The county courts of Polk and Marion counties will meet at 10 o'clock Wednesday to consider the matter of the steel bridge across the river here, according to County Judge Bushey, who made the arrangements with Judge Test of Polk county this morning. The courts will have the estimates, plus all other data prepared by the state highway commissioner and the matter will be considered to its smallest detail.

Fine fur sets at Moshers at one-half the price charged elsewhere.

An order was issued by Judge Galloway, in department No. 2 of the circuit court, today that the property involved in the case of Charles Kirkwood, et al, against Henry Kirkwood and others be sold at auction and the proceeds of the sale be divided among the litigants. The land in question comprises 148 acres in Yamhill county, and on account of the number of heirs, any other adjustment was impracticable, as there were nine plaintiffs and 15 defendants in the suit.

You can save about 20 per cent on groceries at B. D. Fasching & Sons, Phone 873.

George Brown, was the victim of an assault by John Schultz near Newberg some time ago, has been taken to a hospital in Portland for treatment, according to advices received at the sheriff's office from Champoux, where Brown has been at his home. According to the report, Brown was not recovering as rapidly as expected, and most of the time was in a stupor. When aroused he immediately relapsed and it was feared that his mind was affected as he was not entirely rational at times.

Reduce your grocery bill by buying at sale prices. B. D. Fasching & Sons.

The funeral services over the remains of Levi B. Harris, who died at the family home six miles east of the city Friday evening, aged 27 years, were conducted at the farm home at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, by Rev. Hornschuck, pastor of the Evangelical association of this city, and interment was had in the Macleay cemetery. Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Harris. Through a misunderstanding of the name, as it was received over the telephone Saturday morning, the name was given as Herren in the Journal of that date.

Do not be misled. You do not pay one cent more for glasses fitted by Dr. Mendelsohn than you pay elsewhere. You get the benefit of his more than 31 years' experience as a doctor of optics. His examinations are complete in every detail, and he uses neither drops nor drugs, as they are dangerous. Thousands of satisfied patients in Marion and Polk counties testify to his ability. Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn, Doctor of Optics, 210-211 U. S. Bank building, Salem, Oregon.

Charles Endicott, of Eugene, who is well known in this vicinity as a hop buyer, and who has been held in Eugene on a charge of giving checks with no funds in the bank, has been released from custody and the case settled out of court. Sheriff Eeck put in a claim for the prisoner with sheriff Parker, of Lane county, but Saturday afternoon he received information from Endicott's attorneys that all claims against the man in Marion county would be settled if the charges were not pressed. Gotzian Bros., in this city, were the complainants against Endicott, but as the claims will be satisfied the prisoner will not be brought to Salem for trial.

Hear five entertainments for the price of two. Secure a season ticket to the Students' Lyceum Course tomorrow at the Grand opera house.

The Salem Rod & Gun club went to Wheatland yesterday in their official bus to attend the turkey shoot to be held at that place. While the Salem shooters did not bring back all of the Wheatland turkeys in sight, they secured enough to fill several Thanksgiving suppers. Mark Siddall and S. Z. Culver were the most successful marksmen of the visitors. The Wheatland shooters will attend the shoot next Sunday at the club grounds of the Salem Rod & Gun club. Those who made the trip in the bus were: Mark Siddall, S. Z. Culver, Roy Hawthorn, Linn Parrish, Robert Nickelson, Jeff Irwin, W. E. Anderson, George Charington, Mr. Converse, J. P. McGill and Claud Burrows.

The war department today asked for a report of the typhoid vaccinations made on 20 members of the local militia company as the last application was administered last Wednesday. Captain Gehlhar said that he was pleased to report that not in a single instance was any bad effects felt from the treatment which was administered by Dr. Steeves and Casbatt. The vaccine was administered in three doses about 10 days apart.

At the regular Sunday practice shoot of the rifle team of Company M of this city, Corporal Mitchell made the high score of 144 out of a possible 150. The team score was 524 out of a possible 600 for the four members of the team. Private Blunk scored 131 on all ranges, Private Douglas 129 and First Lieutenant Neer 120. Corporal Mitchell made 49 out of a possible 50 on the 200-yard range and 45 out of a possible 50 in 10 shots on the 600-yard range.

Judge William Galloway returned Saturday night from Portland and opened court today. He has been hearing a number of jury cases that were set for Judge Cleeton's court in Portland. On account of the recent decision of the supreme court relative to the powers of Judge Cleeton, it has been necessary for Judge Galloway to hear cases in Portland. Judge Galloway heard all of the cases in which witnesses were subpoenaed but there are still 80 cases pending in Judge Cleeton's court, which will be ready for trial in the near future. Judge Galloway will hold court in this city during this week.

The "Made in Salem" exhibit is being placed in the windows of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company and the early offerings indicate the room will be crowded for space. Already several of the exhibits are in place but the main part of the exhibit will not be placed until tomorrow or next day. On account of the limited space, no mechanical displays will be conducted.
