DALLAS SALOONS TO CLOSE
Dallas, Ore., Nov. 17.—District Judge Webster Holmes has today refused an injunction in the case of the Dallas saloonmen to prevent the putting into effect of the local option election which was carried by the drys.
The three Dallas saloons will close December 31.

THE PAGE IS FAST
AND THE RACE CLOSEInterest in Contest Growing Intense as Vote Grows Bigger and CloserThe race between the candidates in the Capital Journal's exposition contest is becoming very close. Mrs. Hibbler is still leading today, but Ruth Pa-gate is only 45 votes behind her, and Pearl Zinn is a close third. A large number of votes has been polled since the count was made last Friday, and a number of other candidates made decided gains. Violet Cory has received over 10,000 votes since Friday and is now in fifth place.The trip to the great exposition with its wealth of world-wide wonders, will be the event of a lifetime for the fortunate winner, and the Capital Journal guarantees that no expense will be spared in making it a pleasant one.
First class railroad fare, the best of hotel accommodation, and facilities for seeing the great fair at its best will be provided free of all charge by this paper. It will be a prize well worth working for.The plan adopted by this paper for giving the trip does not require the contestant to sell anything. The only thing necessary to secure votes being to patronize some of Salem's most popular stores. The advertisements of these firms is run in each Friday's Capital Journal. These firms have agreed to give a sales check or receipt to every purchaser for cash or for monthly bills paid until January 1, 1915. The sales checks or receipts from these firms may be exchanged for votes at this office—one vote for every 5 cents of your purchase.The names and standing of the can-

COMPLEXION—THE CURB"Look at a section of the skin under the microscope and you will readily understand why cosmetics generally injure the complexion," says Dr. H.
Robert Mackenzie. "The skin, smooth as it looks to the naked eye, under the glass exhibits a network of tiny holes, mouths of myriads of little glands. To keep the skin healthy, these holes must be unobstructed, that the perspiration and natural oil can have free outlet.
Should the glands be blocked up with irritating gritty particles, a common result of using powders and creams, Nature retaliates by causing swell-ings, roughness, blotches or pimples."
"As a substitute for all cosmetics I recommend ordinary macerated wax.
It not only does what the various face preparations are supposed to accomplish, but its peculiar absorbent action draws the pores from the daily accumulation of impurities, also absorbing the dehydrated particles of surface skin.
This produces a natural, healthy, youthful complexion. One ounce of this wax to be had at any drug store, usually suffices to rejuvenate the poorest complexion. It is put on nightly like cold cream and washed off mornings."

GIVEN OLD PLACESClanton Is Back as Master Fish Warden and Finley Is Again State Game Warden—Officers May Be Again Moved to Portland.The State Fish and Game Commission, which is holding its biennial session in Portland, divided at yesterday's meeting to reorganize the fish and game departments of the state under the original system and in so doing replaced former Master Fish Warden R. E. Clanton in his old position with Theodore Opsund, who has been serving as master fish warden during the past year or more, as his chief assistant.C. H. Evans, who has been state game warden under the reorganization of two years ago, was retired upon his refusal to tender his resignation, and William L. Finley, former state game warden, who has been serving as state biologist under the reorganization scheme of two years ago, has been reinstated in the position of game warden.The officers of the State Fish and Game Commission have been maintained at the capital building since the shake-up and reorganization of two years ago, and under the new condition of affairs it is quite probable that they will be moved back to Portland where they formerly were, in the Yeon building, where Mr. Clanton, who has been acting as state superintendent of state hatcheries the past two years, and State Biologist Finley retained their offices.

A DESPERATE SCHOOL BOY.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 17.—Private detectives employed by the school authorities were aiding the police today in their search for a school boy who sustains such a profound dislike for his books that he sets fire to school buildings. Three schoolhouses have been burned to the ground here within a few weeks, and a fourth badly damaged. The school officials unanimously believe that a desperate small boy is responsible for the fires.MAJORITY FOR DRYS WILL REACH 36,000Prohibition secured a majority of approximately 36,000 in the recent statewide election.
Practically complete returns from every county in the state give a total of 134,000 in favor of the amendment and 98,000 against it. This is a favorable majority of 36,000. A few outlying predicts in some Central and Eastern Oregon counties may not be included in these totals, and if they give the same vote in favor of prohibition as given in the other rural districts the majority doubtless will reach 36,000.The vote on the amendment to abolish capital punishment is close, and doubtless will require the official canvass to decide.

a lecture by Dr. R. U. Coffey, of Portland, on "Chronic Constipation, Anatomical and Experimental Standpoints." This is the Matter lecture as delivered by Dr. Coffey before the College of Physicians in Philadelphia, and is profoundly illustrated.This should merit a full meeting of the society, and all physicians in this community are cordially invited to be present.The business session will consider the application for membership of Dr. M. U.
Finley, of Salem, a graduate of the University Medical college of Kansas City, Mo., in 1895.Years very truly, H. J. CLEMENTS,
Secretary.SAY NON RESIDENTS MUST PAY TUITIONAll children attending the Salem high school, whose parents reside outside of the district, unless it can be shown that their parents cannot afford to pay the tuition fees, and the cases are worthy—will have to pay the regular tuition fees for high school instruction, according to a ruling of the school board at last night's meeting.The matter was presented to the board by Superintendent Elliott, who called their attention to the case of a girl, attending high school and whose parents reside outside of the city, had applied to him for free tuition on the ground that she was not living with her parents; that she was residing in the city with a relative, and that her parents do not support her.It was explained that in the case in point the parents of the student lived upon a farm and that her city relative also owned property in the country, and that the girl appeared unusually well-dressed at school. It looked like a clear case of the parents being well able to pay the tuition fee, but that the story of non-support, dependency and residing with a city relative was but a ruse to escape payment of the regular tuition.Superintendent Elliott stated that three or four cases of a similar nature had been disclosed in the high school recently where children whose parents lived in the country or outside of the school district limits were staying in town and claiming it as their residence in order that the parents may escape payment of the tuition fees, when they were perfectly able to do so. Because the present form of entrance cards, which only require that the residence of the pupils be given and not that of the parents, it is a comparatively easy matter to work such a scheme upon the school authorities, and, in all probab-NOTICE

The Markets

Wheat prices shaded off from half a cent to a cent Monday in Chicago and about the same in Portland. This was caused by reports of a large increase over the estimates of visible supply.
This was expected, but the surplus was not expected to be so large as it has proven, and which is now in excess of 5,500,000 bushels. That it will still further increase is conceded. Reports from Argentine of extra good crop conditions and larger acreage also had a tendency to weaken prices. That they will be materially reduced, however is not expected.Hop trading in the Yakima section has left less than one-third of the crop on hand and this is rapidly vanishing.
About 1500 bales were sold there yesterday at from 7 to 10 cents. Trading in this state was fairly active. Two carloads were sold at Banks for 7 1/2 cents. Several other sales were reported at from 7 to 9 cents and one lot of 140 bales were sold at 4 1/2 cents at Vancouver.Poultry is in good supply and turkeys more plentiful than usual. Vegetables are in good supply and eggs still at low prices.
