ROYALTY BUYS BONDS.

London, Feb. 2.—Purchases by the German imperial family of large blocks of New York bonds to preserve part of the Hohenzollern fortune, in the event of German disaster, is announced by the Daily Express today, in a cablegram from its New York correspondent.

Sergeant Reigleman Received New Sword

Sergeant Perry F. Reigleman, of Company "C," U. S. C., of this city this morning received from the headquarters of the Third regiment a new sword with which he will be armed in the future in the battles at Senide. Perry is top sergeant and he tops his huge knife by a sword four and eight inches. He is known as the biggest little man in the regiment and measures five feet three inches in his holoprops, the sword measures 43 inches in length. The new regulations require that the first sergeant of the company be equipped with a sword and Sergeant Reigleman will now endeavor to learn to "bout face" without tilting up the hilt or tilting his hip.

SALEM FIRST SLOGAN ENDORSED.

Prominent Woman of This City Sends Strong Encouragement.

A few days ago the Commercial club mailed to many of the women of Salem a letter telling of the slogan, "Try Salem First" movement, and suggesting that the women, who do most of the trading, could materially assist. Among the many answers received, the following from one of the most active women workers of the city shows the proper spirit. The letter is as follows: "You certainly have my help in encouraging purchases to 'Try Salem First.' We owe it to our merchants. They can afford to give us better service when we are loyal to them. I do not buy in Portland what can be purchased here. I know of no better way to create a strong buy-at-home sentiment than to be loyal to our own city."

TO ELECT BLACK POPE.

Rome, Feb. 2.—Leading Jesuits of the entire world assembled here today for the election of a new leader popularly known as the "black pope."

The position was made vacant by the passing away of Father Verza, whose death was almost simultaneous with that of Pope Ben X. Father Lajakowsky, a noted Polish Jesuit, was prominently mentioned for the place.

R. R. DIRECTORS SUED.

New York, Feb. 2.—Directors of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway company of 1908 were today made defendants in a suit to recover $7,500,000 alleged to have been removed from the company's treasury without benefit to the stockholders.

The suit hinges upon the issuance by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway company of $7,500,000 preference bonds.

SPEED ON NAVAL BILL.

Washington, Feb. 2.—High speed on the naval appropriations bill was expected in the house today. Many members believed that with the present ship purchase bill situation in the senate prospects for an extra session, preventing passage of the bill unless it is passed, is bright. Interest early today centered on the powder trust.

WILSON TALKS TO SOLONS.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 2.—"Yama Jim" Wilson, for 16 years secretary of agriculture, today addressed a joint session of the Iowa legislature and criticized the effectiveness of the government quarantine for the foot and mouth disease. He questioned the right of the government to enter states and enforce the quarantine, but said if it had this right, the government should pay the bills.

He asked the legislature to appropriate $100,000 to stamp out the disease.
