastern France. Their lines of communication are endangered. News of an Anglo-Belgian raid on them was momentarily expected here.

Beligians Get Active.

The Hague, Sept. 11.—Belgium's forces from Antwerp were reported here today to be growing more and more active east and northwest of Brussels.

They were said to have retaken Aerschet and to be in the outskirts of what is left of Louvain.

From accounts of their movements it was thought they must be seriously threatening the German's northern lines of communication.

French and English advisers continued to insist that no confirmation had been received for some time, however, by the Germans, so that the allies would have had no means of hearing from them directly.

IS HELD FOR MURDER.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—Mrs. Olive Hagen of San Jose, who shot and killed Crayton Putnam here August 14, was held to answer on a murder charge today by Police Judge Sullivan. She was committed without bail. The defense did not offer evidence.

BAIN FUNERAL TODAY.

The funeral services of John Bain, veteran of the civil war, were held this morning from the parlors of Rigdon & Richardson. Interment was in City View cemetery in the G. A. R. circle. He took part in the battles of Bull Run, Antietam, Gaines Hill, Malvern Hill and Fredericksburg, having served in the years of 1858 to 1863, being discharged for disability. He has been in the State Institution for the Insane for the past eight years, where he passed away at the age of 84 years, last Wednesday morning.

REPORTED ON COOS BAY

North Bend, Ore., Sept. 11.—The Evening Record, of Marshfield, prints a statement that W. J. Wilbey, of Portland, is buying the entire holdings of the Simpson Lumber company in Coos county, for a European syndicate, including the company's steam sawmills. The Simpson property includes large water frontage in this city, tide flats on Pony Islet, several sawmills, and valuable timber lands in different sections of the country.

The price of the property is said to be $4,000,000.

WHAT SHALL I DO MOTION?

Many discouraged young men and young women have asked that question when finding themselves handicapped because of insufficient training.

The wise mother or father will advise using part of their savings, saving closely, if necessary, to take a course at our school.

Business today is an exacting taskmaster. The business world is seeking men and women who can carry its burden, and the limit of pay that these people receive is not yet fixed.

The rewards come to the well trained. A right start is a count at the
