

Social and Personal Notes

By Mollie Runcorn

unusually prepossessing young woman, and made many friends here during her frequent visits at the D. A. Hodge home, where she was entertained as the guest of Miss Ruth and Miss Margaret Hodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodge left for Florence this morning to attend the funeral, which will be held at that place.

Members of the Philodorian Literary society, the oldest boys' society in Willamette university, will hold its first meeting of the year Wednesday night, September 23, in their rooms in Walter Hall.

The following article taken from a Portland paper will be of interest here, where Miss Fisher played in stock several years ago:

A stranded theatre company in Silverton, Ore., gave Margarita Fischer her first opportunity to bask in the limelight, where she has remained ever since. It was back in 1898 when John Fischer and his family ran the Commercial hotel in Silverton, and Margarita in her early teens, known then as "Babe," waited on table.

An amateur theatrical company was the result of a desire on his part to get out of town and Margarita was forced into service. Without previous training and with only a few rehearsals she showed a talent for acting that was remarkable.

Posters announced that Margarita was the youngest leading woman in America and for two years or more the family appeared through Oregon in a variety of plays.

Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Winter entertained the members of the Sunday school board, Sunday school teachers, and young men and women of the classes of the United Evangelical church last night at their home on Chemeketa street.

Miss Mabel Cooper of Independence, left recently for New York City to complete her special library course. Miss Cooper is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and is entering on her second year's work in the eastern college.

Coming as a distinct shock to her friends here was the news of the death of Miss Jean Sherman of Ocean View, who was drowned Sunday afternoon at Florence while on a pleasure trip with friends. She was an assistant teacher in the high school at the latter place.

Daddy's Bedtime Story - The Fairy That Lived in a Seashell. And Swam Out Where They Were.

DADDY, what makes that noise in the seashell? asked Evelyn one night as she and Jack ran to their daddy. Evelyn with a big conch shell in her hand that she and Jack had found at the seashore. "That noise?" asked daddy, taking the shell and placing it to his ear. "Why, that must be the voice of the fairy that used to live in it."

CHILDREN'S EXHIBITS AT ARMORY FRIDAY

School Children Will Make It --And All Salem Will Go to See It

PERSONALS

Maurice Winters, of Portland, a prominent commercial traveller, is visiting in Salem. Mr. Winters is well known here and his trip here combines pleasure and business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Minton, of Portland, are guests at the Bligh. R. E. Winters, a telephone representative from Portland, is at the Bligh.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rount and daughter, of Monument, are guests at the Bligh.

Rev. Richard N. Avison will leave for Portland tomorrow to attend the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church for the western part of the State, which is in session until next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Morton and child, who have been camping at the state fair grounds for the past three weeks, left for their home in Portland today.

Twenty-eight pupils enrolled yesterday at the Oregon State School for the blind. There were seven new pupils on the opening day.

Work on the new Exhibition pavilion at the State fair grounds is progressing rapidly. Departments are being separated, and decorators are already commencing putting up embellishments of cereals, etc.

This afternoon the funeral of Lowell Wellington Porter, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Porter, of North Salem, was held from the Leland & Clegg undertaking parlors on Court street.

L. W. Buckley, one of the managers of the Manufacturers' and Land Products show to be held in Portland soon, was in Salem today to confer with the executive committee of the Willamette Valley Exposition association.

Justice Webster's court this afternoon was the scene of the trial of the damage suit brought by F. A. Turner against G. W. Tobin, a wood dealer of Polk county.

MODART CORSETS Front Laced

Advertising will not make you see the actual value in MODART front laced Corsets. The most it can accomplish is to induce you to see and examine them.

U.G. SHIPLEY CO. LIBERTY STREET. QUALITY MERCHANDISE POPULAR PRICES

DALLAS NEWS AND PERSONAL MENTION

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Dallas, Sept. 21.—The large plant that furnishes heat and water for the business houses of Dallas has been remodelled and is giving good satisfaction to the users.

Harold Miller was in Dallas Friday and Saturday where he was saying his last good bys to his friends and relations. He intends to attend the Willamette University this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bronson from McMinnis Valley was in Dallas Saturday attending the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gardner and daughter, were Dallas visitors Saturday. Mr. Gardner is a prosperous farmer from the Luckenbute.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO PERMIT BANNER

A petition is presented by a number of citizens asking permission to stretch a banner across the intersection of State and Liberty streets bearing the legend, "For Congress, Fred Holbert."

THE FAIR GROUNDS BULLETIN SUNDAY

A thousand people thronged the grounds yesterday and the number of persons registering for camping space exceeded expectations.

Weather indications are that the coming week will bless us with good weather. No rain today.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Bagley of Lewisville were in Dallas Friday looking after their exhibits at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Craven returned to their home in Alhambra, Cal., Saturday morning. Mr. Craven has been visiting with his sons for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Craven returned to their home in Alhambra, Cal., Saturday morning. Mr. Craven has been visiting with his sons for several weeks.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE! WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 23rd

HAROLD BELL WRIGHT'S GREAT NOVEL The SHEPHERD of the HILLS Dramatized by Mr. Wright and Elsbury W. Reynolds

They have had an exceedingly disagreeable time in erecting their tented city home. Oregon weather has been at its worst.

FAMILY NEEDS HELP. Bereft and sick a family at 570 Perry street in destitute circumstances are in need of help.

The auto-truck is the friend as well as rival of the big drifter.