Judge William Galloway, of the department Number 2 of the Circuit court of this county, will leave Salem the last of this week for Portland to hear some cases in that district. There are cases that had been set for hearing before Judge Cleaton but since the decision of the State supreme court Judge Galloway has been obliged to officiate in a number of cases in the Portland district. The business of Judge Galloway's court in Salem will be handled by Circuit Judge Kelly.

KEEP YOUR EYES HEALTHY

Strained and overworked eyes soon lose their brilliancy. The lustre of health in eyes soon vanishes when they are wasting their strength. They fast become blood-shot and dull looking.

Defective eyes waste their own energy. Correctly fitted glasses save strength.

Depend upon it that I will give you correctly fitted glasses. My nearly 32 years of practical experience is of itself an assurance that you will get the very best in service. My equipment is complete and thorough. The glasses that I furnish are fitted and manufactured with skill and care in every detail.

I do not use drops nor drugs of any kind, as they are dangerous.

I guarantee all of my work, and you are invited to come where absolute accuracy in correcting eye defects is placed above every other consideration.

OUR NIGHT SCHOOL

Is the place where many young people have gotten a taste, for a usable education—where the start was made that ultimately resulted in advancement and increased efficiency.

There are scores of young men and women in Salem who ought to be in our night school. The cost is not much, and the studies are interesting—such as book-keeping, shorthand, typewriting, penmanship, spelling, etc.

See the principal in his office on Friday evening. Night sessions will begin on Monday evening, November 9th, if enough register to pay cost of maintenance.

COMPOSITION OF CONGRESS.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Indications today were that the new congress would be composed of 227 democrats, 198 republicans, nine progressives and one socialist. The senate will consist mostly of 53 democrats, 40 republicans and one progressive.

The republicans gained 74 members in the house, while the democrats apparently have gained two members in the senate.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER AT LOS ANGELES

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—In the hope of discovering what was the motive for his assassination, the police were investigating today the career of L. A. Andrus, part owner and manager of the Casa Loma apartments, who was shot dead shortly after midnight by an unknown man at the apartments' main entrance on Fillmore street.

All the information the police had to work on was furnished by Mrs. Helen Yates, who occupies a suite at the Casa Loma.

According to her account, a ring sounded at the doorbell, and Andrus, partly disabled, answered it.

"Are you Andrus?" asked the man's voice.

"Yes," said Andrus.

Instantly there was a shot. Mrs. Yates rushed to the spot. Andrus lay in the doorway, a bullet in his heart. His visitor had disappeared.

Alice Martin was granted a divorce by Judge Galloway today from Jesse Martin on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff was also granted the care and custody of two minor daughters, Velma, aged three years, and Eleanor, aged 10 months. The couple were married at Stayton in 1903 and four children have been born to them.

Notice to Public.—All barber shops, hair-cutting 25c.

A telegram received by Judge William Galloway this morning from Francis V. Galloway, of The Dalles states the judge will carry eastern Oregon for the supreme judiciary or at least lead some of the republican candidates for the office. Galloway was 72 behind Harris in Wasco county according to the official returns this morning. McBride had 324, Beason 373 and Bean 787. The telegram said that it was expected that the returns from Sherman would show that the lead of Harris was more than offset. Chamberlain carried Wasco by 300 and Withycombe by 400.

Ladies' shoes, latest styles, $2.20 to $3.95. A. C. DeVoe, 344 State.

"The women have proven themselves to be capable and efficient judges and clerks of election," said County Clerk Gebhar this morning as he was receiving the ballot boxes from the different precincts at the court house. Mr. Gebhar said that about 50 per cent of the judges and clerks of the past election were women and that the tally sheets and statements were neater and in better shape than any received at that office before. Not a single box has been returned to the election board to be properly sealed or remedied in any way for this election, while at the primary election about 13 ballot boxes were returned to the election judges to have errors corrected.

DeVoe is slashing prices on ladies' fine shoes during his Ten Day Sale, 344 State.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin will be pleased to learn they have arrived in New York and will be home about the 12th. Much business was felt on their account, as they were in the war zone and for some time nothing whatever could be heard of or from them. They came home on the steamer New Amsterdam, leaving Holland October 17.

You get something for nothing—free suits at Mosher's when you order a suit.

TAKING TESTIMONY IN TUGWELL TRIAL

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 5.—The preliminary hearing of Percy Tugwell, on a charge of murdering Mrs. Mand Kennedy, was continued today by the arrest in court of his father, John Tugwell, on a charge of embezzlement.

The charge was preferred by W. Gorsuch, father of one of the state's witnesses against the younger Tugwell, who alleged that the father had deposited to the credit of the Crystal Dye Works a check he had accepted for the Metropolitan Dye Works.

Doris Wilmever, who passed the lot where Mrs. Kennedy's body was found on the night of the murder, testified that she saw a man and a woman struggling and heard groans.

S. Keller, another passerby testified that he saw a man and woman in the lot, and heard sounds "like a dog choking a cat." Later he saw a man run from the place. He swore the fugitive was about Tugwell's height, but seemed of broader shoulders.

Elwood Gershwil, employe of the Metropolitan Dye Works, testified that he gave Tugwell a bottle of chloroform prior to the murder.

Judge Galloway's court was occupied this morning with the sewer case from Woodburn, brought by Ella J. Clark and other property owners against the city of Woodburn. It is held by the plaintiffs that the council proceedings ordering the sewer constructed through the property of the plaintiffs was irregular, and that it was not large enough nor was it sanitary. The city holds that the proceedings were regular and that all of the conditions of the city charter were complied with. Also that the sewage passes through a septic tank and is perfectly sanitary. Attorney Grant Corby is appearing for the plaintiffs, and Blaine McCord for the defendants.

Artisans Will Meet.—The United Artisans of the Willamette valley will hold a "get-together" meeting in the Salem Armory on Saturday evening, November 7. The meeting will be entirely free and open to the members of the other fraternal orders of the city, and invited friends. Excursion trains will be run from various valley towns and one thousand visitors are expected to be present. All Artisans are requested to meet at the Marion hotel promptly at 7:45 p. m., from where those assembled will march, led by the Salem Military Band, to the Armory. An excellent program has been arranged, including some of Salem's and Portland's best talent. After the program, and dancing there will be a light luncheon served to visiting Artisans only. All local visitors are requested to occupy seats in the balcony during the program.

ONLY TWO PROPOSED MEASURES PASSED

Citizenship Requirements Carries—Two Others May Creep Through

Portland, Or., Nov. 5.—Available returns from 307 precincts in Multnomah county complete and partial returns from 12 counties in the state at large indicate that only two of the 29 measures on the ballot are passed beyond all question—prohibition, and citizenship requirements for alien voters—while there is a strong probability that the measure providing for the abolition of capital punishment will also carry.

The prohibition amendment probably carried by at least 20,000 majority. Heavy majorities are registered against all the tax amendments as well as the one providing for a universal eight-hour law. The dentistry bill is evidently defeated by a few thousand votes. The measure providing for primary delegates was swamped by a vote of five to one.

Multnomah county rolled up a majority of nearly 20,000 in favor of the measure providing for city consolidation, which may prove sufficient to offset the negative vote of the state and carry the measure.

The southern Oregon normal appropriation seems hopelessly beaten, although there is a chance that the appropriation for the Weston school may carry if further state reports cut down in any degree the present vote against the measure. Multnomah county expressed a small affirmative vote for the support of the institution.

The measures providing for the abolition of the desert land board and consolidation of the state insurance and corporation departments were defeated by a vote of from two and three to one.

Heavy votes were also registered against the propositions to abolish the state senate, proportional representation and to create the office of lieutenant-governor.

The measure providing for a non-partisan judiciary has a majority in Multnomah county of over 100 but there is a strong vote against it in the state.

THE TOGGERY UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

WINTHROP HAMMOND AND C. E. BISHOP, OF PORTLAND, BUY WELL-KNOWN SALEM CLOTHING HOUSE.

The Toggery, Salem's well known and high class clothing and furnishing goods store is now under new management and ownership. David Yantis and John J. Roberts, the former owners, have sold out to Winthrop Hammond, a capitalist, banker and clothing man of Portland. The store is to be re-incorporated and the name, "The Toggery," which has been familiar to the public of this city and vicinity for the past ten years, will be changed. Associated with Mr. Hammond, will be C. E. Bishop, also of Portland, who will be the resident manager of the new firm which will be incorporated as The Hammond-Bishop Co.

Both Mr. Hammond and Mr. Bishop are in the city and have been actively engaged in arranging the details of the transfer and in supervising the inventory and disposition of the large stock of goods carried by The Toggery. They have an extra force of employes at work rearranging and repacking goods in preparation for a big clearance sale which is to be started next week and which is to close out much of the present stock to make room for big shipments from the East and are due to arrive shortly.

Mr. Hammond is president of the Hammond Mortgage Co. of Portland. He is also interested in several busi-ness enterprises of importance. He was brought up in the clothing business in Massachusetts and has been connected with that line of merchandising practically all his life, and among his holdings is a clothing store near Boston which has been in existence since 1851.

Mr. Hammond during his five years' residence in Portland became well acquainted with Salem and he thinks it a most delightful city with an excellent business future.

Mr. Bishop, who is to have charge of the store here, is also a clothing man of long experience. He was in the business with some of the largest firms of Portland, in Washington and elsewhere. He plans to give Salem a strictly high class store, on the newest and most progressive lines, handling only the best class of goods.

"Dave" Yantis, the founder of The Toggery, popular good fellow and expert clothing salesman, who has been in the business in Salem for the past sixteen years, will remain with the new firm. Few men in the city are better known or better liked than he and hosts of friends will be glad to learn that he will continue to serve them in the same courteous, happy and efficient manner that won The Toggery so many customers. Fred H. Meyers, one of The Toggery's popular salesmen, will also be retained.
