MRS. P. C. KNOX, JR., WHO ELOPED TO WED, MAY GO ON STAGE

MRS. P. C. KNOX, JR. Philander Chase Knox, Jr., son of the former secretary of state and United States senator, and his young wife, who, before he eloped with her from Providence R. I., in March, 1910, was Miss May G. Bolter, a shop girl, are reported to have separated. Both have left their charming little home in Charleston, W. Va., and come to New York, Mrs. Knox for the purpose of beginning an action for separation and filling a theatrical engagement. It is stated, and young Knox for the purpose of inducing his wife to forgive and begin all over again. The path of romance has been a very thorny one for the young couple. It was while he was a student at the Morris Heights Preparatory school that young Knox met and fell in love with the Auburn haired schoolgirl. After a whirlwind courtship they eloped and traveled vainly through three states before they could find a clergyman to perform the marriage ceremony. Finally a minister in Burlington, Vt., united the runaways. With his bride young Knox hurried to his father's home in Washington for the parental blessing. But forgiveness was withheld, and he was summarily told by his father that, having married to suit his fancy, he could get out and hustle for himself.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A PERSONAL STATEMENT.
There are so-called "honey and tar" preparations that cost the dealer half as much but sell at the same price as the original and genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. We never offer these imitations and substitutes. We know you will buy Foley's whenever you need a cough syrup if you once use it. People come long distances for the true FOLEY'S—over thirty years the leading remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchial and laryngeal coughs. J. C. Perry.
