ARRANGE FOR WELSH AND WHITE TO MEET

Coffroth Expects to Bring Them Together in San Francisco About Dec. 15

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Promoter Coffroth was enthusiastic today over the outlook for a Freddie Welsh-Charlie White 20-round contest here about December 15.

"I feel that I have an even chance of hooking the biggest lightweight attraction on the cards," Coffroth said.

"Harry Pollock wired me that Welsh had signed to meet Young Shugrue in Madison Square Garden December 2. He added, however, that Welsh would be pleased to come to San Francisco and box White or anybody else provided his own arrange his dates. I wired Pollock last night telling him about when the death knell was to be sounded on the sport here, and I expect some definite word before night."

White, who boxed Welsh a close 10-round bout in Milwaukee about a week ago, jumped at the chance to meet the champion again.

"Get the match under any conditions," Manager Nate Lewis wired Coffroth, "and we will have no trouble coming to an agreement about what we are to receive. Don't let Welsh get away, for we will accept most any kind of terms to get him into the ring."

White Is Anxious

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Charlie White Chicago lightweight, has accepted today Promoter Coffroth's terms for a 20-round bout in San Francisco with Freddie Welsh about December 15. Nate Lewis, White's manager, offered to cancel three bouts White has scheduled, and if a favorable reply is received from Coffroth today, White will leave at once for San Francisco.

Fagan to Meet Winner

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 23.—A match between Bill Fagan, the Australian heavyweight, and the winner of the Bonds-Palmer match here next Thursday, is likely to be arranged, according to boxing promoters today.

Fagan came here to box Tom Covier, but the Briton refused to meet him. Fagan claims to have defeated all the white title aspirants in Australia and has now come to the United States seeking fresh laurels.

To Tune Up Racers

Corona, Cal., Nov. 23.—Practically every car entered for the annual Corona automobile race, which will be run Thanksgiving day, was expected to take the track today for a "tuning up" run. Several fast laps were turned in yesterday's practice, four drivers negotiating a lap at a shade better than 100 miles an hour.

Bob Burman and Earl Copper put their big machines in final racing order last night and were on the track soon after sunrise. Thousands of spectators watched the practice.

Race officials predicted today that 75,000 persons will see the contest.

OREGON O. A. C. GAME WAS DRAWN BATTLE

Crippled Oregon Team Makes Great Defensive Fight—Aggie, Stronger, Pressed Their Opponents Hard.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Or., Nov. 23.—Following are the statistics of the game: O. A. C. made yardage six times as against Oregon's two times. Five forward passes were attempted during the whole game, four by the Aggies, one of which was successful, and one for 50 yards by the lemon-yellow.

O. A. C. carried the ball 41 times for a total yardage of 121. Oregon attempted the advancement of the leather but 19 times for an aggregate of 114 yards.

Included in this total is the 50-yard run made by Weist on Sharp's forward pass. Lutz, the Aggie punter, outkicked Beckett on an average of two yards to the boot. The Beaver star registered an average of 40 yards. Beckett netting 38. These figures do not show on the surface the margin by which the orange man outbooted the lemon man, as several of the former's punts went out of bounds, registering 20 yards. And three went way over the goal line from the center of the field, the amount over the line not being figured in the average.

FAWCETT'S STORY OF GAME

Roscoe Fawcett, the sporting writer, sums up the great game as follows:

No football championship in this sovereign state of ours for another 12 months!

Two hours of grueling battle between the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural College ended in a 3-to-3 tie score today—just such a tie score as the memorable 10-to-10 encounter last Fall at Albany. Honors appeared about even, but a tie was greeted by the varsity today as a victory, because Oregon figured as a slight short-ender.

As indicated by the score placards settled the outcome. As late as the fourth quarter it looked as if that elusive bird of victory were to perch this year upon the Aggie standards. After the rival teams had fought each other to a standstill, Art Lutz booted a placement between the varsity posts in the third period, and at that stage of the game this three-point lead looked as big as the Matterhorn alongside Mount Tabor.

Oregon Is Handicapped

Oregon began with only two veterans in the backfield and its offense was not having much success in advancing the ball against the husky Orange and Black forwards.

Suddenly Quarterback Sharp, of Oregon, launched a play that engraved two names on the roll of honor in the respective colleges, Weist and Lutz. Neither team had attempted any passing in the first half, but in the fourth quarter, with the score 3-0 against him, Sharp opened wide the throttle for an aerial attack. With 10 minutes left to play, he called for a forward pass to Weist, left end. The ball was shot back to Sharp, and 20 yards over the heads of the tigerish Aggie linemen whirled the leather into the outstretched arms of Weist. There was nobody near him and for 20 yards he tore toward the Aggie goal, when a desperate tackle by Lutz brought him to earth on the 30-yard line.

Huntington, of The Dalles, a young star just breaking into big-league ball booted the ball over the crossbars for the tying score. His kick was made on the fourth down from the 32-yard line. Both teams had other opportunities to score by field goal, but other attempts failed.

Pass Is a Beauty

Personally I have never seen a prettier pass. It was the feature of the game from a spectacular standpoint. A mighty roar went up from 7,000 throats as rosters, friend and foe, massed en masse and waited for the verdict. Yeager diagnosed the play instantly and tried to intercept the ball, but it sailed high and true over his finger tips.

The boot work by Lutz and Beckett was a revelation. These two sterling kickers uncovered punt after punt which soared for distances ranging between 45 and 50 yards. Particularly was this true in the first half. Each pulled one hobble on wobbly kicks that

TONS OF COTTON IN MAIL

New York, Nov. 23.—Seventy-five hundred pounds of medicated cotton awaited shipment this afternoon to Vienna in the foreign mails department of the New York postoffice. Each package bore the following words: "For wounded soldiers at Vienna."

The bundles of cotton did not begin to arrive here until Thursday. Two hundred sacks of cotton arrived Saturday, and each mail since brought increasing amounts.

Pacific coast points have not yet been heard from, and the 300 mail sacks already packed contain shipments only from middle western and eastern states.

The packages were of all sizes, from a single ounce to an entire sackful sent by the St. Paul News. Every state east of the Mississippi river was represented in the shipments.

Flood Best Bowler

Albany, Or., Nov. 23.—G. A. Flood is the champion bowler of Albany. He has an average of 185. R. S. Leeper and Harold Wieder are tied for second place with an average of 180 apiece.

There are quite a number who have averages of 170. Among them are C. H. Baker, A. Carlson, F. C. Stellmacher, C. Carson, Charles Monson and Dr. W. B. Bilyeu.

Salem Game Cancelled

The game scheduled between Chemawa and Pacific University at Chemawa Saturday was declared off, owing to a disagreement over officials.

Newberg Beats M. A.

Mount Angel, Or., Nov. 21.—In a fast game today here Newburg high school defeated Mount Angel college 13 to 6. Mt. Angel began effective work in the last quarter by great yardage. Captain Park and Sullivan starred for Mr. Angel, Russell, the quarter back, for Newberg.

SATURDAY'S FOOTBALL FINALS

 Illinois 24, Wisconsin 9.
 Dartmouth 40, Syracuse 0.
 Minnesota 14, Chicago 7.
 Ohio State 27, Northwestern 0.
 Uraius 3, Navy 33.
 Purdue 23, Indiana 13.

WORK OF THE BLAC KHAND

New York, Nov. 23.—The police insisted today that the fire here early Sunday in which seven persons were cremated in the destruction of an east side tenement was the work of black handers, whose demands for "protection money" had been refused.

POLK POULTRYMEN PREPARE FOR FAIR

Hickman, Or., Nov. 23.—The poultrymen of Polk County have begun preparations for the coming annual exhibition to be held in Dallas this winter, when breeders of all parts of the county and several counties of the Willamette Valley will make exhibits. Over 500 birds were shown at the fair last year, a substantial increase over the preceding year, and now a still greater number are in prospect. The poultry industry in this county has seen a rapid rise during the past year, stimulated by the annual shows.

Three hours' labor is the equivalent of one municipal meal check, under the schedule adopted by City Marshal Williams of Roseburg. The city's streets are showing improvement accordingly.
