

BOSTON WINS THIRD OF WORLD'S SERIES IN 12-INNING GAME

(Continued from Page One.)

bled the ball but made a quick recovery and beat Oldring by two steps with his throw to first. Collins up, ball one, strike one called; Collins was safe and Murphy scored when Connolly dropped Collins' sacrifice fly. He had to move only a few feet for the ball and it was a pure miff. Baker up, strike one swung, ball one, ball two, strike two called; Baker fanned, swinging mightily at a high one outside the plate. McInnes walked, Collins had teased several pitches out of Tyler when he was off first and those gave McInnes a good start toward his base on balls. Walsh up, ball one. Collins out; he was caught napping at second, Tyler to Evers. Eddie was sound asleep. One run, one hit, one error.

Collins' nap pulled the Braves out of a bad hole. The Boston outfit was palpably nervous and Tyler was having trouble with his control when Collins was caught off second.

Boston: Moran up, ball one, ball two, ball three, strike one called, strike two called, foul, foul, foul; Moran flied to Collins, who backed far into right center to take the ball. Moran drew three straight balls and fouled off four before flying out. Evers up, strike one called, ball one; Evers singled to left center. It was a whopping drive and the Boston fans roared their heads off as he galloped to first.

Connolly up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul, ball two, ball three, foul; Connolly flied to Baker, who ran almost to the Athletics' bench to take the ball. Whitted up, ball one, strike one called. Evers stole second. Strike two, foul, ball two, ball three; Whitted fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

This was the slowest inning of the series to date. Neither Tyler nor Bush appeared certain of his control. Bush especially teetered, walking around the box leisurely between each ball pitched.

Philadelphia: Walsh up, strike one, Walsh out, Tyler to Schmidt. He topped a low ball and sent the easiest kind of a roller to the pitcher. Barry up, strike one swung, ball one, ball two; Barry fouled to Schmidt, who made a startling catch, three feet back of first while running backward. Schang up, strike one swung, ball one, ball two, strike two called, ball three; Schang flied to Evers. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Evers rubbed Schang of what looked like a sure hit at the conclusion of the inning. He ran far back into right field, stuck up his glove and dragged Schang's drive down from the ozone. Tyler's control was better and the Braves were playing a tight game.

Boston: Schmidt up, ball one, strike one called, ball two, strike two called, foul, ball three; Schmidt fanned. Bush got himself into a hole by giving Schmidt three straight ones, but settled down and finally made the big Dutchman swing on a high one outside. Deal up, strike one; Deal flied to Baker, who almost twisted himself into a knot before he finally got under the ball. Maranville up, ball one, strike one called, ball two, ball three; Maranville walked. Bush was having trouble with both his fast ball and curves. He pitched low to the midget. Maranville made him go the limit. Gowdy up, strike one called. Maranville stole second, Schang's throw being low. Gowdy doubled into the left field, scoring Maranville. It was a great drive and would have been a home run on any field but Fenway Park. Evidently it had been agreed upon that drives into the left field stand would be good for only two bases. Gowdy's hit fell among the Royal Rooters, and there was a great scramble to keep the ball as a souvenir. The man who got it is the proud man in Boston. Tyler up, ball one, strike one called, strike two called, ball two; Tyler out, Barry to McInnes. One run, one hit, no errors.

Good Buys in Real Estate

6 acres of fine garden land, 4-room house, barn, chicken-house and yard, fruit trees and berries, good well, macadam road, 3 miles from Salem; price $1400; $800 down, balance 7 per cent interest.

5-room house, bath, toilet, electric lights, barn, bearing fruit trees; lot 75 by 150, east front; close to school and car line. Price $1500; $700 down, balance 7 per cent interest.

100 acres of land, 1 1/2 miles from railroad station. Will consider city property in exchange. Price $20 per acre.

20 acres of good prune land, 18 acres under cultivation, balance timber. Price $1700; $300 down, balance $200 per year, 6 per cent interest.

4-room house and two lots in North Salem. Price $1200; $50 down, balance $10 per month.

5 acres good land, nearly all under cultivation, four miles from Salem and close to railroad station. Price $750; $25 down, balance $5 per month.

20-acre farm, good 8-room house, large new barn, chicken-house, running water, fine spring, family orchard, close to school; macadam road, 2 1/2 miles from Salem. Price $5000.

20 acres of good land, 17 acres under cultivation, balance pasture, 5 acres bearing peach orchard, 3 1/2 miles from Salem, price $3750.

152-acre farm, 80 acres under cultivation, balance timber and pasture; running water, fine spring, house, barn. Will consider city property as part payment. Price $45 per acre.

Well improved 24-acre house, close in. Will take good 6-room modern house as part payment. Price $10,000.

Acres tracts just outside the city limits, all in bearing orchard, good soil. Price $500 per acre; $25 down, balance $5 per month.

If you want to buy, trade or sell, see us.

W. H. Grabenhorst & Co. Room 3, Bush Bank Building

Philadelphia: Collins up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Collins singled to third. Deal hit with his gloved hand or it would have gone through for two bases or perhaps three. Baker up, ball one, ball two; Baker hit into a double play, Evers to Maranville to Schmidt. Maranville made a wonderful play. Collins ran into him at second but the midget made the throw to first nevertheless. McInnes up, out on the first pitched ball, Deal to Schmidt. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Maranville's relay of Evers' assist was really a wonderful play. He fell forward on his face after making the throw, his collision with Collins having thrown him from his feet.

Boston: Whitted up, strike one swung, strike two called, ball one, ball two; Whitted out, Bush to McInnes, on an easy tap which Bush fielded with his gloved hand and got to McInnes far ahead of the runner. Schmidt up, ball one; Schmidt flied to Oldring. The ball soared high in the air but it was an easy catch for the Babe. Deal up, ball one, strike one, ball two, foul; Deal doubled into the left field stand inside the foul line. The fans indulged in a mighty scramble for the ball. Maranville up, ball one; Maranville popped to Schang. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Bush seemed to be getting stronger as the game progressed. He was at his best when the sun was obscured by the clouds, for it was then he would use his fast ball most effectively. The general play was becoming snappier as both teams were heged to a high tension because of the tied score.

Philadelphia: Walsh up, strike one called, strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Walsh fouled to Deal. He hit a high one inside, and it glanced off his bat high into the air for an easy out. Barry up, strike one swung, ball one; Barry out, Tyler to Schmidt. It was the easiest kind of a chance. Schang up, ball one, ball two, strike one called, ball three; Schang out, Evers to Schmidt. No runs, no hits, no errors.

At the end of the Athletics' half of the seventh the fans took their seats, accompanied by tremendous cheering, and began pulling for a rally.

Boston: Gowdy up, strike one called; strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Gowdy out, Barry to McInnes. Gowdy got into a hole by getting two strikes right off the reel and Bush then induced him to strike at a bad one. Tyler up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Tyler fanned, taking a look at the third strike. Moran up, Moran out, Barry to McInnes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Bush was pitching a much stronger game. Instead of letting the batsmen get him in a hole and then being forced to cut the plate with the ball, he got the sphere over on the jump and got the batsmen in the hole.

Philadelphia: Bush up; Bush out, Schmidt to Tyler. The ball got past Tyler but he ran back and made a pretty throw to Tyler after he had knocked down the drive. Bush hit the first ball pitched. Murphy up, ball one, strike one swung, strike two called; Murphy flied to Whitted. It was an easy air-line drive which Whitted plucked out of a ray of the sun. Oldring up, ball one, strike one swung; Oldring flied to Moran. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston rooters arose as a man and implored the Braves to put across the winning run in this inning. The Royal Rooters' hand in the left field stand held his hand down to indicate where it struck, and it was out of the line by inches. The crowd went wild with joy at first, and then snubbed dejected. Ball two; Maranville singled to right center, scoring Schmidt. It was a beautifully placed hit. The midget reached out after the ball and connected with the end of his bat. Walsh made a game try for it, making a headlong dive when the ball was only about two feet from the ground. Gowdy up, ball one, strike one called, ball two. Maranville stole second and went to third on Schang's low throw. It was a palpable error for the catcher, as Collins did not have the ghost of a chance to stop the ball. Gowdy still up, ball one, ball two, ball three; Gowdy walked. Gowdy was purposely passed. Bush had too much respect for the lanky backstop's batting prowess. He was afraid the big fellow would smash another into the left field bleachers. On an attempted double steal Maranville was caught off third base, Schang to Collins. One run, two hits, one error.

Maranville was off like a shot on his foul hit to right and had completely circled the bases before Hildebrand managed to show that the ball had not struck in fair territory. The play which caught Maranville off third was lightning fast.

Philadelphia: Schang up, ball one; Schang flied to Moran. It was a high hit ball but did not have the power to carry it along. Bush up, strike one, foul; Bush out, Deal to Schmidt. Bush's drive got to Deal in a fraction of a second but he stopped running when he saw the third sacker field the ball. Murphy up, ball one, ball two, strike one called, strike two, foul, ball three, foul; Murphy doubled to left center, his second double of the game. The hit looked good for only one base but Murphy sprinted at top speed and made second with time to spare. Oldring up, ball one, ball two, strike one swung, strike two, foul; Oldring fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Oldring's punch out in this inning was his fourth of the series. He swung hard but was missing Tyler's shoots a foot. The crowd gave Tyler a great hand as he returned to the bench.

Boston: Tyler up, ball one, strike one called; strike two swung, foul, ball two; Tyler out, Bush to McInnes. The south-law gave the ball a stinging crack but it proved to be a sharp grounder direct at the pitcher. Moran up, strike one, foul, ball one; Moran out, Barry to McInnes. It was the simplest kind of a chance, Barry being able to make a lazy play on the ball. Evers up, ball one, ball two, strike one called; Evers singled to left, his second hit of the game. He gave the ball a vicious wallop and it was only the fastest kind of fielding by Oldring which prevented it from going for two bases. Connolly up; Connolly out, Collins to McInnes, on the first ball pitched. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The crowd expected something from Connolly and gave him a hand when he came up after Evers' single. His offering was easy for Collins.

Philadelphia: Collins up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Collins singled to third. Deal hit with his gloved hand or it would have gone through for two bases or perhaps three. Baker up, ball one, ball two; Baker hit into a double play, Evers to Maranville to Schmidt. Maranville made a wonderful play. Collins ran into him at second but the midget made the throw to first nevertheless. McInnes up, out on the first pitched ball, Deal to Schmidt. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Maranville's relay of Evers' assist was really a wonderful play. He fell forward on his face after making the throw, his collision with Collins having thrown him from his feet.

Boston: Whitted up, strike one swung, strike two called, ball one, ball two; Whitted out, Bush to McInnes, on an easy tap which Bush fielded with his gloved hand and got to McInnes far ahead of the runner. Schmidt up, ball one; Schmidt flied to Oldring. The ball soared high in the air but it was an easy catch for the Babe. Deal up, ball one, strike one, ball two, foul; Deal doubled into the left field stand inside the foul line. The fans indulged in a mighty scramble for the ball. Maranville up, ball one; Maranville popped to Schang. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Bush seemed to be getting stronger as the game progressed. He was at his best when the sun was obscured by the clouds, for it was then he would use his fast ball most effectively. The general play was becoming snappier as both teams were heged to a high tension because of the tied score.

Philadelphia: Walsh up, strike one called, strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Walsh fouled to Deal. He hit a high one inside, and it glanced off his bat high into the air for an easy out. Barry up, strike one swung, ball one; Barry out, Tyler to Schmidt. It was the easiest kind of a chance. Schang up, ball one, ball two, strike one called, ball three; Schang out, Evers to Schmidt. No runs, no hits, no errors.

At the end of the Athletics' half of the seventh the fans took their seats, accompanied by tremendous cheering, and began pulling for a rally.

Boston: Gowdy up, strike one called; strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Gowdy out, Barry to McInnes. Gowdy got into a hole by getting two strikes right off the reel and Bush then induced him to strike at a bad one. Tyler up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Tyler fanned, taking a look at the third strike. Moran up, Moran out, Barry to McInnes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Bush was pitching a much stronger game. Instead of letting the batsmen get him in a hole and then being forced to cut the plate with the ball, he got the sphere over on the jump and got the batsmen in the hole.

Philadelphia: Bush up; Bush out, Schmidt to Tyler. The ball got past Tyler but he ran back and made a pretty throw to Tyler after he had knocked down the drive. Bush hit the first ball pitched. Murphy up, ball one, strike one swung, strike two called; Murphy flied to Whitted. It was an easy air-line drive which Whitted plucked out of a ray of the sun. Oldring up, ball one, strike one swung; Oldring flied to Moran. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston rooters arose as a man and implored the Braves to put across the winning run in this inning. The Royal Rooters' hand in the left field stand held his hand down to indicate where it struck, and it was out of the line by inches. The crowd went wild with joy at first, and then snubbed dejected. Ball two; Maranville singled to right center, scoring Schmidt. It was a beautifully placed hit. The midget reached out after the ball and connected with the end of his bat. Walsh made a game try for it, making a headlong dive when the ball was only about two feet from the ground. Gowdy up, ball one, strike one called, ball two. Maranville stole second and went to third on Schang's low throw. It was a palpable error for the catcher, as Collins did not have the ghost of a chance to stop the ball. Gowdy still up, ball one, ball two, ball three; Gowdy walked. Gowdy was purposely passed. Bush had too much respect for the lanky backstop's batting prowess. He was afraid the big fellow would smash another into the left field bleachers. On an attempted double steal Maranville was caught off third base, Schang to Collins. One run, two hits, one error.

Maranville was off like a shot on his foul hit to right and had completely circled the bases before Hildebrand managed to show that the ball had not struck in fair territory. The play which caught Maranville off third was lightning fast.

Philadelphia: Schang up, ball one; Schang flied to Moran. It was a high hit ball but did not have the power to carry it along. Bush up, strike one, foul; Bush out, Deal to Schmidt. Bush's drive got to Deal in a fraction of a second but he stopped running when he saw the third sacker field the ball. Murphy up, ball one, ball two, strike one called, strike two, foul, ball three, foul; Murphy doubled to left center, his second double of the game. The hit looked good for only one base but Murphy sprinted at top speed and made second with time to spare. Oldring up, ball one, ball two, strike one swung, strike two, foul; Oldring fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Oldring's punch out in this inning was his fourth of the series. He swung hard but was missing Tyler's shoots a foot. The crowd gave Tyler a great hand as he returned to the bench.

Boston: Tyler up, ball one, strike one called; strike two swung, foul, ball two; Tyler out, Bush to McInnes. The south-law gave the ball a stinging crack but it proved to be a sharp grounder direct at the pitcher. Moran up, strike one, foul, ball one; Moran out, Barry to McInnes. It was the simplest kind of a chance, Barry being able to make a lazy play on the ball. Evers up, ball one, ball two, strike one called; Evers singled to left, his second hit of the game. He gave the ball a vicious wallop and it was only the fastest kind of fielding by Oldring which prevented it from going for two bases. Connolly up; Connolly out, Collins to McInnes, on the first ball pitched. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The crowd expected something from Connolly and gave him a hand when he came up after Evers' single. His offering was easy for Collins.

Philadelphia: Collins up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Collins singled to third. Deal hit with his gloved hand or it would have gone through for two bases or perhaps three. Baker up, ball one, ball two; Baker hit into a double play, Evers to Maranville to Schmidt. Maranville made a wonderful play. Collins ran into him at second but the midget made the throw to first nevertheless. McInnes up, out on the first pitched ball, Deal to Schmidt. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Maranville's relay of Evers' assist was really a wonderful play. He fell forward on his face after making the throw, his collision with Collins having thrown him from his feet.

Boston: Whitted up, strike one swung, strike two called, ball one, ball two; Whitted out, Bush to McInnes, on an easy tap which Bush fielded with his gloved hand and got to McInnes far ahead of the runner. Schmidt up, ball one; Schmidt flied to Oldring. The ball soared high in the air but it was an easy catch for the Babe. Deal up, ball one, strike one, ball two, foul; Deal doubled into the left field stand inside the foul line. The fans indulged in a mighty scramble for the ball. Maranville up, ball one; Maranville popped to Schang. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Bush seemed to be getting stronger as the game progressed. He was at his best when the sun was obscured by the clouds, for it was then he would use his fast ball most effectively. The general play was becoming snappier as both teams were heged to a high tension because of the tied score.

Philadelphia: Walsh up, strike one called, strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Walsh fouled to Deal. He hit a high one inside, and it glanced off his bat high into the air for an easy out. Barry up, strike one swung, ball one; Barry out, Tyler to Schmidt. It was the easiest kind of a chance. Schang up, ball one, ball two, strike one called, ball three; Schang out, Evers to Schmidt. No runs, no hits, no errors.

At the end of the Athletics' half of the seventh the fans took their seats, accompanied by tremendous cheering, and began pulling for a rally.

Boston: Gowdy up, strike one called; strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Gowdy out, Barry to McInnes. Gowdy got into a hole by getting two strikes right off the reel and Bush then induced him to strike at a bad one. Tyler up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Tyler fanned, taking a look at the third strike. Moran up, Moran out, Barry to McInnes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Bush was pitching a much stronger game. Instead of letting the batsmen get him in a hole and then being forced to cut the plate with the ball, he got the sphere over on the jump and got the batsmen in the hole.

Philadelphia: Bush up; Bush out, Schmidt to Tyler. The ball got past Tyler but he ran back and made a pretty throw to Tyler after he had knocked down the drive. Bush hit the first ball pitched. Murphy up, ball one, strike one swung, strike two called; Murphy flied to Whitted. It was an easy air-line drive which Whitted plucked out of a ray of the sun. Oldring up, ball one, strike one swung; Oldring flied to Moran. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston rooters arose as a man and implored the Braves to put across the winning run in this inning. The Royal Rooters' hand in the left field stand held his hand down to indicate where it struck, and it was out of the line by inches. The crowd went wild with joy at first, and then snubbed dejected. Ball two; Maranville singled to right center, scoring Schmidt. It was a beautifully placed hit. The midget reached out after the ball and connected with the end of his bat. Walsh made a game try for it, making a headlong dive when the ball was only about two feet from the ground. Gowdy up, ball one, strike one called, ball two. Maranville stole second and went to third on Schang's low throw. It was a palpable error for the catcher, as Collins did not have the ghost of a chance to stop the ball. Gowdy still up, ball one, ball two, ball three; Gowdy walked. Gowdy was purposely passed. Bush had too much respect for the lanky backstop's batting prowess. He was afraid the big fellow would smash another into the left field bleachers. On an attempted double steal Maranville was caught off third base, Schang to Collins. One run, two hits, one error.

Maranville was off like a shot on his foul hit to right and had completely circled the bases before Hildebrand managed to show that the ball had not struck in fair territory. The play which caught Maranville off third was lightning fast.

Philadelphia: Collins up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Collins singled to third. Deal hit with his gloved hand or it would have gone through for two bases or perhaps three. Baker up, ball one, ball two; Baker hit into a double play, Evers to Maranville to Schmidt. Maranville made a wonderful play. Collins ran into him at second but the midget made the throw to first nevertheless. McInnes up, out on the first pitched ball, Deal to Schmidt. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Maranville's relay of Evers' assist was really a wonderful play. He fell forward on his face after making the throw, his collision with Collins having thrown him from his feet.

Boston: Whitted up, strike one swung, strike two called, ball one, ball two; Whitted out, Bush to McInnes, on an easy tap which Bush fielded with his gloved hand and got to McInnes far ahead of the runner. Schmidt up, ball one; Schmidt flied to Oldring. The ball soared high in the air but it was an easy catch for the Babe. Deal up, ball one, strike one, ball two, foul; Deal doubled into the left field stand inside the foul line. The fans indulged in a mighty scramble for the ball. Maranville up, ball one; Maranville popped to Schang. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Bush seemed to be getting stronger as the game progressed. He was at his best when the sun was obscured by the clouds, for it was then he would use his fast ball most effectively. The general play was becoming snappier as both teams were heged to a high tension because of the tied score.

Philadelphia: Walsh up, strike one called, strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Walsh fouled to Deal. He hit a high one inside, and it glanced off his bat high into the air for an easy out. Barry up, strike one swung, ball one; Barry out, Tyler to Schmidt. It was the easiest kind of a chance. Schang up, ball one, ball two, strike one called, ball three; Schang out, Evers to Schmidt. No runs, no hits, no errors.

At the end of the Athletics' half of the seventh the fans took their seats, accompanied by tremendous cheering, and began pulling for a rally.

Boston: Gowdy up, strike one called; strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Gowdy out, Barry to McInnes. Gowdy got into a hole by getting two strikes right off the reel and Bush then induced him to strike at a bad one. Tyler up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Tyler fanned, taking a look at the third strike. Moran up, Moran out, Barry to McInnes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Bush was pitching a much stronger game. Instead of letting the batsmen get him in a hole and then being forced to cut the plate with the ball, he got the sphere over on the jump and got the batsmen in the hole.

Philadelphia: Bush up; Bush out, Schmidt to Tyler. The ball got past Tyler but he ran back and made a pretty throw to Tyler after he had knocked down the drive. Bush hit the first ball pitched. Murphy up, ball one, strike one swung, strike two called; Murphy flied to Whitted. It was an easy air-line drive which Whitted plucked out of a ray of the sun. Oldring up, ball one, strike one swung; Oldring flied to Moran. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston rooters arose as a man and implored the Braves to put across the winning run in this inning. The Royal Rooters' hand in the left field stand held his hand down to indicate where it struck, and it was out of the line by inches. The crowd went wild with joy at first, and then snubbed dejected. Ball two; Maranville singled to right center, scoring Schmidt. It was a beautifully placed hit. The midget reached out after the ball and connected with the end of his bat. Walsh made a game try for it, making a headlong dive when the ball was only about two feet from the ground. Gowdy up, ball one, strike one called, ball two. Maranville stole second and went to third on Schang's low throw. It was a palpable error for the catcher, as Collins did not have the ghost of a chance to stop the ball. Gowdy still up, ball one, ball two, ball three; Gowdy walked. Gowdy was purposely passed. Bush had too much respect for the lanky backstop's batting prowess. He was afraid the big fellow would smash another into the left field bleachers. On an attempted double steal Maranville was caught off third base, Schang to Collins. One run, two hits, one error.

Maranville was off like a shot on his foul hit to right and had completely circled the bases before Hildebrand managed to show that the ball had not struck in fair territory. The play which caught Maranville off third was lightning fast.

Philadelphia: Schang up, ball one; Schang flied to Moran. It was a high hit ball but did not have the power to carry it along. Bush up, strike one, foul; Bush out, Deal to Schmidt. Bush's drive got to Deal in a fraction of a second but he stopped running when he saw the third sacker field the ball. Murphy up, ball one, ball two, strike one called, strike two, foul, ball three, foul; Murphy doubled to left center, his second double of the game. The hit looked good for only one base but Murphy sprinted at top speed and made second with time to spare. Oldring up, ball one, ball two, strike one swung, strike two, foul; Oldring fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Oldring's punch out in this inning was his fourth of the series. He swung hard but was missing Tyler's shoots a foot. The crowd gave Tyler a great hand as he returned to the bench.

Boston: Tyler up, ball one, strike one called; strike two swung, foul, ball two; Tyler out, Bush to McInnes. The south-law gave the ball a stinging crack but it proved to be a sharp grounder direct at the pitcher. Moran up, strike one, foul, ball one; Moran out, Barry to McInnes. It was the simplest kind of a chance, Barry being able to make a lazy play on the ball. Evers up, ball one, ball two, strike one called; Evers singled to left, his second hit of the game. He gave the ball a vicious wallop and it was only the fastest kind of fielding by Oldring which prevented it from going for two bases. Connolly up; Connolly out, Collins to McInnes, on the first ball pitched. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The crowd expected something from Connolly and gave him a hand when he came up after Evers' single. His offering was easy for Collins.

Philadelphia: Collins up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Collins singled to third. Deal hit with his gloved hand or it would have gone through for two bases or perhaps three. Baker up, ball one, ball two; Baker hit into a double play, Evers to Maranville to Schmidt. Maranville made a wonderful play. Collins ran into him at second but the midget made the throw to first nevertheless. McInnes up, out on the first pitched ball, Deal to Schmidt. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Maranville's relay of Evers' assist was really a wonderful play. He fell forward on his face after making the throw, his collision with Collins having thrown him from his feet.

Boston: Whitted up, strike one swung, strike two called, ball one, ball two; Whitted out, Bush to McInnes, on an easy tap which Bush fielded with his gloved hand and got to McInnes far ahead of the runner. Schmidt up, ball one; Schmidt flied to Oldring. The ball soared high in the air but it was an easy catch for the Babe. Deal up, ball one, strike one, ball two, foul; Deal doubled into the left field stand inside the foul line. The fans indulged in a mighty scramble for the ball. Maranville up, ball one; Maranville popped to Schang. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Bush seemed to be getting stronger as the game progressed. He was at his best when the sun was obscured by the clouds, for it was then he would use his fast ball most effectively. The general play was becoming snappier as both teams were heged to a high tension because of the tied score.

Philadelphia: Walsh up, strike one called, strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Walsh fouled to Deal. He hit a high one inside, and it glanced off his bat high into the air for an easy out. Barry up, strike one swung, ball one; Barry out, Tyler to Schmidt. It was the easiest kind of a chance. Schang up, ball one, ball two, strike one called, ball three; Schang out, Evers to Schmidt. No runs, no hits, no errors.

At the end of the Athletics' half of the seventh the fans took their seats, accompanied by tremendous cheering, and began pulling for a rally.

Boston: Gowdy up, strike one called; strike two, foul, ball one, ball two; Gowdy out, Barry to McInnes. Gowdy got into a hole by getting two strikes right off the reel and Bush then induced him to strike at a bad one. Tyler up, strike one called, ball one, strike two, foul; Tyler fanned, taking a look at the third strike. Moran up, Moran out, Barry to McInnes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Bush was pitching a much stronger game. Instead of letting the batsmen get him in a hole and then being forced to cut the plate with the ball, he got the sphere over on the jump and got the batsmen in the hole.

Philadelphia: Bush up; Bush out, Schmidt to Tyler. The ball got past Tyler but he ran back and made a pretty throw to Tyler after he had knocked down the drive. Bush hit the first ball pitched. Murphy up, ball one, strike one swung, strike two called; Murphy flied to Whitted. It was an easy air-line drive which Whitted plucked out of a ray of the sun. Oldring up, ball one, strike one swung; Oldring flied to Moran. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston rooters arose as a man and implored the Braves to put across the winning run in this inning. The Royal Rooters' hand in the left field stand held his hand down to indicate where it struck, and it was out of the line by inches. The crowd went wild with joy at first, and then snubbed dejected. Ball two; Maranville singled to right center, scoring Schmidt. It was a beautifully placed hit. The midget reached out after the ball and connected with the end of his bat. Walsh made a game try for it, making a headlong dive when the ball was only about two feet from the ground. Gowdy up, ball one, strike one called, ball two. Maranville stole second and went to third on Schang's low throw. It was a palpable error for the catcher, as Collins did not have the ghost of a chance to stop the ball. Gowdy still up, ball one, ball two, ball three; Gowdy walked. Gowdy was purposely passed. Bush had too much respect for the lanky backstop's batting prowess. He was afraid the big fellow would smash another into the left field bleachers. On an attempted double steal Maranville was caught off third base, Schang to Collins. One run, two hits, one error.

The Markets

LOCAL WHOLESALE MARKETS.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Hay, Timothy, Clover, Alfalfa, etc.

Butter and Eggs. Butterfat, per lb. 34c. Creamery butter, per lb. 35c. Eggs, 30c cash, 35c trade.

Poultry. Hens, per lb. 11c. Roosters, per lb. 8c. Fryers, per lb. 11c.

Steers. Cows, per cwt. 5c. Hogs, fat, per lb. 7c. Stock hogs, per lb. 6c. Swine, per lb. 3 1/2c. Spring lambs, per lb. 5c. Veal, first class, 11c.

Dry, per lb. 8c. Salted country pelts, each. 65c@81. Lamb pelts, each 25c.

SEATTLE MARKETS. Seattle, Wash., Oct. 12.—Eggs, fresh ranch 45@50c; Orientals 18c. Butter, local cubes 34c; bricks 35c; Oregon subs 32@33c. Cheese, Limburger 19c; Wisconsin 19c; Swiss (domestic) 24c; Washington 17 1/2@18c.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Eggs, extras 45c; pullets 21c; California storage extras 30c. Butter, extras 29 1/2c; prime fruits 27 1/2c; firats 10 1/2c; seconds 10c.

SALEM BEATS OREGON CITY. The Salem High School football eleven simply walked all over the Oregon City High School contingent in the game on the high school grounds Saturday afternoon. The final score was 44 to 0.

Captain Keene led the onslaught of the locals, registering the two opening touchdowns by pulling down long forward passes, long runs and a touch-down twice in succession. His punting was also one of the mainstays of the Salem team.

The excellent work of the Salem back field was the big feature of the game. The precise manner in which they made every play was a big credit to their coach and accounts largely for the continual scoring.

The old backfield men Proctor, Radcliffe and Rehnardt did excellent work and their strength was greatly increased by Downie, quarterback on Chemawa last season, who is occupying the pivot's position now.

With practically an all star aggregation the locals will make a hard fight for the high school supremacy of the state. They will meet Dallas High School, one of the strongest teams on the west side, here next Saturday. This contest is expected to be more even than Saturday's game and should prove very interesting.

STAYTON NEWS

Clint Sanders returned from an extended trip to Missouri