NOTHING DEFINITE KNOWN OF AUDACIOUS

New York, Nov. 16.—Whether the British dreadnaught Audacious is now lying a helpless, tangled mass of steel at the bottom of the North sea, or is undergoing repairs was not definitely known here today.

James Randolph Beames and Hugh Griffiths, passengers on the steamship New York, which arrived here yesterday, declared they saw the sinking of the Audacious and watched the steamship Olympic, from 10 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening, saving the battleship's crew. Griffiths was handmaster of the Olympic; Beames was a cornetist.

A message, carefully framed in order to pass the censor, was sent to London by the New York office of the United Press, making inquiries concerning the fate of the dreadnaught. The following reply was received:

"Best information available indicates Audacious is under going repairs."

The message added that there was only one fatality. Owing to the strict censorship, it was impossible to get further details.

CHAMPIONSHIP MAY TAKE NINE GAMES

It Seems Probable the New Rules Will Require 9 Instead of 7 Games

By Hal Sheridan.

New York, Nov. 16.—Early in December the magnates of the National league will decide whether nine games instead of seven shall determine the world's baseball championship each year, and also whether there shall be any reduction in the scale of prizes.

American league directors already have ratified the new plan, and it is practically certain to be approved by the Nationals.

If the plan is adopted, the players will share in five games instead of four as at present. To what extent the price of tickets will be lowered will be decided at a joint meeting of the two leagues.

The players are for the plan, as it would mean more money for them provided there is not too big a reduction in the price of admission.

Discussing the proposed scheme, Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, said:

"I am heartily in favor of the plan. I think it would be a good thing. Some of the club owners would like to make the series eleven games. This would give everybody that wanted to see the games, or some of the games, a chance for it is almost certain that the series would not be won in five straight contests. The chances are that the series would last six, seven or eight games, and that would give the fans a chance to see some of them, if not all."

WILLAMETTE BEATEN; DOAN'S ARM BROKEN

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 16.—Though fighting like demons until the final whistle blew, the Willamette men proved so match for Gonzaga Saturday afternoon at Natatorium park and were defeated 28 to 0.

In nowise disheartened by the loss of two of their best players through injuries, the Oregonians gave a good battle and the small crowd that witnessed it went home well satisfied.

Gonzaga, for the most part, played old-fashioned football and not until the second half did they open up to the use of numerous forward passes. In this form of play they were hindered by the absence of Crowley, who had gone out with a bad injury to the knee, and Hartweg, who played only a few minutes. Out of 16 attempted forward passes, only five were successful.

The loss of Captain Emory Doan, Willamette left halfback, early in the first quarter threatened for a time to take the fighting spirit out of the visitors, but they quickly recovered. Doan's left arm was broken at the elbow in a line tackle.

The field was dry and fast and Coach Thompson, of Willamette, pronounced it the kind of a footing his men liked. The visitors' line-up contained a number of big men and as a whole probably outweighed Gonzaga. Bolt, right tackle for Willamette, was a giant and weighed over 190. Time after time he punted well over 30 yards, one going for 42 yards.

The crowd was a disappointment and Gonzaga lost heavily on the game.

their own 20-yard line when the pistol sounded the end of the game.

Fake Play Works Well.

Miller's drawing the entire Oregon team with him in the third quarter, with the ball on Oregon's 30-yard line for what looked like a punt formation, allowed Hunt, Washington's left end, to slide out uncovered and unnoticed toward the goal.

Miller ran wide and, with Hunt well placed, shot him a high, perfectly directed forward pass diagonally across the field, and Hunt tore for the goal without the least difficulty. Smith kicked goal.

Smith, in the first five minutes of the first quarter, with his kicking toe in operation on the 30-yard line, booted the oval directly between the goal posts. The husky little Washington quarterback had worked Miller and Shiel perfectly and got his team in the position from which he is most accustomed to kick.

Although the Oregon team fought like madmen every minute of the game, and although their defense was almost impenetrable at critical times in the center, Washington's gains came through Miller's and Shiel's ability to make gains off tackle and end. Oregon's left side of the line was the weaker today and Smith used his attack there effectively.

CALIFORNIA BOXING STOPS DECEMBER 15

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 16.—According to a statement issued from the office of Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, California's new anti-fight law will go into effect about December 15.

The statement was in reply to numerous letters from boxing promoters as to how much longer they could continue to operate. Jordan figures there will be a series of boxing matches to wind the close, as the promoters throughout the state appear anxious to handle as many contests as possible. He estimated that 300 bouts would be staged in California within the next month.

JUNIORS VICTORS OVER MUTE SCHOOL

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors' football team were winners in their game with the Mute School Saturday by the score of 33 to 6. The Juniors made five touchdowns, working the forward man for three of them. One was made on an end run by Hatcliffe, and Walcott threw a punt through the line for the line for another. Schaffer, the right end for the Juniors, was the most successful in pulling the passes out of the sky and the three touchdowns on forward passes were made by him. Three of the teams lined up as follows:

Salem Juniors..... Vernon Schaffer..... Vernon Turner..... Ralph Barnes..... Wian Turner Albright..... Paul Staley..... Egleton John Griffith..... Brewer Will George..... Hopkins Brooks..... Hill Leon Culbertson..... Bauer Hatcliffe..... Seward Winder Buren..... Hampton Wolcott Buren..... Thayer

WASHINGTON STATE WINS

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 15.—Upsetting all expectations, Whitman's aggressive football combination walked right over Washington State college at Recreation park during the first half of the gridiron contest yesterday afternoon, the score at the end of the first half having stood 6 to 0 in Whitman's favor, then real fireworks began. The last half was desperately fought, and W. S. U. emerged the victors. Settlers, Waite, Zimmerman and Dietz were sent in during the second quarter by W. S. U. to replace backfield players who were unable to stop Whitman's rushing.

Stanford Winner

California Field, Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 15.—Before 28,000 spectators, Stanford's rugby fifteen defeated the University of California fifteen by a score of 24 to 8 on California field yesterday afternoon.

The game was the most sensational and bitterly fought of any of the nine rugby contests which the two universities have waged.

Stanford's victory was clean cut. Her much heralded back field performed entirely up to the expectations, and practically all of Stanford's tries were the result of brilliant passing rushes executed by the backs. The work of the forwards was brilliant.

Canby Makes Big Score

Woodburn, Ore., Nov. 15.—The Canby high school football team was defeated here by a score of 141 to 0 in a game with the woodburn high school, a lighter team, yesterday. This is the largest score made this year on the coast in interscholastic games.

Albany Beats Pacific

Albany, Ore., Nov. 15.—Albany college defeated Pacific college here yesterday afternoon at football by a score of 19 to 0. The game was well contested, with both teams working in good shape, but the local team slightly outclassed their rivals.

WASHINGTON WINS FROM OREGON ELEVEN

University of Washington, Seattle, Wash., Nov. 15.—The university forged its way another peg toward the north-west championship yesterday afternoon, defeating the University of Oregon by a score of 10-0 on a perfect field and day, when her undefeated football team upheld the record of the last seven years.

The last period was played in semi-darkness, and it was not until the last five minutes of play that Oregon threatened seriously to score. Parsons made a brilliant run of 30 yards from the center of the field to Washington's 20-yard line. Time was precious and Parsons tried a place kick, but missed the goal by two feet. Washington got the ball and was just punting from

O. A. C. OUTCLASSES IDAHO UNIVERSITY

Portland, Ore., Nov. 15.—Displaying a surprising power and resourcefulness, the Oregon Aggies continued their victorious season yesterday by overwhelming the University of Idaho team 26 to 0, representing four touchdowns and two goals.

Arthur Lutz, the swarthy speed demon of the Aggies, outdid his press agents.

He was supposed to be suffering from a sprained knee, but in the half that Lutz was in the game the Aggies piled up 13 points, and the officials snatched another touchdown after it had been made because of holding on the line of scrimmage.

The black-jerseyed huskies from Corvallis simply bored through the red jerseys at will. Every Idaho player on the line was badly outclassed with the exception of big Groninger at right tackle. The only time the Aggies ever were held for downs was when they began fooling with passes and substitutes. If Coach Stewart had left Lutz in the game to do the kicking, passing and the big yardage the Aggies could just as well have made the score 50.

SALEM HIGH BEATS THE EUGENE BOYS

The Salem High school football team took the Eugene High school squad down the field Saturday afternoon to the tune of 26 to 0. Regardless of the one sided score the game was far from a walk over for the locals, and the uneven score does not indicate in any manner the comparative strength of the teams. Salem swept the visitors off their feet in the first quarter and piled up a load of 19 to 0. After that Eugene came back to earth, slightly soiled but still in the running and the game took on the aspects of a hard match illuminated by spectacular runs by quarterback Downie and Halfback Reichart of the Salem team who played the brunt of the game. Captain Keene opened up his choice assortment of forward passes for substantial gains which netted another touchdown in the last quarter.

Wigmore the Star

Wigmore, the Eugene left end, spilled many of Salem's plays and played the star game for the visitors. Williams, of Eugene, took on the aspects of a hard bar of pigeons bearing the Eugene High school colors. After the yell he pulled off a "bury the hatchet" stunt, meeting in mid field to shake hands.

The Rooters Busy

Between the halves the rival rooting sections serpenated on the field and the Eugene contingent liberated a number of pigeons bearing the Eugene High school colors. After the yell he pulled off a "bury the hatchet" stunt, meeting in mid field to shake hands.

The Teams lined up as follows:

Salem..... Eugene—Keene..... R. E. L..... Wigmore McClelland..... R. T. L..... B. Williams Taylor..... B. G. L..... Club and Campbell

Albany..... Pacific—Paul..... L. G. R..... Newmyr Williams..... L. T. R..... Stencil, V. Williams and Hansen
