

Social and Personal

By MOLLIE RUNGORN

YOU are cordially invited to attend a home-coming of all old-time teachers and pupils of the North Salem school, January 22, 1915, 8 to 10 p. m.

The above is the form of the invitations sent out to former pupils and teachers of the Grand school, including all who have attended this school up until 1905. All parents residing in that district and interested in the Parent-Teacher work are also cordially invited to attend. It is expected that a very large gathering will be noted.

The reception given by St. Monica's Altar society to out-of-town visitors, new residents and members of St. Joseph's parish in St. Joseph's hall Thursday afternoon, was one of the most successful and pleasing affairs of its kind that has ever been attempted by the members of this organization. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion, and about seventy-five women were present to enjoy an especially attractive program of vocal and instrumental numbers rendered by the pupils of the Sacred Heart academy. Dainty refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, cakes and coffee.

R. Monroe Gilbert is sojourning at Newport, enjoying a mid-winter holiday, and making sketches of the ocean and surrounding country at its most beautiful season.

The Parent-Teacher association of the East school meets this evening. A program of special interest to the parents will be given, after which a business session will be held. All patrons and friends of the school are invited to attend.

Quite a number of the Macabees are making arrangements to attend a dance at Hopewell Saturday evening.

The Yeoman will hold a business meeting tonight at the Moose hall and also initiate several candidates. After the regular work of the evening is over there will be a social session with dancing.

Wives of the legislators who are visiting in the city and the wives of the new state officials will share honors with the instructors in the Salem schools and institutions tomorrow afternoon, when the Salem Woman's club entertain, particularly for the latter, with an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Max O. Boren, 745 Court street. Musical numbers have been arranged for the entertainment of the guests and it is planned to make it delightful to all who attend. The hours will be from two until five o'clock. Mrs. P. A. Elliott, president of the Woman's club, and members of the social committee have been making an especial effort to make personal calls on the wives of the legislators and new state officials, and have done so where their locations could be learned, but it has proven rather difficult to find them all, so that any who have been overlooked are not to think it an oversight on the part of club women, and are to consider themselves invited, and for any further information may refer to Mrs. Elliott.

Members of the Eastern Star circle will have their fortnightly social afternoon next Tuesday, Mrs. W. A. Rutherford, Mrs. Amos Vass and Mrs. Frank Zinn to be the hostesses. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd will give a talk on her travels.

A surprise, hastily planned, but most enjoyable and appreciated, was given Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Halsey, who have a suburban residence located just between Salem Heights and Morningside, neighborhood friends from these two districts calling at their home last night. Informal entertainment of various description was enjoyed until a late hour, when the women of the party served a wholesome supper.

Those who joined in giving this pleasant affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Law, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Fulkerson, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peck, Mrs. Rose Varis, Mrs. Mary Reynolds, Mrs. Ethel Law Gulvin, of Jefferson; Miss Clara Healy, Miss Alice Reints and Kinney Hulsey.

Mrs. Francesco Seley, of Newport, who has been entertained by Salem friends during the week, left today for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal V. Roian have returned from Portland, where they attended the Forbes-Robertson performance at the Holbig theater.

Mrs. Ernest Cox was given a birthday surprise on Thursday evening, when several of her friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Kumrow, 1235 State street, to make merry the occasion. The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being red and white, which lent a most welcome atmosphere and formed a pretty setting for the games of cards, which was the pastime of the evening.

At a late-hour supper was served at a prettily decked table, the birthday cake, with its lighted candles, forming a most beautiful centerpiece. Unique placecards marked the places for the guests, who were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Hubel, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morse, Mrs. Rollo, Miss Myers, Mr. Bell, Pearl Plank, and

NATTY TROTTEUR GOWN DEVELOPED ALONG SEVERE LINES

NEW STREET FROCK

The natty frock pictured here was developed in brown covert cloth and is one of the best liked models for this type of frock shown this year. The coat is buttoned down the front, and its salient style features are the pockets, which button over the belt.

C. C. Chapman, of Portland, was a visitor at the state house yesterday. Mr. Chapman is an active member of the Portland Commercial club, is state emigration agent and secretary of the Oregon Development league.

Hazel Hoyt, Miss Florence and Selma Kumrow, daughters of the hostess, assisted in serving.

An interesting program was enjoyed by the Elks at the club rooms last night, musical and literary numbers being the order for the evening. The entertainment was under the management of A. J. Anderson.

ENGLISH THINK THAT VICTORY IS SURE

German Tactics Are Taken To Mean That Their Cause Is Desperate

(By Ed. L. Keen.)

London, Jan. 22.—England's belief that Germany foresees ultimate defeat in the present war and is now planning to adopt desperate war measures was strengthened today by the announcement that a German submarine had torpedoed and sunk the British steamer Durward.

The sinking of this vessel is generally accepted here as the first move in the German policy, announced by Vice Admiral Von Tirpitz, head of the Kaiser's naval forces, in an interview given to Staff Correspondent Karl H. Von Wiegand of the United States, on December 2 last. This is the second of what official England believes are the "last effort" expedients of the Kaiser. The raid on Norfolk Tuesday night by aircraft is regarded as the first.

All reports heretofore have been that the great German aerial fleet was being held by the Kaiser as his "last card-ridge" in the great war. Englishmen believe that the emperor, balked on land and sea, has determined on final, desperate measures. Tuesday night's raid probably was merely a preliminary maneuver.

The torpedoing of the Durward is expected to cause an immediate rise in Lloyd's risk on merchantmen. "This is the first time, it is believed, that a submarine has deliberately sunk a merchant ship. Two or three steamers were sunk early in the war, but these disasters were then believed to be accidental.

The Evening Star and Evening Standard both quote from Von Wiegand's interview with Admiral Von Tirpitz and declare the sinking of the Durward was the result of Von Tirpitz's policy.

"What will the United States say if Germany declares a submarine war on all the enemy's merchant ships?" Von Tirpitz asked in that interview.

"Why not?" he continued. "Great Britain wants to starve us. We can play the same game. We can bottle England up by torpedoing every British or allied ship which nears any English harbor, thereby cutting off the islands' large food supplies.

"What would the United States say? Would not such action be only meeting out to Great Britain what Great Britain is doing to us? Yes."

England's objection to the Dacia's departure was based on the recent transfer from Germany to American registry.

ROGERS IS ARRESTED.

New York, Jan. 21.—Lauria Elton Rogers was arrested this afternoon when he appeared at a local hospital to pay his daily visit to Mrs. Ida Swift Walters "Rogers." He was arrested on a secret indictment voted under a section of the penal code which provides punishment for immoral actions.

Med "Rogers" several weeks ago fed his children and swallowed several herself because she believed, she said, that Rogers was about to desert her and return to his legal wife, a sister of Professor Gibbins, of Columbia university. The two children died.

POPE BENEDICT MAKES REQUEST KNOWN TODAY

By Alice Rohe.

Rome, Jan. 22.—Speaking to the first consistory of his pontificate today Pope Benedict recommended that the Germans "exercise more moderation in their devastation with respect to priests and churches." His holiness also appealed to the Belgians to "use the greatest prudence to avoid useless bloodshed." The pope followed these admonitions with a warning to the holy see that it must observe the strictest neutrality.

Pope Benedict's recommendations were considered remarkable, because they came as the first protest from a neutral sovereign against alleged acts of the Germans. The attitude of the pope was understood to be due to reports from Belgian prelates, particularly in regard to the Cardinal Mercier incident.

The pope's comments were voiced both at a public and a private consistory. He dwelt principally upon the war and its results and declared it to be the duty of the church to point out to the faithful that they should not permit themselves to be separated because of political affiliations.

It was also announced that the pope and a number of cardinals will meet in a special service at St. Peter's on February 7 and all Catholic churches in Europe were urged to conduct expiatory services on that date. It was said that similar worldwide services would be held March 21.

The pope's admonition to Germany followed reports that Cardinal Mercier had been detained by German authorities as a result of pastoral letters. A formal protest was sent to Berlin from the holy see in regard to Cardinal Mercier's detention.

In December, it was announced, England sent Sir Henry Howard as minister to the Vatican, he being the first English diplomatic representative there since the Reformation.

Secretary Daniels Wants Naval Militia

The governor's office is in receipt of the following letter from Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy. It is evidently a general communication being sent out to the various state executives.

"In the Department's letter of February 26, the attention of the States maintaining Naval Militia organizations was called to the fact that although the Naval Militia organizations are assisted by an appropriation carried by the Naval Militia Act, this appropriation is not sufficiently large to cover all the expenses in connection with the organization and training of the Naval Militia, and that it would be expected that each State maintaining a Naval Militia would do its part financially.

"In view of the fact that this is the time of year when the legislatures of many of the States are in session, the Department again wishes to invite the attention of your Excellency to the desirability of State appropriations for the Naval Militia.

"It has been the experience in the Naval Militia that States making adequate appropriations for their Naval Militia, have organizations that are, relatively speaking, efficient, and that States that do not assist with adequate State funds, have organizations that are, relatively speaking, inefficient.

"The Department hopes that your Excellency will consider the advisability of providing sufficient State funds for the maintenance of the Naval Militia in your State in order that the Naval Militia may receive the proper training."

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink Lots of Water and Stop Eating Meat for a While If Your Bladder Troubles You.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become stiff and paralyzed and leggy.

When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

HOP GROWERS MEET.

A meeting of the hop growers in this vicinity was held last Thursday afternoon in C. O. E. hall and was attended by about twenty growers who took a deep interest in the proceedings. Francis Feller acted as chairman and E. N. St. Helen as secretary.

The meeting was addressed by President L. H. McMahon and M. L. Jones, of the Oregon Hop Growers' association, who stated clearly the commendable object of the association. It was made plain to those present that it was to their pecuniary interest to come into the association. Chairman Feller and others also spoke in favor of such an association.

Nearly all present joined the association.—Woodburn Independent.

A SALEM INTERVIEW

Mr. Brown Tells His Experience.—The following brief account of an interview with a Salem man several years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

F. W. Brown, farmer, 1359 State St., Salem, says: "Three years of mill-wright work in a damp atmosphere disordered my kidneys. I often had lameness and aches across the small of my back. When having an attack, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a supply. They removed the backache and soreness, together with other symptoms of kidney trouble. All I said recommending Doan's Kidney Pills when I publicly endorse them before, holds good. I use them occasionally when I have symptoms of kidney complaint and I never fail to get quick relief. Another of the family has also used Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney weakness and has had the best of results."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Brown had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. B.
